Principal's Message

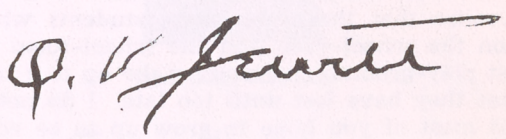

As the deadline approaches for my message to our School yearbook, Sol Ortus, I suddenly realize that once again another year at the Collegiate is quickly drawing to a close. For me, this year has been a most interesting and enjoyable one. I would like to take this opportunity to thank you all for your co-operation and assistance.

The work of a Collegiate teacher is exacting and sometimes frustrating; yet, it is also exciting and rewarding. The enthusiasm of teenagers is contagious and stimulating. I like my work! May I urge pupils who have the required ability and an interest in people to consider carefully the many challenges and opportunities teaching has to offer?

Regardless of whether you are planning to continue your formal education or are going out into the business world, I hope that you bear in mind one important idea. The learning process is life-long. Knowledge that you acquire today may be outdated tomorrow or the next day. Continual education will be your assurance of good mental health; it will make you a responsible citizen of a democracy; it will help you to overcome the feelings of loneliness and impotence that are so characteristic of this "grand society" we have built. I sincerely believe that knowledge is power, and I hope none of you will ever feel what Housman expresses,

"I, a stranger and afraid
In a world I never made."

Finally, my congratulations to the yearbook editor and staff for the production of this fine yearbook which will be your permanent record of your 1960-61 year at the West Kildonan Collegiate.

Vice Principal's Message

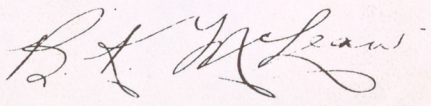

Justice Oliver Wendall Holmes has said that life should be painting a picture, not doing addition sums. At times my work in the office becomes comparable to doing addition sums — and it becomes rather mundane.

However, when I think the matter over clearly, I realize that there are many students who look upon the school-yard and the school-room as one vast play-ground, and never wake up to a sense of what they have lost until too late. I do not doubt that most of you hope to grow up to be educated men and women, having such training as will fit you to take any place in life that you attain to. To accomplish what you, the latter, have undertaken, and to subdue the former from interrupting our joint effort toward your goal, it has been necessary for you all to do some things — to come to school regularly and punctually, and to abstain from disrupting classes by talking and acting up.

Violation of your responsibilities in these regards has been my problem. I am pleased to say that on the whole, few rules have been necessary, and we have had very little unpleasantness. This serves as a fine reflection on you as a student body.

At this time, I would like to take this opportunity to wish you all success in your future undertakings. The class of 1961 has made its contribution to the traditions and values of the School, and though in years to come you may not be remembered with "familiar name", you can be certain that the great light is clearer for your light, and the great soul the stronger for your soul.

Editorial

June 1961 will bring the completion of high school training to students throughout Canada. There will be the familiar excitement and delight which mark all graduations. High schools across the country will be holding graduation ceremonies and dances as they have always done. But this year the festivities will take on a new air.

The graduates receiving diplomas this year are children who were born during the second World War. Their parents were born during the First World War, grew up in the post-war depression their children read about in history books, and fought in the second World War. 1961's graduates are the sons and daughters of the 'lost' generation. These children were born into a world hot with the friction of war, and are growing up in a society troubled with the insecurity of the Cold War.

The years in which they grew up will be remembered for their unparalleled progress. Scientific advances in the past sixteen years have been phenomenal, while medicinal research has worked miracles. The field of communication has been developed beyond belief. This is a generation which has grown up to the clamour of television, the awe of cinemascope and the wonder of I.B.M. machines. To this generation, inter-continental ballistic missiles and Earth-satellites are commonplace. Indeed, 1961's graduates will have an outlook on life different from anything the world has ever known — an outlook accompanied by a new set of values. In these times of competition for space supremacy, a generation has been trying to establish a set of principles and ideals to cling to, a foundation on which to build.

We, the graduating class of West Kildonan Collegiate Institute, are as much a part of this new generation as any group can be. We have attended classes conducted by teachers of high calibre in a school which, though still very young, is respected as one of the best in the province. We have had the opportunity to learn under almost ideal circumstances. Teachers and parents alike have shown us right and wrong as they directed us down the path to good living. From them we have learned to reason and think, to question and ponder, to understand and appreciate. We have been given a complete general education.

But these past two years at this school have been devoted to more than academic advancement. The doors of knowledge have been open to almost every conceivable extra curricular activity. Every noon hour a group of students met to cultivate a common interest. Every day after school a club met to carry out its business. Students' interests have been cultivated and developed. We have all learned the meaning of 'fair play' and sportsmanship through inter-room and inter-suburban competition. We have seen the value of physical fitness in track and field meets. Students with talent in the entertainment field have been given opportunity to perform in Drama Nights and Variety Concerts. Leadership opportunities have been numerous and varied. Without doubt we have had one of the finest training periods offered to our generation.

Now, as we graduate from high school, we must use the tools with which we have been provided, to better the world. The new air to be felt at our graduation is the air of hope — hope that we, children born during a war and educated in times of stress, will be able to bring peace, security, and well-being to the world.

President's Message

"Time rolls his ceaseless course," and once more the day approaches when the students will listen to their final lecture, write their final examinations, and bid farewell to West Kildonan Collegiate Institute. Some will seek positions in our competitive world, others will proceed to higher learning in other institutions, and still others will return to W.K.C.I. But whatever the future holds for us, the "old gang of 'K.C.I." will be no more.

To refresh your memories of the past year I need only mention such student activities as Mr. Jewitt's birthday party, the school parties, and the Variety Concert. We have also had the honour of initiating the school radio station, the United Nations Club, the Variety Concert, and many other activities which will soon become an important part of West Kildonan Collegiate.

But life is a one-way street. No matter how many detours you take, none of them leads back. Once you know and accept that, life becomes much simpler, because then you know you must do the best you can with what you have and what you are. It is my greatest hope that you will find, in the years to come, that your efforts to gain knowledge have been well rewarded; and I trust that through your association with each other you will have found that life at West Kildonan Collegiate will have given you something even more valuable than technical knowledge, in lasting friendships and the ability to understand the point of view of your fellow men.

I view the passage of this year with regret, for it passed too quickly. I feel that our work has only begun and to leave it now becomes a great disappointment. The fellowship, co-operation, understanding, and support I have received during this past year will be a glowing memory for me in the years ahead.

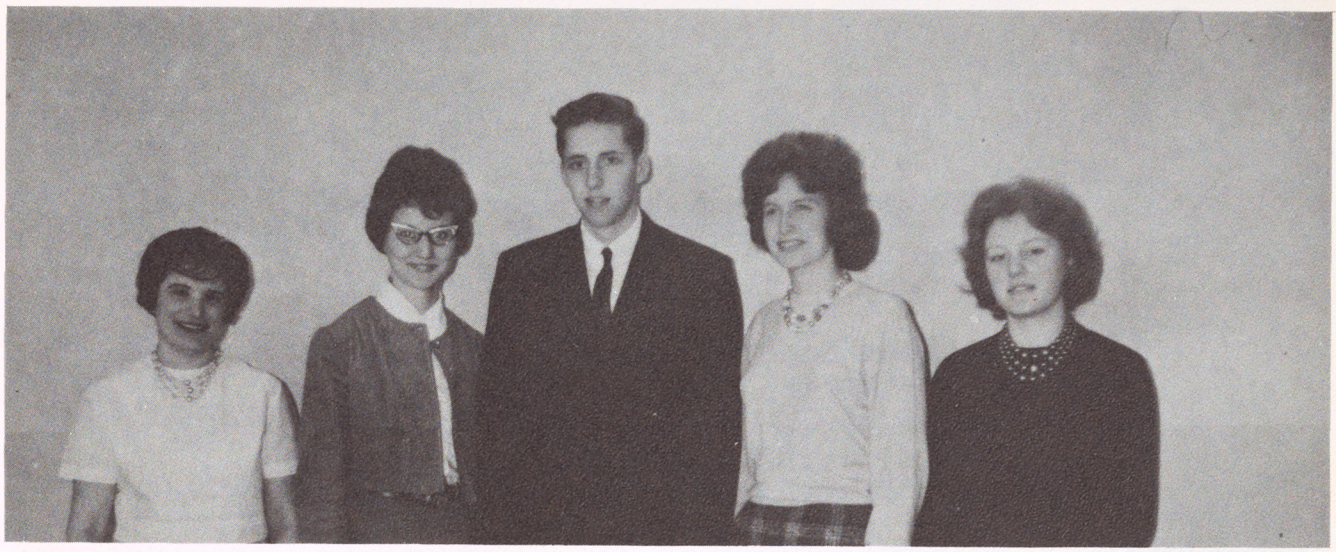

I would like to take this opportunity afforded by the Sol Ortus to thank the students and especially the student council for their co-operation in the past year. Together we have shared many interesting experiences and have changed bitter disappointments into valuable achievements.

In closing, I would like to recall Tennyson's phrase which symbolizes the importance of this time in our life;

"For I gazed into the future, far as human eye could see, Saw a vision of the world and all the wonders that would be."

MISS DEWAR

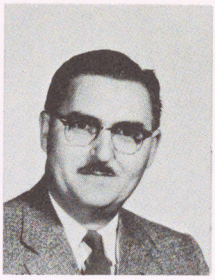

MR. CHENOWETH

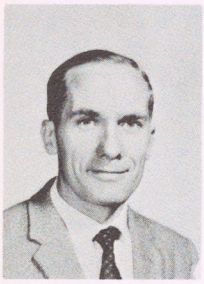

MR. CARUK

MR. BOURBONNAIS

MR. BATTERSHILL

MR. DOERKSEN

MR. GIESBRECHT

MISS ESSER

MR. BATTERSHILL—taught Grade XI and XII literature and English. His pet project was the Rifle Club, which he founded.

MR. BOURBONNAIS—is a newcomer to 'K.C.I., and, as one can guess from his name, was one of the French teachers.

MR. CARUK—came to W.K.C.I. from Jefferson, and this year assumed Mr. Bend's job as head of the physics department.

MR. CHENOWETH—this gentleman's job was to drum Canadian history into the heads of the students, and he did a good job, too.

MISS DEWAR—is W.K.C.I.'s choice for energetic teacher of the year. Possessing a cheerful smile, she is always ready to lend her students a helping hand.

MR. DOERKSEN—he was staff adviser to the newspaper and handled all the "male" guidance classes. Mr. D. can often be seen barreling along Salter in his little English car.

MISS ESSER—this is Miss Esser's second year at 'K.C.I. as one of the commercial teachers.

MR. GEISBRECHT—was head of the chemistry department at W.K.C.I., and was always ready to lend a helping hand.

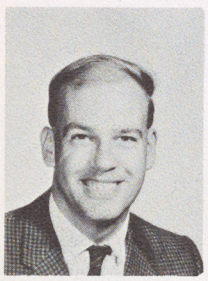

MR. HOLDAWAY—Australia's loss is Canada's gain. W.K.C.I. is surely benefitting from this young amiable teacher who is now teaching science and chemistry.

MR. ISAAK—was once again staff adviser to the Red Cross. He also devoted time and energy to the I.S.C.F. Club.

MR. KEDZIORA—this good-natured fellow supervised the boys' shops classes.

MRS. MALTZ—teaches literature, but she also advised the Student Council and was in charge of the oratorical contest.

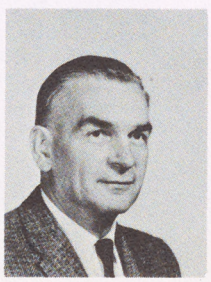

MRS. MATTISON—a big welcome is extended to Mrs. Mattison, who came to this fair city from Ontario. She taught the commercial classes.

MISS McCRUM—one of the truly devoted teachers, she is admired by all her pupils.

MISS McKELVEY—returned to her "Alma Mater" this year, but this time as girls' P.T. instructress. She also taught Grade X geography.

MISS McLAUGHLIN—across the hall from Mr. K.'s room, Miss McLaughlin taught the girls the fine art of cooking.

MISS McMAHON—celebrated her 25th year of teaching. She is well-liked by all her students and her teaching ability is greatly appreciated by them.

MR. PARTRIDGE—taught Grade XI and XII history this year. W.K.C.I. wishes him "Good Luck" on his new job as principal of Victory School.

MRS. POWELL—was the girls' guidance counsellor, and our thanks go out for her hard work.

MR. REIMER—is the musically-talented teacher of 'K.C.I., and his efforts were displayed on Variety Night. In addition, he taught English and literature.

MR. SANDBURN—Another newcomer to 'K.C.I., Mr. Sandburn joined the rank of those who taught the commercial classes.

MR. SCHULTZ—no stranger to many of the students, handled the boys' P.T. classes. In addition, he taught some Grade X geography.

MISS SNIDER—under her able guidance, many students have now started a successful career in business.

MR. TAYLOR—W.K.C.I. regrets the loss of Mr. Taylor who will return to his native land, Scotland, this year. He is a terrific teacher and a wonderful person.

MISS VIGDER—was in charge of the biology classes this year at W.K.C.I.

MR. WATSON—the lucky teacher of Latin in our school, he is also the staff adviser to the "Sol Ortus."

MISS WILLOUGHBY—helped many a student study by keeping the library quiet, and our thanks are extended for doing so.

Valedictory

Mr. Jewitt, Honoured Guests, Teachers, and Fellow Graduates:

I would like, first and foremost, to express my deep and sincere appreciation for the privilege of representing this "Class of '61".

I deem it an honour when I consider the very occasion we are gathered here for this afternoon. I deem it a greater honour still, when I consider what this occasion symbolizes. Here we are . . . and where are we? Graduation represents the culmination of our high school days and a stepping stone to whatever path we may choose—that, we realize. It's been a while since our first introduction to the "Three R's" and the complete expansion of that system seems well tucked away in the past. For a little while now, though, something new has slipped into the curriculum. Application through reasoning came into our life along with high school. Graduation now, brings with it a great deal of thought—thought of the past—of the "good times", of the learned and the unlearned, of the new friends acquired along the way. There is time for the past, though, in the nostalgia of ten years hence. Today is a day to consider the future.

What is the outside world like at the present—this wider sphere that we are just now beginning to know? It is a turbulent world. Few of us can understand the politics of our time, but no thinking man today can ignore them. To understand world problems is to cast light on the problems of individuals. Fear, selfishness, egotism and ignorance creep headlong into both. These may not be products of contemporary times, but the danger today is manifold. Potential tragedies have multiplied parallel to potential gains and we cannot afford the former. There was a time in political history when a country could afford to strive for everything and all. The time has come, though, when every nation must choose a specific goal, while realizing that sacrifices are inevitable in its achievement. What yardstick is there to determine the goal? First to be decided—a set of values.

Here we are embarking on a new journey which requires the same decisions. There is no longer the forfeit of an ice cream cone, the gain of a tricycle—the odds are weightier. We must determine our own personal set of values and plan accordingly. What, we must say, for what?

Here it is that education takes its rightful place as master tool. The decision is a personal one, and ours alone to make. But both as individuals and as components of nations, we must make it. There is only one basic premise—we live in an age where altruism and goodwill are not merely mirrors of idealism. We live in an age where togetherness is essential for self preservation. We must remember and build on that.

I would like, on behalf of my graduating class, to thank the parents—for bringing us into this challenging world, for guiding us along the way, and for remembering, as often as they could, that they too, were once haughty, frightened adolescents. Thank you teachers, for your guidance, so often "above and beyond the call of duty." Thank you Mr. Jewitt, for guiding your West Kildonan Collegiate. We will remember it always, alongside you.

The time has come to say good-bye and yes, congratulations to you all. Wherever you may go, and whatever you may do, I wish you all the very best in life.

Barbara K. Lecker

O GRADS!

Room 26 - Grade XII - Matriculation

JUDY BRAGG

This cute kid always manages to have her assignments up to date. (MCC ?) During study periods Judy discusses everything from dates to maths with Sandra. Besides working weekends at the "Bar-B-Q" she enjoys dancing, bowling, and swimming. Judy's future lies in the field of Science at the University of Manitoba.

HAROLD BAGEN

Harold, occupying a position of major importance in class affairs (he answers the door), is also the room's major vitalizing factor. He participates in inter-room sports and, in French class, has turned out to be Miss M.'s PRIDE AND JOY? Harold intends to study Pharmacy at U. next year — good luck from Room 26.

GARY BAXTER

Gary is a supporter of each of Room 26's struggling inter-room teams. Noted for his unfailing attention to "back-of-the-room" gossip, Gary is a man of few words, but at least one of his deepest desires is known: "Ah, for eight study periods a day." Best wishes for the future from Room 26, Gary.

LINDA FREEDMAN

Linda returned from California a short time ago to continue and complete her education. Although she left school unexpectedly at midterm, she'll not be forgotten. Linda was noted as an energetic student, a powerful conversationalist, and the girl with the . . . . . hair! We hope Linda will be successful in California.

LEE GAYTON

This gal can be seen running into the room at 9:09 complaining that she can't fit her homework into the television schedule. Her interests include swimming, judo, baseball and boys. Lee plans to enter the Faculty of Physical Education at the University of Toronto next year.

RON BROWN

A very quiet student in a very unquiet room, Ron's formula for popularity is a good appearance, a good sense of humour, and a good briefcase well-stocked with completed assignments. Ron participates in all-inter-room sports and is active in certain activities outside of school. No best wishes needed — we know he'll succeed.

RAYMOND BIETTE

Besides taking part in school athletics, belonging to numerous clubs, and holding a position on the yearbook staff, Raymond has proved to be one of Room 26's outstanding scholars, attaining fantastic marks, especially in Mathematics. His company and conversation are valued (just ask Lee). Ray plans to attend "U" next year.

CAROL HILDERMAN

Our competent secretary-treasurer can be seen getting out of a certain blue car every morning and afternoon. Prominent in all class activities she is one of the five volleyball champs of the school. The owner of the set of "floating notes," Carol is tops in Biology and plans to become a lab technician.

SANDRA KELM

One of the more ardent workers of room 26 proves, by her high marks, that studying does pay off. Sandra is an active member of Young Peoples and the Y.W.C.A. She plans to continue her education next year at United College and then teach junior high school.

EDDY CHODIRKER

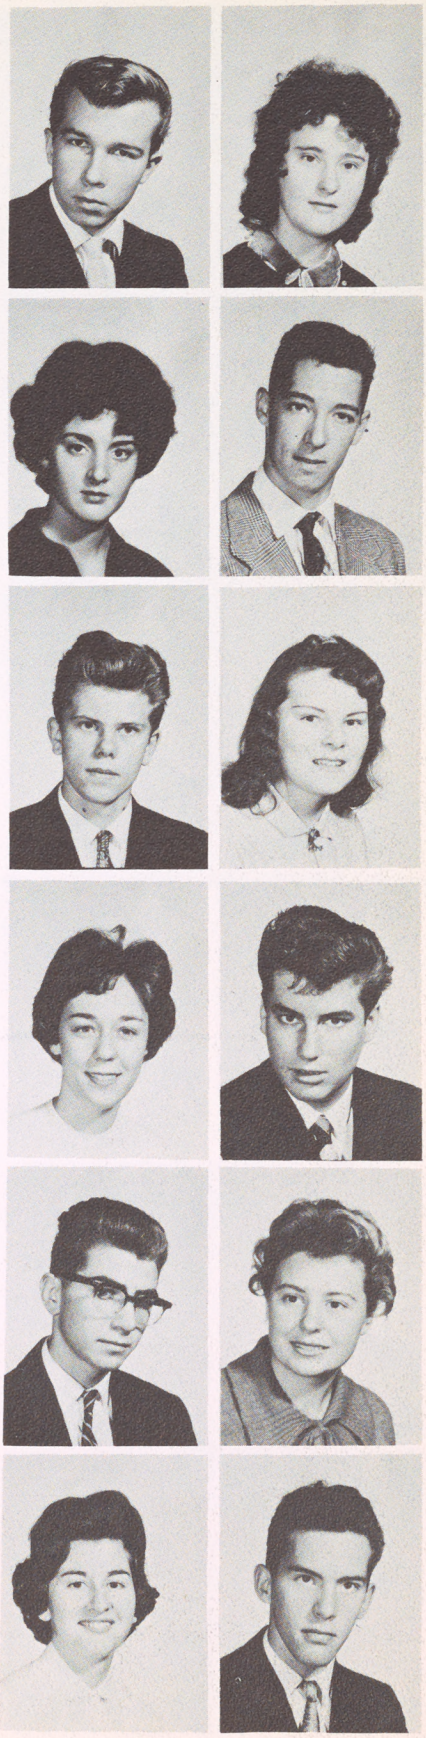

This good-humored little guy is an enthusiast in most athletics; basketball, soccer, golf, volleyball, curling — you name it, he plays it. Eddy passes the time discussing curling with Len, teaching Valdine Physics, and devising new ways to appear less conspicuous in Maths and French classes. All the best for the future from W.K.C.I., Ed.

DOUGLAS GIFFORD

Room 26's sports rep., Doug is our most prominent example of an "all-round" student: in school he really enjoys Physics (could it be love?), participates in curling, rifle club, and inter-room sports, and still manages to maintain a respectable average. His future is undecided but, good luck from W.K.C.I.

NORMA KARLINSKY

The "frantic biologist" of room 26 looks forward to Friday afternoon labs when she can display her dissecting ability. Norma knows that the American penny is worth less than the Canadian penny. (Did you get this information from the library?) This vivacious redhead will enter nursing next year.

DAVID CUMMING

Dave, (no relation to Bob), one of the few Latin students in the school, is quiet, diligent, and very popular amongst the dedicated conversationalists of the room (he's a good listener). In his spare time, Dave performs exercises at the Y.M.C.A. and enjoys catching up on the latest hot-rod news.

BARBARA LECKER

Barbara is very active, "verbally." Our history classes are livened up by her interpretations of European History. She excels in literary work, as illustrated by her straight "A's" in English assignments. Although Barbara has not definitely decided whether she will enter teaching or journalism, we know that she will succeed in any chosen field.

MARILYN MANDEL

The originator of the two and a half day school week, spends her evenings at United College Library. What's the attraction Marilyn — books or boys? Dancing, tennis, and boys are among her many activities. Next year, Marilyn plans to go to university to gain, among other degrees, her M.R.S.

ELWOOD KLETKE

Although this avid air cadet spends most of his time indoctrinating half the class on aviation, mechanics, and electronics, he still is able to attain some "purty fancy" marks on the exams. Elwood is really seriously progressive and scientific; his motto — "for the future, bigger and better paper darts."

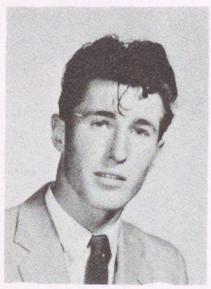

TAGE KVIST

Noted as a struggling scholar in his constant quest for knowledge (usually Ron's), Tage is tops in both athletics and popularity in Room 26. Though rather quiet in class, outside he behaves like any normal, wild, teenage maniac; seriously, however, for such an agreeable guy, Room 26 wishes all the very best for the future.

GAIL McINTYRE

Last year's winner of the top sports award for girls, is this year the president of the curling club, a member of all inter-room and inter-suburban sports, and room 26's social rep. Gail goes into phases of extensive study (about once a month). Next year, Gail hopes to take Physical Education at the U.B.C.

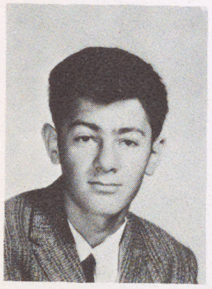

VALDINE OAKES

Room 26 was glad to find Valdine back for Grade 12 after all, and equally glad that she found time to be our sports representative. An avid participant of inter-suburban volleyball and basketball, she has also managed to maintain a good average. Val plans to be a lab technician.

GRAHAM McLEOD

Graham, who takes part in both outdoor and indoor sports, occasionally impresses his fellow students with flashes of brilliancy in Maths, Chemistry, and English Comp. Although he has no definite plans for the future, it's certain he'll be successful in anything he attempts — best wishes from W.K.C.I. and Room 26, Graham.

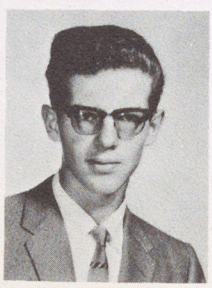

LEONARD SHANE

Len is the handsomest, most intelligent, most popular student in the school — but aside from all kidding, he's really a great guy. Our No. 1 curling enthusiast, Len enjoys discussing past triumphs with Eddie. He plans to attend U. to study Architecture — best wishes from W.K.C.I., Len.

FLORENCE McIVER

This friendly lass came to our hallowed halls from Norwood High School. Florence has a keen interest in reading, dancing, and of course, the opposite sex. We are sure that her cheerful smile and pleasing personality will be assets to her future career as a nurse.

AUDREY PICKLEY

This cute, blonde charmer of room 26 is kept busy by her many activities. She is secretary-treasurer of the Red Cross Club, a cheerleader, and a participant in inter-room sports. Besides all this, Audrey manages to do well in her studies. Audrey's future lies in teaching.

RUSSEL VAN LEUSDEN

Russ shuns the usuals such as talking and neglecting homework and leads a quiet existence at the back of the room, completing the Gifford, Kletke, Van Leusden Trio. He participates in inter-room sports and numerous activities outside of school, and works hard at academic subjects to obtain top marks in Maths and Physics.

BILL FRITZ

Our worthy room president is doubtlessly the busiest guy in Room 26; student council meetings, club activities, and inter-room sports all keep Bill hopping, as does his presidency of the I.S.C.F., yet he maintains an impressive scholastic record. In whatever occupation he chooses, with his drive and personality, can he do anything else but succeed?

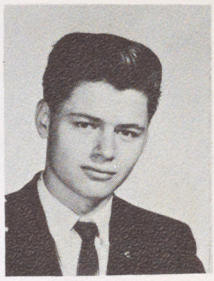

ENID ROITMAN

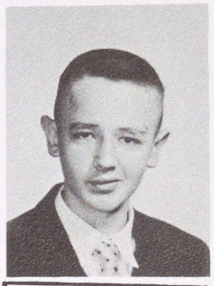

Enid, noted for laughing, talking and falling off chairs, can be seen from 9-9:10 each morning supposedly preparing for class, cosmetic bag in hand, making up for Mr. C. Besides being Yearbook Rep., she is active in numerous activities around the school. Next year, Enid will attend U. to study Interior Design.

MARILYN SLIPITZ

This "music genius" can be seen coming into school at 9:40 each morning. Marilyn decided to concentrate on school work and early in the year moved from the "chatter corner" to a quieter part of the room. Among Marilyn's plans for the future are attaining an arts degree at St. Paul's College, and a music career.

Camera Shy

Camera Shy

GARY RUBEN

Gary has the distinction of being the tallest member of the room and consequently one of our top basketball players. Gary can usually be seen concentrating on his studies in the library or enjoying a private joke with Gary B. We are certain his perseverance will enable him to succeed in the future.

Room 25 - Grade XII - Matriculation

ROBERT ALLEN

Robert is a regular member of O.V.'s after four maths class. Along with his inseparable companion Ken, he can be seen deeply engrossed in . . . ? during Mrs. Maltz's classes. Bob, a crackshot in the Rifle Club as well as in the class room with a piece of chalk, plans to become a lab technician.

BRIAN BISHOP

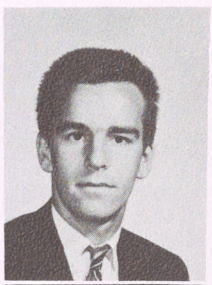

B.B., a top-notch athlete, participated in all inter-room sports. An ardent admirer of O.V., he sits at the front of the room just so Mr. J. can ask him for the answers to his maths. In the fall Brian will be heading out to the campus. This school will miss you Brian.

KENNETH CHESLOCK

Ken is the founder and president of the Maths Club. Without his humorous and witty knocks, life would not be complete. He is an ACTIVE member of both the camera and rifle clubs. Ken swears that this will be his last year at the Collegiate unless Brigette Bardot teaches French here next year.

JAMES DIXON

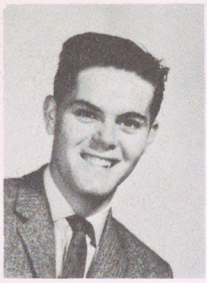

"Mr. Hockey" himself, is so fond of the game that one cold winter night he walked all the way from the C.P.R. station to the Arena. A leftwinger for the Braves, he goes all out to stop the puck, even if it means catching it with his teeth.

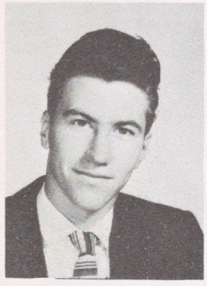

Camera Shy

Camera Shy

KENNETH HOCKEN

Our room's distinguished president often risks his life dodging miscellaneous projectiles in his efforts to inform THE MEN of forthcoming events. 'Mr. Personality' is immensely popular with both students and teachers alike. Ken, our school D.J. and a member of the R.C.A.F. Reserves, hopes to return to W.K.C.I. as a teacher.

ALEXANDER KORN

Our room's uncrowned chess champion is slowly being driven to hysteria by Mr. B.'s countless reminders of "attention ici, Alex." An ambitious young lad, Alex lets nothing stand in the way of his objectives. He believes pool should be included in the high school curriculum to eliminate his having to go to Tom's.

JAMES KREUTZER

Jim's main ambition is to drop a Buick mill into his Volks and someday set a record at Indianapolis. Without his flawless homework, half of us would be lost. This studious and serious-minded lad could really go far, if Reid would only leave him alone long enough.

JAMES MACKAY

Jim is the strong, silent type. He spends most of his spare hours working at the Y.M.C.A. Our social rep., enjoys throwing WILD class parties, for which we are extremely grateful. Jim loves all sports and has hopes of becoming a teacher after majoring in either psychology, physiology, or psychiatry at United.

NELSON OTTO

Admiral Nelson has his own fleet (of cars, that is). A perennial sports rep., Nellie excels at all sports, particularly hockey, football, soccer, and track (even hopscotch). He enjoys devising new Maths formulas, which even baffle Mr. O.V. Nel also enjoys teaching Mrs. M's literature and the rest of us physics.

EARL PALANSKY

Upon completing his Grade 12 Earl plans to Enter Science and become a "gum architect." While in school, he is rather quiet, but out on the rink he is a dangerous man. This well-behaved fellow is a delight to all teachers for his assignments are always done on time.

RONALD POZERNICK

"Such a Man" can often be found flexing his massive muscles while pushing his Dodge to school. If ducks ever become extinct in Manitoba, you can thank Ron and his trusty 30-30. "Ron's zany French pronunciations have set diplomatic relations with France 20 years back," claims Mr. B.

GERALD W. RODNISKI

Gerald claims that destiny has marked him! A hot-blooded Slav, he is just about anti-everything. Our world's Last Hope is a profound philosopher,, prodigious scholar, and prolific philanthropist (good gaff, huh?). Gerald, our holopchi-loving lad, plans to enter research medicine so that he can cure HALITOSIS once and for all.

DENNIS ROHNE

If there is a long, complicated way of doing a maths question, rest assured Dennis will use it. A future engineer, Dennis will be building future bridges and buildings (even if he does take his time doing it). Dennis, with his pleasant disposition, has no trouble making friends.

DENNIS RACHWALSKI

Dennis is the top marksman in our room. Out of 25 potshots he hit tees 24 times. He claims to have his own arsenal of chalk and brushes. In class he is still undecided about his future, n'est-ce pas?

NORMAN ROSEMAN

'Stormin' Norman has just completed the first edition of the "Roseman Sports Encyclopedia." If you're wondering who won the fourth chariot race in the Colisseum in 43 B.C., just ask Norm. Besides his thorough knowledge of sports, Norm is one of the more conscientious workers in our room.

MARVIN SAMPHIR

Samphir enjoys teaching maths to anyone willing to listen. He and his side-kick Marty would probably write their own maths text if they could ever agree on which maths formula to use. He is usually the last one to leave the 'ole water hole' (across from Room 3) before our French period commences.

ALEXANDER SEGALL

Alex is our Red Cross rep. His world came to an end when he drew a certain E.L. on his curling team. We solved all his problems by presenting him with a hari-kari knife. Alex takes great pride in his curly locks and wishes Mrs. M. would stop running her fingers through them.

MORLEY SHORE

Poor Morley hasn't been the same since he flunked his I.Q. test. One of the "Three Musketeers," Morley is the last one in the room for biology classes, but the first to leave. He thinks French is a passing fad and spends the periods with Sid planning strategy for the oncoming weekend.

EARL SINGER

Earl has reformed since the fall (he now shaves twice a week instead of once). If there is nothing more to be said in class, Earl's voice can still be heard echoing through the "deafening silence" which is so characteristic of Room 25. Earl plans to sue a certain Company for misusing his name.

KENNETH SIGESMUND

Armed with a superiority complex and a repertoire of futile jokes, Ken is a formidable threat to anyone's sanity. It would appear to us innocent bystanders that Ken is the object of Mrs. M's "affections." Siggy, like all of us, is patiently awaiting the day when M. C. C. notes are made available for Garde 12 maths.

SIDNEY SINAISKY

Sid seems to be irresistably attracted to his 'passion pal' Morley, (could it be love?). A camera 'bug', Sid's wallet just bulges with pictures of his female companions. Sid's favourite period is History even though he doesn't take the subject. Sid, also a Musketeer, works for the railroad in the off season.

LEONARD STOLLER

Mr. Versatility himself, Len has some of the highest marks in our room. Len is one of those who can make the most difficult shot child's play, both on the basketball court and on the pool table. When not occupied by homework or a certain brunette, he can be found practising on his guitar.

MARTIN STOLLER

'Marlon', as he is affectionately called by Mr. B., participates in all sports. Room 25's shotput star is destined for great things. Marlon is the Free Press correspondent for W.K.C.I. and Room 25's newspaper rep. He is also one of the intellects in our room (we do have some, you know).

FREDERICK SWITZER

Sir Frederick, the mighty mite of Room 25, has one mission in life: to get the municipality to construct a subway from his house to Room 25. Fred has finally obtained permission to drive the family car. Now, if he could only get hold of the keys.

DAVID TEES

If you notice a tall, lanky specimen barreling down the corridor just shortly before the nine o'clock bell, chances are that it is Dave. Dave has high hopes of gaining a berth on our school's basketball team, that's if his physics mark doesn't bench him first.

REID WALLBERG

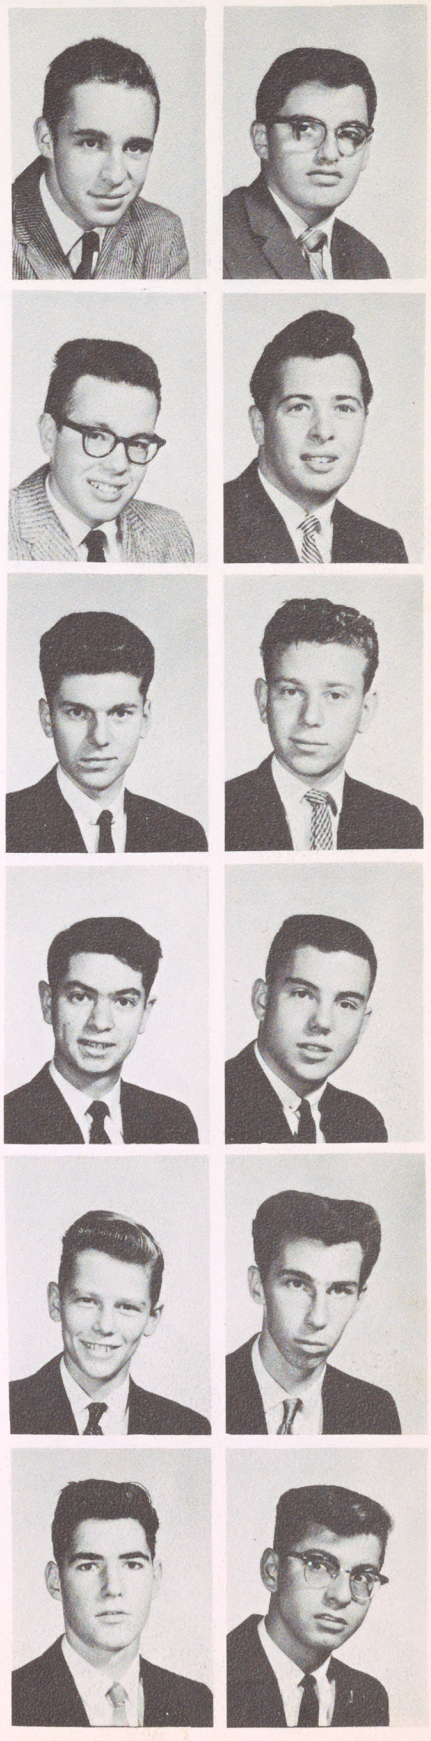

His pugilistic escapades with Bob turn our room into a regular Madison Square Gardens. Size is no handicap to this lad, as far as sports go. In moments of anger 'Kid Dynamite' explodes with an aerial bombardment of chalk and brushes. Reid's scholastic achievements run par with his combat record.

RICHARD WARK

This lively character can be found talking to Alex about anything — usually cars, in return for Yiddish lessons. Rick participates in all sports and flukes off some good marks (occasionally). His social life? Well, you could say that he is "Magnetized" to Silver Heights. Future — teaching!?!

LYNN WILSON

Another member of the after four maths club, Lynn is in no hurry to leave this Collegiate. His pleasing personality has made him the goodwill ambassador of Room 25. Lynn is a staunch member of the Rifle Club and thinks nothing of using his text books as targets.

Camera Shy

ROBERT WOODS

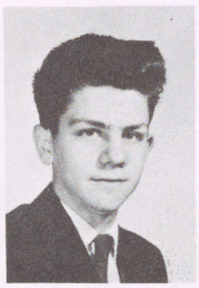

'Smily' strongly opposes any suggestions that his antique (jalopy) be added to the scrap yard. Our affable vice-president, much to his displeasure, finds himself the constant target of Mr. O.V.'s insinuations. An ardent curler and outstanding soccer player, he convenes most boys sports in this school.

HARRY ZENTNER

"Zaida," as he is called by his fellow inmates of Room 25, is the old master when it comes to checkers and chemistry. In study periods he is usually found trying to study German, or relating to us anxious souls about his escapades in Vancouver with Earl's cousin.

Room 21 - Grade XII - Matriculation

RICHARD ARCHUK

The lumber man of Room 21 participates in inter-room hockey and other inter-room sports and is a real asset to the team. "Arch," as he is affectionately known, provides some humour in the class by his timely jokes. He is one of the few members of Tribe 21 who always has his homework done (on time).

JOHN BADALI

John isn't very active this year, belonging only to the Rifle Club. This lack of extra-curricular activities, however, shows in the excellence of his school work. He is a member of the Barbour-Jenkins-Badali trio, and the three are practically inseparable. John's future is undecided.

JIM BARBOUR

Jim is the prime instigator in the Barbour-Badali-Jenkins trio. There's quite a bit of Jim's mind told, such as cars, rifle club, drawing in spares, and of course Ruth. Jim doesn't care much for Math, (we wonder why?). However, Jim is a conscientious worker and a sure bet in any profession??

BEVERLEY BERKAL

Bev is in the Israeli Dance group and, of course, the choir. Bev is one of the quieter members of Room 21 and doesn't participate in the usual antics and frivolity. As is obvious in Biology class, she intends to enter the nursing profession next year and we wish her the best of luck.

GAIL BUTTON

Gail began the year as Vice-President of our room, and in November went to the Grey Cup with Red River Jamboree. She joined us for exams, but at the beginning of the new year left us for a certain "Mr. Edwards." Room 21 wishes her the best of luck in her married life.

LEN BYLO

Tall, dark, and handsome, Len participates in volleyball and hockey. Extra-curricular activities include girls, and then of course there's girls, and above all we mustn't forget about the girls. Len, who isn't usually heard from during the school hours, plans to join the Mounties next year. (Why, are they falling apart?????)

LOIS CHAFETZ

This pert lass originates from St. John's and is spending Grade XII here at KCI. She has adapted herself well and can be heard voicing her opinions strongly in Math. Lois spends most of her time scurrying between Rooms 21 and 22. Though she hasn't decided upon a career as yet, Room 21 wishes her the best of luck.

BILL CLAYDON

Bill is one of the few who has mastered the art of being quietly noisy. He belongs to the "boys-at-the-back-town," rabble rousers of our room. Bill likes bowling, the rifle club, physics, maths, and working at "Uncle Benney's?" Though his future is undecided Room 21 wishes him the best of luck.

GEORGE DAVIDUK

George participates in inter-room volleyball, hockey, basketball, you name it, he's in it. George is one of the few students who seems to always have his French homework done. How come, George? He can be seen running for the school bus at 4:01 P.M. every day with Bob L. to commute to Middlechurch.

MARSHALL DRAPER

Two words could describe Marshall, amorous and cute. He enjoys polka dancing, music and hunting (girls). The line forms to the right, ladies, behind Margaret. Marshall boasts of being able to support a family on his present income, Really?? Room 21 is behind him all the way, so drop us a line when you reach the million mark Marshall.

MARLENE DURAVETZ

Marlene hails from Daniel McIntyre and their loss is certainly our gain. This gal has not only beauty but also brains. She is an ardent member of the Penguin Dance Club. Her favorite hobby is collecting love letters for RAYny days. In the future she will either become Lab. Tech. or Teacher.

HARALD GILLMAN

Every year Harald is referred to as the "mad scientist" and everyone seems to have overlooked his love life, how about it Harold????? As one of the boys "at-the-backers" he proves once again that "still water runs deep???" His interests vary from science, radio and photography to quarrelling with the teachers. See you at the "Cape" Harald!!!

BOB GAWRYLUK

Bob is the new-car designer of Room 21. Since this occupies most of his time he rarely has time to do his homework. Bob belongs to the bowling club and is one of its better bowlers, a real asset to his team. If you see someone in Room 21 who is in need of a haircut, then you know Bob.

GORD GREY

Is our import from Sisler and a darn nice one at that. Gord belongs to the Rifle Club and has avoided all our attempts to draft him into the choir. His favourite subject is the opposite sex and he wants to be an Engineer. It figures! Good luck for the future Gord, on both subjects!!

PHIL JENKINS

Phil is a member of the school choir, and also plays the trumpet, and the occasional game of Chess at the Chess Club. He can usually be seen arguing with his buddy, Jim B. about some seemingly insignificant thing. Phil, who wishes to become an accountant, has the gang of 21 behind him all the way.

PATT LEIR

Originally from Red Deer, Alberta, this is Patt's second year at KCI. As Girls' Sports Rep., sec. of sports council, rifle club and dance club member participant on all inter-room sports teams, Patt's the busiest gal in Room 21! Obviously she is the possessor of a sparkling personality and is affectionately thought of by all.

BRIAN LITMAN

The V.I.P. of Room 21 is president of the Dance Club, the Maple Leaf Junior Curling Club, writes a column for the Newspaper. Aside from being president of his room, still finds time for some school work. Personality Plus can always be found fighting off the girls who follow him down the hall.

BOB LOGENBERG

Bob, the only red-head in Room 21, is in the reserve Air Force. One of the more ardent workers in our class, Bob is quiet and conscientious. These traits should help him in his future profession, whatever it may be. Our best wishes follow him.

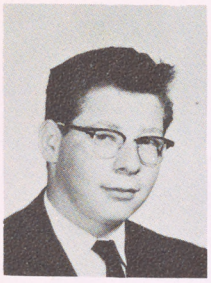

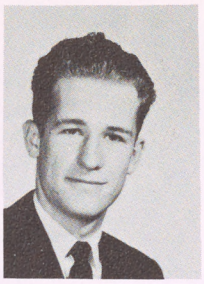

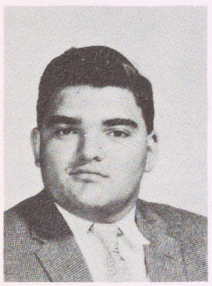

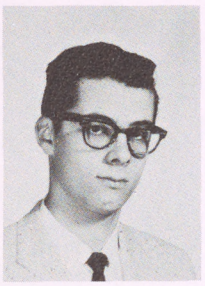

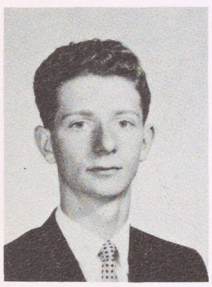

RACHELLE LONDON

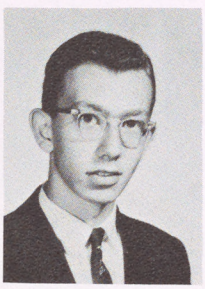

Rachelle has one of those contagious laughs; when you hear it you laugh too. If not yelling across the room for Brian to be quiet; she can be heard complaining about her "imported" dates and unsuccessful Sunday Nights at the "Y." This blue-eyed miss plans to enter "U" to study Social work.

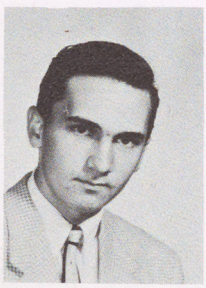

RAY MACKERS

Ray, a real-round athlete, is a teammate on the West End Rams, and got a free trip to Vancouver from his team. However, that team didn't stay long enough to watch the Grey Cup, but the game on the train was more exciting. Ray participates in flag football, hockey, pool, and volleyball. He also has another unique quality, he gets along with all the teachers.

BRUCE MELLON

First off. Bruce wanted it mentioned that he obtained a clear pass at Christmas. Otherwise, he enjoys the rifle club, chess club and plays ping pong (for Blood) against all comers. He aims to be a lawyer and if he doesn't meet with a "fate" worse than death first, he probably will succeed.

DAVE MORAN

This avid member of the choir and rifle club, is one of the few in our room to take school seriously. Of course he takes Elaine seriously too. Dave holds down a job after school like many of the boys in our room. Good luck with the future and Elaine, Dave!

DAVID POLLACK

Is one of the few who can boast to be a quieter member of our room. This is because of the dangerous position he holds as Marshall for "the-boys-at-the-back-town." David's ambition is to become an accountant. He's a hard worker and sure to succeed in his chosen profession.

MARTIN POLSKY

Martin can be seen daily discussing work affairs with a certain Mr. C. He is one of the few members of his class who appreciates classical music and never misses an opportunity to speak on behalf of its superiority to rock and roll. Aside from these "faults," however, Martin appears quite "NORMAL."

GORDON POTTS

Gordon is in the Ham Radio and bowling clubs. This ninety-eight pound weakling carries a ready supply of scalpels around for protection. They seem to come in ever so handy, especially in Biology. Nevertheless, Gordon is a good guy and he hopes to become a ..... in the near future.

YOSHIO SAITO

This sports enthusiast, finds time from his school work to be the boys' sports rep., participate on inter-room teams and belong to the curling club. Though he resides in the "boys-at-the-back-town" he's rather a peaceful member. Well liked by all, Yoshio is sure to go far in whatever profession he chooses.

LORRAINE SCHWARTZ

Rumor has it that Lorraine is secretly married to Bob, but we think it's a fake out for the real secret (I'll never tell). Every weekend Lorraine works for (no free plug) and is the proud possessor of the most regular attendance record in our room. Lorraine's future lies in saying "yes" to the right guy.

SHERRY SCHWARTZ

Besides belonging to the ham radio, chess and science clubs Sherry found enough time to take a trip to the Grey Cup this year in Vancouver. No wonder Edmonton lost! Kidding aside though, Sherry is a real bright kid, a (gee) whiz in maths, and hopes in the future to become a .....

GERSHON SUCKEROV

"To be at school or not to be" seemed like this fellow's eternal question. Now if we could conduct classes at Nordics perhaps Gersh might get his education. Though he left us early during the school term, whatever path he decides to follow in life, Room 21 is sure he'll excel.

FRED SURZYSHYN

Fred is the hot rod enthusiast of our room. After school hours he and his brother are building their own hot rod. Around school Fred is quiet, and subdued? (Chortle, chortle). Fred is undecided about his future, but we of 21 wish him the best of luck.

BERYLE TONSAKER

This cute energetic bundle, is our room's Sec-Treas. She also finds time to be Vice-Pres. of Young People's and Inter-High spy rep. for our school. Lovingly dubbed "Pearl" by the boys of our room, Beryle enjoys three things most, Football, French and Boys. No need to wish this gal luck, she's got it made!!

IRENE TRUBA

Irene is one of the 8:59 members of Room 21. Occasionally she goes out of town for the week-end. We wonder why? Otherwise, she's usherette at the Odeon. Irene's favorite pastime is gossiping with Marlene and making F. S. hungry by eating her lunch during study periods. Her future lies in teaching.

Room 17 - Grade XII - Commercial

KAREN BERRY

Karen is Girls' Sports Rep. for Room 17's sportsminded girls, and can usually be seen dashing out of the room to attend a meeting. Karen's specialty is collecting long-distance phone calls. Lucky girl.

DIANE BYERS

Diane is Room 17's Newspaper Rep., and Grace's better half. She is also a member of the bowling club. Diane seems to live for her weekends and comes to school Monday mornings bubbling over her escapades. She is well liked by everyone.

DOUGLAS CROWE

"Doug" is quiet with both the girls and the boys. He is happiest when he has someone to walk home with but nobody can last that long without food or water. "Sunshine" does well in all his subjects and hopes to be allowed to write all his exams like everyone else.

IRIS FREEMAN

Iris is Room 17's Vice-President. She is a member of the bowling, rifle, and dance clubs. Every morning Iris comes to school with a new joke to keep the boys in line for the rest of the day. She has a wonderful personality and is well liked by everyone.

CONNIE GOLEBESKI

Connie is Room 17's Social Rep. and is very well suited to this position. She has often been accused of trying to start a casino. When Connie pulls out her compact, we all know it is time to go home. Connie has personality plus and is very well liked by everyone.

LAWRENCE HEWITT

Lawrence is Boys' Sports Rep. for our athletic-type room. He is kept busy playing in the Inter-Suburban volleyball team and practising with the basketball team. His favourite sport is bookkeeping and his favourite subject is air-conditioning. We all hope he will make out as an Eskimo.

ELAINE HUGGINS

Elaine is a member of the rifle club and also sings in the school choir. She usually rushes into the room at 8:58 and then has to run back to the door to collect her books from Dave. This silent miss is well liked by everyone.

MARGARET HUGGINS

"Peggy," as she is often called, is one of Room 17's quietest students. She does her work efficiently and is liked by both student and teacher. Unless she is asked a question, she barely speaks at all.

GRACE KOWALL

Grace is Red Cross Rep. for Room 17 and is a member of the bowling club. She and Diane can usually be found discussing the current events??? (Boys). Although Grace is very quiet in school, she is a barrel of laughs elsewhere.

MAUREEN MILLER

Maureen is Yearbook Rep. for Room 17. She is a member of the rifle and bowling clubs, and types for the yearbook and newspaper. Maureen can be seen rushing off after rifle practice. What's the secret Maureen?

RON MOSS

Ron is class President and head bookie for the syndicate. He started the "Muttering Club" and keeps it going, adding more members every day. He is a member of the rifle club and enjoys hunting and fishing. He does great in school and with luck and perseverance he may turn out honest.

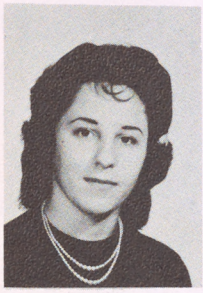

RON PAUL

Ron's greatest fear is having to walk home from school, and usually leaves early at four to catch his boat. Ron is captain of one of the bowling teams and is forever trying to increase his already high average.

Camera Shy

GEORGE ROSS

George's ambition is to take Grade 13. He is a sharpshooter in the rifle club and is also a member of the bowling club. He joined these not because he is athletic, but because he thought they were free. George enjoys history only when Mr. Partridge lines up another victim. George is also co-writer of these write-ups.

LINDA SKAKUM

Linda is Room 17's competent Secretary-Treasurer, and is supervisor of the newspaper typists. She is also a member of the bowling club, and is yearbook and newspaper typist. Linda is forever doing work for the different teachers, which helps to cover her low marks of about 85 to 95.

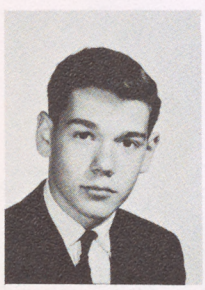

IRENE ZACHARKIW

Irene is usually seen leaving school in a big red Buick, chauffeured by a certain Ron. She always does her bookkeeping homework but still likes to argue with Mr. S. about whether an entry should be debited or credited. Although this gal is petite, she is never missed.

ELLA ZAHN

Ella is a new member to W.K.C.I. hailing from Tec Voc. If you glimpse a dark figure and feel a cool breeze going by you know it is Ella. She makes it a habit of being first in class. Cinderella, as she is called, maintains that this is the best way to remember her correct name.

Room 24 - Grade XI - Matriculation

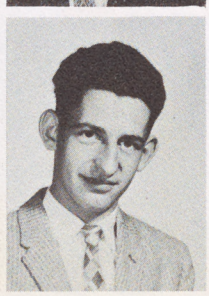

MORRY APPELLE

MOE is the guy with Lennie Bruce's humour, and Bob Hope's broad mind. He likes making hula skirts (for his girlfriend), and wants to accompany her, but his mother won't let him shave his legs. After Morry lent us his house for a class party, he suddenly disappeared.

JACKIE BASS

Jackson is our clothes perfectionist (. . . always wears them!), and models her hair styles for the Java House — "like wow cow". She also writes for our newspaper . . . (fillers), and intends to operate a floating slot machine racket in her basement, if the cops stop raiding the joint!

SUSAN BECKINGHAM

Sue, our literary genius, is guilty for the other half of these write-ups (the uncensored ones), and is always the centre of attraction at the back of the room. This kid likes travelling everywhere. Good Luck, Sue.

BARRY BERGER

Barry is one of our larger, more intelligent imports from St. John's. His hobbies include; throwing girls' overshoes and building pyramids out of books in math class. Barry is a pretty good guy though, (when he's not hungry) and plans to enter U. after completing grade eleven.

LINDA BLIESKE

Linda is a good kid; does ALL her own homework, likes ALL teachers, even goes to detention. This girl hopes to become a lab technician — ever notice Linda in Chemistry (WATCHING Mr. H.)?

DENNIS BOYD

Dennis, our dragstrip king, once reached 46 m.p.h. in a '28 Ford. This was pretty good, considering the car was in neutral! He now converts tricycles to go-karts. All he does to the bikes, is add a washing machine motor, brakes, and 1500 feet of extension cord! Next ambition—motorized roller skates.

LYNNE COHEN

Lynn is a girl of many interests. Some include rugby, hockey, baseball, badminton, jump the rope, swimming, hopscotch, 7-up, horseshoes, wrestling, ping-pong, and homework — in that order. Lynn also likes sports and hopes to be a mascot for the Bombers, after she marries one. By the way she's a good bench warmer.

SHARON COOK

"Cookie" belongs to the "quieter" category. Although a "silent partner," she always displays a wide grin which earns her, her popularity. Sharon likes sports and art, and takes an active part in church affairs. This ambitious miss wants to be a missionary nurse. We all wish her the best of luck and success.

HOWARD DAVIDOW

Howard can be seen hobbling down the halls, holding on to as many girls as he can (—thinks they're crutches)! Since his operation, Crutch can only do his conning from his car window — he throws a net over the gals as he drives by!

BOB FREEDMAN

Bob is our Nathan Cohen — thinks school is one big debate. He wants to be a chartered accountant (— likes working with figures!). Bob prefers the Bombers to all else, including Brigette Bardot, Marilyn Monroe, Jayne Mansfield, and Mama Plouffe. Bob KNOWS where he's going! — but can't find her key.

MARILYN GREENBERG

Marilyn, our HALO girl, is also our Room Mother. She's a good all round kid, and is liked by everyone, especially Mr. W. (heh-heh). Marilyn's ambition is to get married (. . . soon??). Good Luck, Marilyn.

SHARON GUSLITS

Sharon's a playboy's dream, but is always slow (getting her books together). This gal is not only our newspaper fanatic, but also editor, and goes to every council meeting, begging for money (— for her paper). Sharon wants to be a hermit, marry a hermit, (and have mittens??). How quaint!

LINDA KARPYSHIN

Linda is one of the naughty-but-nice kind of people. Perhaps her favourite hobby is telling white lies about her-ah-shooting ability? For so lively a little one, it is surprising that her ambition is a big question mark. Whatever she "attacks," we know that she will come out on top. Good luck!

BILL KARPENKO

Bill is our sports rep. and in his spare time works at North Main Drive-In (checking cars). Enough about his INTERESTING past. Bill is a quiet guy (I wouldn't tell anyone either!!), and a track star (you have to be — looking through car windows!). Best wishes on your book "Parking Techniques Made Easy."

ALVIN KATZ

Al is our president—all hail, and an avid participant in school sports (he wears shorts yet). He prefers girls to all else in life — wants to be a 3 letter man. Alvin is continually giving Mr. D. pep talks. Room 24 wishes you good luck in future endeavours.

ELAINE KORNAC

"Frenchie," an import from Montreal, has certainly captured the hearts of all in our room (and is trying to capture others.) Frenchie is a marksman of the rifle club? and a whiz at Maths. Since she wants to be a teacher, maybe that will be her subject. We know she will succeed.

MARY LEARNED

This cute kid can usually be found in the huddle of one of Room 24's corner crowds. I wonder who the conversation is about?? A horse-back rider from way back, Mary's aim is to become a couch doctor. Her fate? — A furniture salesman. Seriously though, we wish this swell gal every success.

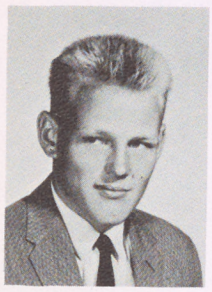

CONNIE MELNYCHENKO

This pert dark-haired miss manages to maintain good marks in her academic work. She has a complex towards volleyball, she thinks she is one of them. After completing her high school education, Connie plans to become a lab technician. Don't hurt any innocent guinea pigs in your lab work.

DOREEN MIRECKI

Doreen is another member of the "quieter club" but displays a ready smile for everyone. She is the secretary of a church Youth Club. She refers to herself as "Scatterbrain" and her ambition is to be ambitious. Wow! Anyway, we're sure she'll be successful at anything. Good luck, Doreen.

MARLENE OLLIS

"Tanga," as she is affectionately called by "certain" classmates, is noted for her clowning from which she earned her nickname. Her favourite pastime is shining doorknobs, but she is pretty good at scoring high marks, too. What a character! Surprise! We have another X-Ray technician on our hands. Good luck, Marlene.

MARSHA PECK

Here's the other half of the Jackie-Marsha team. Besides being an attentive student, Marsha is a member of B.B.G. Marsha's chief ambition is to be a nurse and with her charm, how can she miss? We wish you every success, Marsha.

BARRY PERLES

This guy is better known as the Casanova of W.K.C.I. Wherever there's a girl, there's Barry. Next to art and jazz, his hobby is LES GIRLS! Guess what? He wants to be a commercial artist. His-ah-efforts? show that he has a knack. See you in the funny papers, Barry.

MELVIN POSTHUMUS

"Moosey" is the boy with the excessively large frame — when he doesn't walk on all fours. Melvin is another Maverick when it comes to playing poker. He wants to get a job with the Green Giant Company and model for their tin cans — Hold those peas high, Moose.

DALE RANDLE

Dale is one of our intellects, always giving Lynn Cohen moral advice and support (I haven't found out what kind yet). Although he has a good academic record, he has no ambition and hopes to become a habitual flunkie.

JOE SARZYNICK

Although Joe is quiet, he is everyone's pal. He comes to school every Friday to wish the teachers a good weekend. Say, Joe, you actually got to school five minutes early. What hoppen? Joe's hobby is cutting out paper men (or women) and his aim is to obtain room and board at Selkirk. Good luck!

BOBBY SCHOETTLE

Bob and his playmates keep the class in a constant state of chaos. His hobby? — Bending paper clips. It figures. With his popularity, he is sure to achieve his ambition — which is ? To be a bigamist or so we hear. Bobby is the type that's good at everything. Good luck, old boy.

BETTI SMITH

This petite dark-haired miss reigns as president of the Red Cross and is constantly trying to find new ways of earning money. She does not participate in many school activities, but outside of school Betti is active in youth work . . . Her plans for next year are uncertain, but good luck from Room 24.

PAT STASYNEC

This perky youngster with her good marks and cheerful humour keeps a smile on many faces. She participates in several activities and does well at most things she attempts. Because of this, Pat is surely to be a success, and whatever she decides to do in the future, we're sure she'll come out on top.

SONIA TACHENSKI

Sonia is our semi-beat (up) Red Cross Rep., and another of those padded cell types — she drives people into them (for company??). She can be seen with comb and spray net in hand, peering down the hall "OBSERVING" interesting specimens. Sonia hopes to obtain her degree in psychology.

SONIA TESARSKI

This girl fascinates us constantly by wiggling her nose, her ears, her eyebrows and her teeth. She is continually falling and cutting her (knobby) knees, so that she can perform surgery on herself. "Beady eyes," as you have probably guessed, wants to be a nurse, and we of 24 wish her luck.

SANDRA WALFORD

This gal is one of Room 24's bright spots. Her contagious good humour and laugh constantly bring on cases of laughing sickness. Although Sandy wants to be a teacher, we think that her fate is a seamstress, indicated by the products of her hobby, sewing. For this swell kid, success is inevitable.

GORDON WILLIS

Gord is the strong silent type of our room. He is writing a book "Lending Homework For Fun and Profit," and will probably make a fortune on it. Gord's ambition lies in pharmacy, but we can expect him to be Gunn's delivery boy for a while yet.

GERRY WOZNY

Geraldine, as she is called by one of our more affable teachers, has a million dollar smile. She hopes to become a lab technician (EXAMINING BRAND X's Cigarettes), and wanders about aimlessly in biology, thinking of things to dissect — Miss V., suddenly you look funny! Good luck you mixed-up microbe hunter you!!

JAQUELINE ZILZ

"Jackie" is one of Room 24's intellectuals and one-half of the Jackie-Marsha team who are most attentive to the professors. After five years of curling, Jackie is finally the skip of her own team. What took you so long? This gal wants to be a teacher. We're sure she'll be a good one.

Room 23 - Grade XI - Matriculation

MARION BIRKLAND

Marion is one of Rm. 23's quiet gals but is well-liked by all and always manages to wear a smile. She participates in most inter-room sports and is a member of the inter-suburban basketball team. Marion's hobby is going to B.C. . . . just for the weekend!!

HEATHER FRASER

"Better late than never" is Heather's motto and she certainly abides by it. This seemingly quiet little miss is one of the quartet at the back of the room. Heather is very active in inter-room sports and is a member of the cheerleaders.

JUDY FROGGART

"Girls should be seen and not heard" and this certainly is what Judy believes in. She is perhaps the quietest member of Room 23 but this certainly does not stop her from being well liked and being good friends with all.

MIRIAM FROMSON

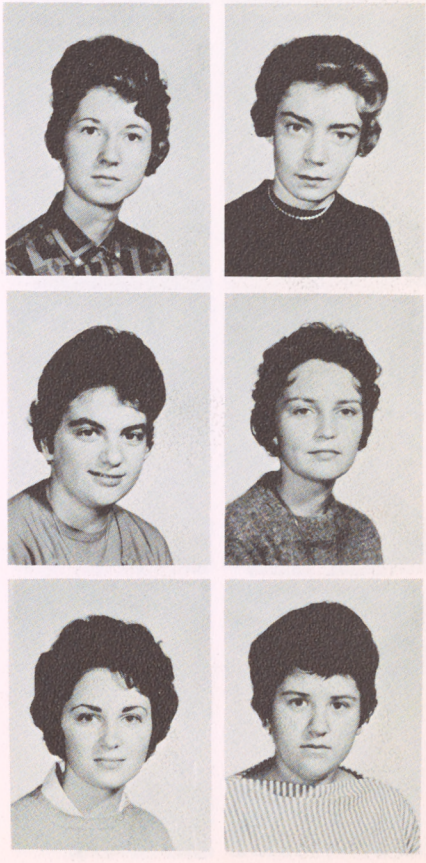

Miriam is Room 23's history fiend, so it seems, as she is just bubbling over with information. How does she do it? Miriam enjoys sports and is a member of the bowling club. After she graduates Miriam plans to study Sociology at the University.

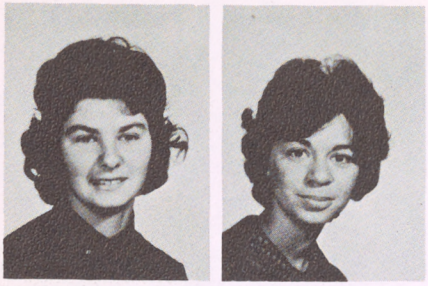

CAROL GELHORN

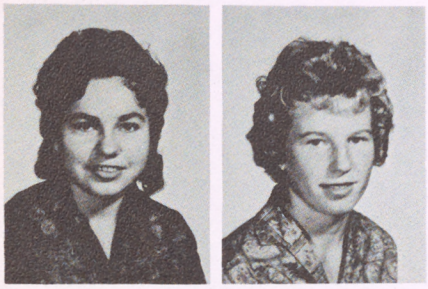

Carol is my partner in crime . . . these write-ups. All kidding aside, she is really wonderful and we all like her. She enjoys school sports but her outside interests include such things as singing and who knows who else. Best of luck to Carol in the future.

SANDRA JOHNSON

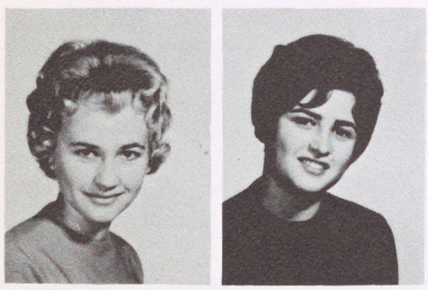

This cute bundle is our capable class president. Sandi always wears a bright smile and has a good word for everyone. She is active in all inter-room sports, but excels in keeping the girls in stitches about her imaginary "dream man." Hope you find him Sandra.

SHAARON KLAPMAN

Shaaron is our capable yearbook rep. Her sparkling personality and pretty face lend a glow of charm to Room 23. Shaaron's outside interests include playing the piano and participating in B'nai B'rith activities. Shaaron is planning a career in Home Economics but we in Room 23 feel that she should become a professional model.

PATTI KRAVETSKY

Patti is our most qualified Red Cross Representative. If anybody wants to know why the Red Cross has raised more money than usual this year, just ask a few girls in Room 23 and Miss Dewar. Seriously, Patti is a swell gal and is always ready to lend a helping hand.

NADIA KULAY

Nadia is another one of the quieter members of our room. She enjoys sports and participates in most of our sports activities. If you're ever looking for Nadia, just ask Miss W., since she spends most of her time in the library . . . studying????

LORETTA LANGENFELD

The strawberry blonde at the back of the room, that's Loretta. She is a new-comer to W.K.C.I. and takes part in inter-room sports. If she is not in her seat she can usually be found talking to Lori or Janet. Loretta is liked by all and tries hard in all she does.

BARBARA LEWIS

This young lady came all the way from France to join the girls in Room 23, just ask her, she'll tell you. We all think she is tops and we are sure anybody would readily second the motion. She is a hard worker and does all of her homework . . . (well almost all).

LINDA MARGOLESE

Linda's claim to fame is her wonderful art work. Do you remember some of the signs from the election campaign or even the dances? Well, that was our Linda. Linda also finds time to do her homework and obtain good marks.

LORI MILLER

Five foot two, eyes of blue, perfectly describes our little blond bombshell. Lori can usually be heard giggling (louder than anyone else) in most of her classes. Her cute dimples and friendly manner enable her to make friends easily.

SHARON PRIMACK

Sharon is our secretary-treasurer and can usually be found trying to get some money from us or trying to make us listen to whatever she has to say. In spite of this, Sharon is really a good person to know, especially if you want to know anything about Los Angeles.

ANDREA RABKIN

Andrea or "Andy" as we have sometimes heard her being called is a reporter for the newspaper staff. She is also very active in other school activities as she is secretary-treasurer of the Curling Club and a member of both the Debating Club and the U. N. Club.

LILLIAN REINER

Music, music, music! This is what surrounds our Lillian and we are sure she enjoys every moment of it. She is the piano player for the school choir and we are certain that she is doing a good job at it. Lillian also enjoys ballet dancing. We wish her success in the future.

DIANE RUBEN

Diane is one of the busy-bodies of Room 23. She is quite active in inter-room sports and after she finished her joyous chuckling she manages some serious schoolwork. Playing the accordion seems to be one of Diane's outside interests.

BARBARA SWANN

We often wonder if this kid is a member of Room 24 because she can always be seen roaming the halls. Barbara is an avid sports fan, and is good at sports too. Babs wants to be a baby nurse. Fate? Canning baby foods. Strictly kidding, Barbara is sure to be successful.

KATHY UNO

This oriental miss's main interests are sports, in which she excels, art for the yearbook and maths???? Her cute giggle and bubbling personality makes her a real terrific gal. She can usually be found tearing down the hall at one minute to nine.

JANET TRUBA

This cute little gal is always giggling and running off to the washroom to fix up. For whom Janet? Her friendly attitude makes her popular among the girls. If Janet ever looks busy, she is probably writing one of her important (?) letters, way up "North to ALASKA" or is it THOMPSON??

AUDREY WEINSTEIN

"But you don't understand what I am trying to say." Yes, this is none other than our Audrey with her usual arguments and jokes. All kidding aside, this gal is personality plus and we are certainly glad to have her with us. We wish her all the luck in the future.

KEILA WAKSVICK

Keila can always be heard at the back of the room and when she can't, one usually figures something is wrong. She is very active in inter-room sports and is a member of the Inter-Suburban basketball team. Also, she is a member of the Dance Club. Keila is most enthusiastic in anything she attempts.

MARGARET ZAMICK

This gal can usually be found gossiping with Keila. Her friendly, easygoing manner makes her a friend to everyone and it is no wonder. Margaret is active in most inter-room sports and is also V.P. for the Dance Club.

DOROTHY WESTON

This blonde-haired, blue-eyed gal is our able newspaper rep. Dorothy is most active in sports and participates in inter-room games and is a member of the Curling Club. She is good friends with all the girls and lends a helping hand whenever she can.

Room 22 - Grade XI - Matriculation

RUSSELL ANTHONY

Russ is the president of W.K.C.I. and rightly so. He excels in almost anything he tries, including marks, sports and girls. This lanky fellow has a pleasing personality and a smile for everyone, both of which should take him right to the top in whatever he choses to do.

DON BRYK

Don is tops in sports and books. He especially stands out in basketball, hockey, and football. He's a great friend, a lot of fun, and can always be counted on to tell a joke. Don's favourite target in class is "Goofy" who finds it difficult to match him for wit.

ALVIN CHULY

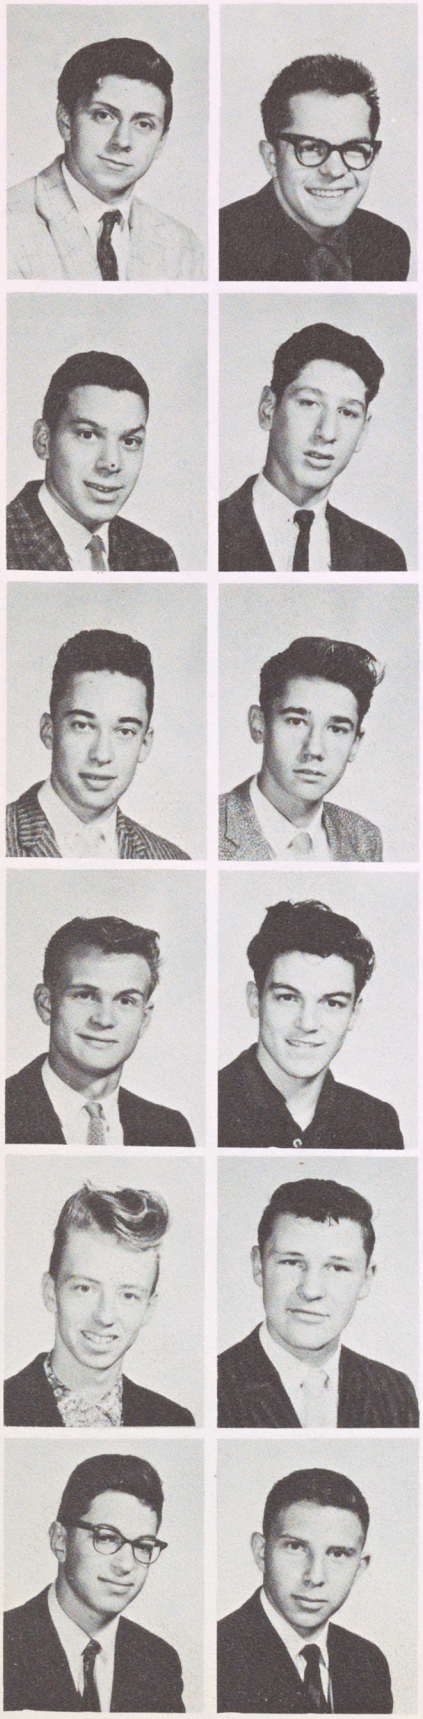

Al is the ladies' man around Room 22. Whatever Alvin wants, Alvin gets (or so he says). He's quite good at sports and isn't too bad in the marks department either. Alvin, when he's not thinking up losing teams to bet on or beating the gums with Marvin, is usually quiet in class.

BARRY CORETSKY

Barry is a popular student. Apart from the fact that he is fairly quiet in class (fairly quiet?), he can always be found arguing loud and long with Dave and Harvey over yesterday's geometry. Barry is interested in sports, girls, his studies, and girls.

JOHN ENGBERS

John is another one of the all-round boys in Room 22. He feels equally at home writing exams, or in skillfully leading a panel discussion. He's good in all subjects and has a pleasing smile for everyone (especially the girls). He is a swell person and an important part of the room.

BOB EPSTEIN

Bob is constantly plagued with the girls hanging all around him, and he is forced to chase them away in order to preserve his state of mind. He is a member of the "big three" — himself, "Jiggy," and John. Together they provide a three pronged attack against anything the teaching staff can muster.

MARTIN ERLICHMAN

Martin is the D.J. of Room 22. He can be heard daily on the P.A. giving us information on forthcoming school activities. He is really much smarter in maths than O.V. says he is. Just ask Marty.

DAVID GOULDING

Dave is an integral part of our sports teams. He is proficient in basketball, volleyball, and football. He's really bright when it comes to livening up the room, and his marks aren't too bad either. Dave should do well in future endeavours.

MARVIN HOFFER

This gentleman is quite good natured in school, but behind the wheel he'll let you freeze out in the cold, eh Marv? "Alfonso," as O.V. calls him, is really very good when the marks are handed out, and is not only interested in sports but also girls.

BARRY KAROS

Barry is a member of the "Silence is Golden Club," but can be heard loud and clear when he displays his prowess in the sports and academic fields. He is seldom seen out of the company of Brian T. Barry is a nice guy and an appreciated member of the room.

BRIAN KEMP

This good looking gentleman is Room 22's president. Besides the fact that the girls flock to him. Brian still keeps his mind on his work and manages to obtain some top marks. He is good in sports and is especially adept at rifle shooting, being a member of the rifle club.

MICHAEL MALLEY

Mike is a quiet but efficient student. He manages to keep top marks in his subjects as well as being keenly interested in sports activities. Mike likes to walk in about one minute to nine in the mornings just for fun. Don't be late for your wedding Mike!

BOB MACKAY

Bob is Room 22's social rep. "Jig," as he is called, enjoys nothing better than harassing Goofy about his "N". He's a happy-go-lucky sort and is always smiling about something. His marks are pretty good, but actually Bob's main claim to fame is his pleasing personality which makes him a classroom favourite.

JERRY OLEKSIUK

Jerry has the rare attribute of doing everything well. Not only are his marks among the top in the room, but also he is an accomplished sportsman. Jerry plays a mean game of basketball and football. He is a wonderful guy to have in the room, and always has a cheerful word to say to everyone.

ARTHUR OLIN

Arthur, using his more than ample brain to good advantage, can usually be found discussing some phase of schoolwork at any time of the day. Vice-pres. of Room 22. Arthur is the president of the chess club. He is widely known as "the fastest draw in the west" (when he goes for his slide rule).

DAVID OSTROW

David is a prime example of Room 22's brains, i.e. he has lots of them. He is the business manager of the Yearbook, besides being a member of many clubs. Dave, a friendly guy, is the president of the debating club, and a member of Omegas, A.Z.A.

DON PENSACK

Don is another "duo" man in Room 22 in that he is equally good at sports as well as his academic work. Although he is rather quiet in school he has many friends and is liked by all. Malvolio seems to have rough week-ends judging from the time he comes into class on Monday mornings.

BILL REINISCH

When O.V. wants the right answers he knows where to go, to our Bill. This fellow is up on his work as well as his sports. What Bill lacks in height, he more than makes up for in good-naturedness, and is appreciated for this. He's really a swell guy to have in our room.

HARVEY RICEBERG

Harvey is an ardent sportsman, and also excels in academic work. This fellow's bouncing personality and quick mind make him an important member of Room 22. However he must learn to control his almost hysterical laughter whenever Nathan takes it upon himself to split the silence by working his knuckles.

JACK SCHAEFER

Jack is a smiling gentleman and is usually seen with Brian in the halls. He belongs to the air cadets and is a constant homework helper. Jack is usually quiet in the room but his pleasing personality manages to make his presence felt.

JOHN SCHULTIESS

John, besides getting good marks, shows an enthusiastic interest in girls, physics, girls, Bob Mackay, and girls. John (with the jinxy voice) is generally regarded as Jiggy's accomplice in crime, their main crime being hookey. Seriously, John is a good fellow with a ready wit and a more ready slingshot.

BRYAN SHAPIRO

Bryan is the silent member of Room 22. He says, hears, and speaks no evil (thoughts not included), and therefore causes no great amount of commotion in the room. He enjoys sports, but does not really know what he wants to do in the future. I guess he'll just let the pieces of the K puzzle fall where they may.

IRVIN SHIFFMAN

Here is a man who knows history! Even scholars are known to come from distant regions to hear his unparalleled renditions of Canadian history. Seriously, when he's not in deep contemplation on how to correct his already accurate basketball shot, he is quite hardy with a textbook and usually gets top marks in maths.

HERB SINGER

Herb is an avid sportsman and is exceptionally good in basketball. He and Mrs. M. have a smiling contest going and from the looks of Herb's smile, he should remember that Mrs. M. is a Mrs. Seriously, Herb is a top student, and a mark for O.V.'s wrath at the height of a hectic maths class.

FRED STREWCHUK

Fred is our sports representative. He is good in sports, specializing in basketball, hockey, and football, and is as good, if not better, in his studies. Fred is at his best when he's doing history. He is popular with the class, and represents an important part of the atmosphere of Room 22.

BRIAN TOKAR

Brian (the designer) is a sportsman, noted for his volleyball and basketball. He can always be found frequenting the halls with Barry and they are practically inseparable. Brian is a good student, and his happy disposition is the reason why he is appreciated by everyone.

NATHAN WISEMAN

This handsome fellow, besides being a top student, and one of the tallest members of the class, has a pleasing personality and is well-liked by all. Nathan's favourite pastime is tackling difficult geometry questions, and on the side he is a pretty good guy to know.

LARRY ZALMER

Never a dull moment with this fellow. His favourite pastimes include making Mr. B., Mr. C., Mr. S., and Mrs. M. either hot under the collar or half crazy with laughter as he continually comes up with gems of humour which are trade marked "genius." Seriously, (if he even is), he is quite smart, and manages to pull off some high marks.

ERNIE ZUBRICKI

Ernie is well known around the room for his irritating habit of never betting on a loser. He is interested in sports and particularly excels in hockey. Ernie is not the noisiest person in the world, but he enjoys passing the odd word with Larry, who's never been known to turn down a prospective conversation.

Room 18 - Grade XI - Commercial

GLORIA AARON

This cute "miss," the author of these write-ups, is quite active in school as well as out of school. If advice is ever needed, she's the one to see. Gloria is not sure of what she intends to do in the near future, but we all wish her the best.

LYNN BROWN

Lynn is one of the quieter girls of the class, but we don't know what she does after school. At any rate, she does her best to obtain good marks and does very well in everything she undertakes. Room 18 wishes you good luck, Lynn.

PAULINE DAVIDSON

This ball of fire participates in all inter-room sports. We wonder if she is on the go outside of school, as she is inside of school. When you're with her you're not far from the latest jokes. We're not quite sure on her future. Is she?

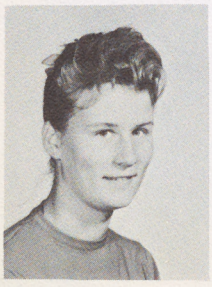

JOAN DEMCHUCK

Joan is our worthy class president with a personality plus, whose favourite expression is "Quiet kid." Joan's favourite subject is P.T. (whose isn't) and she would like to become a Phys. Ed. teacher after completing her high school education. The girls of Room 18 wish her luck in the future.

CAROL GODSMARK

Whenever you look at Carol she can always be seen working, and her marks prove it. She plans to enter Success after completing Grade 11. She participates in bowling for the school. Could her aim be the pins? We wish her all the luck in the future.

FAYE HOOSHA

Faye, a very quiet and pert miss, was Red Cross Rep. of our room. This was her second year as a rep. and has proved to be an asset to our room. In the near future, we'll probably see a sparkle on her left hand. We wish her the best of luck.

ELSE JORGENSON

Else is another quiet member of our room. She can be seen carrying a pile of books home at four. We wonder if she uses them all for studying? Kidding aside, she gets good marks and is liked by all. Your classmates wish you all the best in the future, Else.

BARBARA KENNY

This happy-go-lucky kid can often be heard laughing at her own jokes. She can also be seen with a certain boy — that is, outside of school. Her future plans are not quite clear yet, but we are sure she'll succeed in whatever she attempts.

SHARON KLETKE

Sharon Kletke can usually be seen with a certain "Bill" and is seldom seen without a smile. The little blonde beauty of Room 18 participated in most of the room's activities, including the talking, and was the room's newspaper rep. Sharon is well-liked by all who know her.

JOAN LILLIES

This girl must enjoy doing bookkeeping because she is always ahead of the class. Some day she'll probably become a "booky." Kidding aside Joan tries hard in obtaining high marks in her school work. We wonder if she does this well outside of school?

JUDY McCALLUM

Judy doesn't participate in activities; therefore this cute lass must be too busy studying. We're quite confused about her social life and we don't think Judy knows what's happening either. Her future plans have not been revealed as yet, but best of luck in the future, Judy.

JANICE MOGLOVE

Janice is the teacher's favourite pet; they always talk to her. Tell us Janice, is it because you do everything so well, or is it otherwise? She enjoys laughing at her own jokes and is liked by all who know her.

BARBARA MOSS

This gal is an import from sunny Florida. Too bad she didn't bring the weather with her; she sure can use it. Her favourite expression is "Man it's cold here." It didn't take Barbara long to get acquainted with the kids socially and at school.

MARILYN MOUNTAIN

Marilyn, an import from Ashern, can usually be seen grinding at her work. She'd better grind or else she may get it from someone in her family! She participated in inter-room sports and is very well-liked. The best of luck in future endeavours, Marilyn.

VERNA ORYNIAK

Verna is our tall, dark gal, who is always day-dreaming about the night before. She is the star basketball player. Verna is liked by all who know her, especially the opposite sex.

NAOMI PERMUT

You can always hear Naomi's voice from the back of the room, giving her opinion. Naomi's main conversation is the Blue Bombers. Too bad they lost, Naomi, maybe next year you'll go to the Grey Cup. Besides talking, she's also "trying" hard to pass clear. Good luck.

BERNICE REMILLARD

Bernice is kept busy participating in all inter-room sports, as well as being a member of the Inter-Suburban Volleyball team. She's quiet in school, but this doesn't mean there isn't another side to her out of school. Her plans for next year aren't too certain, but Room 18 wishes her luck.

DELVINA REMILLARD

The reason Delvina and her sister always have their work done, is that they share it. Too bad we don't all have sisters in the same room. Delvina also participates in all inter-room sports. Next year she plans to venture into the business world.

PAT RICHARDSON

Pat is the type who becomes confused very easily. Her favourite expression is, "Someone please explain this." However, she manages to get good marks at exam time. She is always in a hurry. Is someone on the bus waiting, Pat? Her outside interests include Job's Daughters.

JOYCE RUSSELL

On Monday we get a full report on what Joyce did on the week-end. Joyce doesn't participate in sports, but likes watching the games, especially when the boys are playing. Besides her social life, Joyce can be seen grinding away before exams. Good luck, Joyce.

BARBARA STEWART

Barbara is hard of hearing the first time and has to be told everything twice. In spite of this she doesn't have trouble talking. She can usually be seen running back and forth between Room 16 and Room 18. She can often be seen with J. M.

ELAINE SWANSON

We'd like you to meet this petite girl who usually hasn't much to say except when she's asked. She is one of the few that always has her homework done. Her main ambition is to be a secretary and marry the boss. We wonder who will do the "Bossing."

JEANNIE TANASAI

A tall and cute brunette with a fantastic love of sports. Jeannie is sports rep. of our room and proves worthy by participating on the inter-suburban and inter-room teams. She also enjoys talking about a special boy; we hope she doesn't run out of conversation.

BARBARA TOWE

Barbara can be seen wearing the latest fashions to school. She is always remarking on when new styles will be coming out in the near future. We're not sure on what she does after school as she is generally silent and does not reveal much about her personal affairs.

BARBARA TURNER

Barbara participates in all inter-room sports and also enjoys swimming and tennis. Without her we wouldn't have the latest gossip, and without it how could we survive? Barbara will probably end up being a receptionist and marry the Dentist. Best of luck in the future, Barb.

CAROL WINSER

Somehow the teachers favour Carol for her answers — lucky thing she always has her work done. Carol participated in inter-room sports, and was also secretary-treasurer of our room. Her favourite expression is "Don't forget your money." The girls of Room 18 are sure she'll succeed in whatever she attempts.

IRENE YACKEL

This cute but vivacious kid was vice-president of our room. She participated in inter-room sports, but be aware of her when she's playing — she may kick you instead of the ball. This tiny girl, with personality plus, also enjoys being with boys.

Room 16 - Grade XI - Commercial

JOAN BARLOW

Joan is pretty and becoming (pretty bad and becoming worse). No, kidding aside, she's another girl our room couldn't be without. So we wish her luck in the future and we're sure she will succeed. Guess at what???? Sitting on her boss's knee!

RITCHIE BEATON

This hep little brunette doesn't take up much space, but we know she's there. What's Ritchie got that we haven't except beauty, brains, terrific sense of humour and a trail of boys following?? She's Sports captain, participated in all sports and still manages to get top marks.

ANITA BEWICK

This red-haired lass is Doris' partner in plotting conspiracies during school periods. You can't tell a book by its cover and we can't be fooled by Anita's innocent look. "I-vor" one thinks so. She is a swell person and is an all 'round good sport.

BARBARA BLANCHETTE

This is the only dark-haired fille who wishes she could speak French. Although she continually has her work done weeks in advance, we don't think she wants to set the world on fire; she'll settle for the Collegiate and perhaps a job as secretary.

KELLI BRENNAN

Kelli arrives at school promptly every morning — at 9:03. A pleasing personality as well as looks makes her a well-liked classmate. Her activities range from giving Mr. P. gray hair in class, to room sports, not to mention talking over her fun-filled week-ends.

CAROL CHUCKO

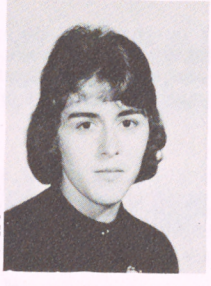

Any relationship between her and her sister is purely accidental. Quiet and demure are the terms for Carol. She's active in sports and gets high marks. Carol is secretary of our room and is another member of the Big Four or "back-seat society."

DIANE CHUCKO

"Sweety" certainly lives up to her name. She seems to bring the wolf out in a man with her beautiful smile. One of the Big Four, she receives good marks, is good-looking, and has plenty of friends. What more can anyone ask for???

LILIAN DURBAZ

An import from Sisler, tall, dark-haired Lil is another of Room 16's athletes. Besides possessing ability on the volleyball and basketball courts, she gets good marks. Whenever Lil enters a room, she brings cheer and friendliness with her.

ROSE GERSHBEIN

Work fascinates Rose: that's why she loves to sit there looking at it; she also adores school: that's the reason she comes so often, eh, Rose? Rose's personality lights up our days in Room 16, so we are sure she will go places. That's only natural.

DORIS JOHNSON

Here's a good example of the old saying "good things come in small packages." Doris is the girl we would like to sit next to during an exam as she is always getting good marks. A charming smile and helping hand make her an easy person to get along with.

LENA KARPENKO

1, 2, 3, 4, she's got "men" y at her door, because of her carefree twinkling eyes, laughing voice and personality. Our capable vice-president obtains high marks, takes part in room sports, and still manages to keep up with the daily gossip. Here's a gal who's sure to succeed.

ELAINE KLEIN

Elaine's a blonde, blue-eyed damsel with personality plus. She can often be seen "Len"-ding a helping hand to her many friends. Furthermore, being superstitious she never does her homework in a week with a Friday in it. All kidding aside, we think Elaine is terrific!

DOLORES KULIK

If you hear a loud giggle you can be sure that Dolores is near, but we know that her out-bursts are spontaneous and unrehearsed. She took part in inter-room sports, and we're sure Dolores will succeed in whatever she undertakes.

FREDA NUSS

Freda is always seen and never heard. She is the poet of our room, and as a helpful suggestion we think she should put more fire into her poems (or visa-versa). Kidding aside, Freda loves to work and we wish her all the luck for the future.

LINDA POLOS

Linda never fails to contribute to the discussions?? our room has. Besides being a good conversationalist, she gets good marks and is the possessor of one of the sunniest personalities in the room. She is usually seen talking over the happenings of the weekend with her cousin.

JUDY RAMSEY

Tall, dark, and mysterious looking, are the adjectives one can use to describe Judy. Although she gives the impression of being quiet, we in Room 16 know better. Her beautiful smile and delightful personality makes her well-liked by everyone, especially the opposite sex. Lots of luck in your future life.

HELENE ROMANCE

Helene is new at W.K.C.I., but we hope she'll stay. Look what we've found! She is an active member of our class, with many assets which can't be overlooked! Blonde hair, athletic ability, and good nature. Being industrious, we offer "Congratulations" for the future.

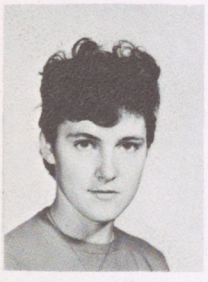

ROSE RUDACHEK

Sweet and petite, that's our blushing Rosie. She always seems to be around with a cheerful smile and a helping hand. Rose is the perfect example of brains and beauty, but besides attracting top marks, she also manages to attract boys. "Ken" you beat that????

ROSE STRILESKY

Rose is another one of the "Roses" in the room, and was an import from St. John's. Rose is our quiet classmate with the lovely smile. She's made many friends here at the collegiate, and we predict a bright future for this little lass.

NANCY SWISTON

Nancy is like any other girl in Room 16. She's not a leader of women but a faithful follower of men. Because she doesn't talk much??? she will make a good listener for some lucky boy, and an excellent employer or employee in the business field.

JEAN THOMSON

Our Jeanie with the light brown hair excels in sports, is our Red Cross rep. and succeeds in getting into trouble. She always seems to be "Bob"-ing in and out of the room, and has a terrific sense of humour and pleasing personality.

CAROL TOKARZ

Carol is reliable when she's got her homework done, but we still think she's waiting for an elevator to take her up the "ladder of success." She is another of 16's bright girls, and so is sure to be a success in the future.

CHARLOTTE VANCOTT

She was elected to represent our class as president. She's the gal that has the brains, and we've got the carbon copy. Her red hair catches the eye, as well as the boys. Charlotte's winning smile and terrific sense of humour kept our spirits high during the year.

BERNICE WATSON

Bernice is the envy of all the girls because she's got personality, twinkling blue eyes and long, brown hair which attracts boys and a certain B.P. It's a sure fact that she will go far in the future, and we wish success for our "Bunny."

MARILYN WEDLAKE

Marilyn is esesntial to our class because of her cheerful and pleasant disposition and her gay laughter. She is one of room 16's "top athletes," but whether at work or at play, she co-operates in every way. Your doing well! Keep it up, you'll succeed!

Room 11 - Grade XI - Matriculation

MIRIAM BAKALINSKY

Miriam is a petite, dark-haired miss with many friends. She plans to enter University next year and study Home Economics in the hopes of becoming a dietician. We believe this is how she intends to keep her figure trim. Miriam played on the inter-room volleyball team.

PAUL BOGDONOV

"Pacey" was our room's social rep. and he helped Rich with the Student Council. He also helped compose these literary achievements. He can be seen getting into his black hearse every day at noon and going to see his "chickie" over at Elmwood. Paul is the third member of the "Shack Club" in Room 11.

JOHN BITCHOK

John is the big "sport" of Room 11. Along with Rich, he played for West-End Rams Midgets where he was All-Star tackle. He also played for the school volleyball and soccer teams and hopes to stay eligible for basketball. John likes French so much that he is studying after hours. (What's her name, John?)

BONNIE BOKHAUT

Bonnie has been affectionately dubbed as "Room 11's B.B." She plays the piano and together with Eleanor makes a terrific duet. Because she is rather quiet, she seldom riles our teachers, which is certainly something to boast about, if you are a member of Room 11. Bonnie's plans call for a degree in social work.

PAM CHISVIN

Pam is the good-looking girl with long hair. Her main ambition was to get to Edmonton either at Christmas, Easter, or during the summer holidays. She works hard and is often generous with her homework. She, like many, won't be back next year, as she is going to University.

ARLENE DOUGLAS

Arlene, it seems, should go in for photography, for she's always showing us pictures of parties, people, and more parties. She was on the volleyball team, studies hard, and is hardly seen without Lyn. Arlene always has that certain glimmer in her eyes which makes us wonder who "he" is now.

CAROL DRIMES

Carol's height came in handy at Christmas time, for she was in the Santa Claus parade. She is quiet in class — maybe she's trying to get good marks, or is there someone we haven't heard about? Upon finishing high school, Carol plans to become a stewardess.

BARBARA ELLIS

Barbara has her heart set on a degree in social work. Why go to University? Her "social work" is doing quite well as it is. Barbara, who is a member of B.B.Y.O., has developed a very keen sense of humour (she couldn't have been born with it).

SHELDON GILMAN

"Hobie", as he is called by his fellow schoolmates who watch "Trackdown," skips every Friday afternoon with Mr. Giesbrecht. That is, he's a member of the Curling Club. He can always be seen with Saul and is forever talking about the "ball hall."

ARNIE GOLDBERG

This lad can always be seen crawling into the room at 9:05 with a beard. Another member of the "Shack Club", Arnie hopes, by the end of the year, to have learned how to play cribbage. Arnie has a particular reason for wanting to get through Grade 11. (She has you hen-pecked, eh.)

ARLINE GOTTLEIB

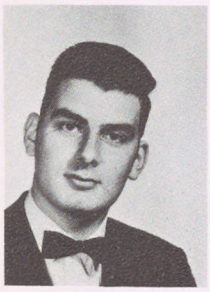

Arline is the cause of teachers' gray hairs. She can be seen combing her hair complaining about this lock or that curl. Seriously though, she is a good student and is Activities Editor of the "Sol Ortus." Arline plans to work towards a career in Journalism.

LYN HERRINGTON

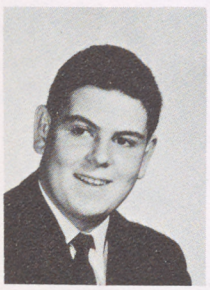

Lyn is the blonde-haired, blue-eyed girl who adds glamour to our room. She is secretary of the Red Cross, is active in all sports, and is a member of the Rifle Club. Lyn does her homework faithfully and can be seen with Arlene discussing the latest news.

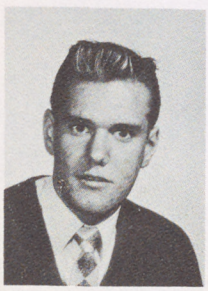

RICH HNITUIK

This popular boy's voice rings out loud and clear down the halls every day, as he is in charge of the P.A. system. He was an all-star basketball player and also played for the school's volleyball and soccer teams. Rich's dream came true last year; he now drives Linda around town in his new car.

FRANK LAMMERT

"Lammy" is a quiet member of Room 11. He is always willing to help anyone with his homework and he was a great fan of Mr. Isaaks. Although he is a great Chemist, "Lammy" should stick to being a delivery boy.

PERCY LEARNER

"Guv" is president of the ham radio club and as a result never gets his wires crossed. He has ambitions of becoming a lawyer, and practises by getting all the guys out of trouble. Percy went to the Grey Cup this year and, before the year ends, hopes to get to school early one day.

PAT LOEWN

Pat's a sweet little chick whose interest lies in becoming a private secretary (or rather sitting on the boss's knee). Another year of school appeals to Pat; therefore she'll be back next year for Grade 12. Her bright ideas keep the little group at the back in a constant state of confusion.

ELEANOR LONDON

Eleanor, our busy little French-type girl, was Concert Mistress of the Senior School's Orchestra. After she finishes Grade 12, Eleanor plans to go to Toronto to study at the Conservatory of Music. She was chosen to be a soloist at the Youth Concert and we hope that her talent will not be wasted.

HESTER MARQUART

Hester was a late arrival to Room 11, but it's better late than never, as the saying goes. Her activities include cheer-leading, inter-room sports, dance club, choir, and typing for the newspaper. Hester is continually altering the seating plan, which might account for Room 11's general confusion.

SAUL MOSS

Saul is the boy who has participated in nothing, and has done no work; instead he was always talking and telling jokes. Saul enjoys Chemistry and sits right at the front of the room where he could see everything that was happening. Kidding aside Saul is a great guy and we wish him the best of luck.

DONNA POZERNICK

This "wonderful" girl is our secretary and delights in taking our last few pennies. Her activities include sports, choir, Youth Club, and obtaining good marks. Donna is quite content to come to school with her favourite chauffeur. Her friends are numerous and she adds a sparkling touch to our classes.

ART RATHGEBER

In history, Art is our chief Historian. But in English, although he is one of our most studious students, he never seems to do anything right. In Maths, he tries to outwit Mr. Isaaks for more marks and when last seen he was still trying but to no avail. Art plays hockey and is an excellent swimmer.

LINDA ROBERTSON

Linda is Room 11's V.I.P. Among other things, she is vice-president of both Room 11 and W.K.C.I., captain of the cheerleaders, head majorette of Job's Daughters, and production manager of the "Sol Ortus." As if this isn't enough, she is a good student and is liked by all (especially by our favourite French teacher).

NELSON RUDELIER

Nelson, who is an import from St. John's, arrived on our scene in October. Although his marks were not too good, he showed a lot of effort in his homework. Nelson is usually quiet in school and he always has a good word for everyone.

JANE SAUNDERS

"Ha! Ha!," Jane's at it again. She has a witty humour? Jane was the proud owner of the longest hair in the room until she had it cut off. "It'll grow back!" (She hopes.) Jane is active in sports, is on the newspaper staff, and is Room 11's yearbook rep.

DIANA SCHAPANSKI

Diana wants to work in Montreal for T.C.A. Her interests lie in the Air Force — men or planes? She participates in inter-room sports and does enough homework for us all to use. But most of all she loves to babysit. Is it that the atmosphere is so quiet and romantic (for studying)?

MYRNA SCHULTZ

Myrna is Room 11's tall comedienne with a one-track mind. Sports! She is sports rep., on the sports council, convener of pin soccer, and she is a member of the Inter-Suburban Volleyball and Basketball teams. In spite of all this, Myrna still has enough energy to keep the class in stitches.

JOHN SIROSKIE

John's claim to fame this past year was that he was the bartender for the West-End Rams Juvenile Team. A great guy, John hopes to get out of Grade 11 this year. He is another member of the "Noon Hour Shack Club" and he can always be heard exclaiming "Man, that's humour."

EILEEN TRESTER

Eileen is an ardent B.B. fan (Bombers not Brigette) and can tell anyone what happened in the last game (if they don't already know). Although she participates in the choir, curling, inter-room sports, and the Israeli dance club, Eileen is a good student. She is sure to succeed in any endeavour she undertakes.

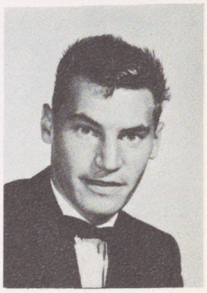

JIM WERNER

Jim surely knows how to pick his women. He must have been watching "How to Marry a Millionairess." Whenever exam time comes along, Jim has an original expression, "never opened a book." Jim is a great admirer of English and Literature.

ROD WESTMACOTT

"Delmar" is our all-star caper maker. He displays his attributes of Charlie Brown in Literature class exclaiming, "Who's this dib Macbeth." Rod is active in all sports; is captain of his bowling team, and is W.K.C.I.'s Hockey Convener. He also assisted Paul in making these write-ups.

Room 10 - Grade XI - Matriculation

RANDY BACKMAN

This is the Casanova of Room 10. Every day between periods he can be seen walking the halls with R. G., checking over the girls or talking about the weekend splash. Randy, who is a very good guitar player, is hoping for a spot on T.V. Good Luck, Randy!

TERRY BARAN

Here is the boy with the big blue Impala. He can be found driving up and down Main Street every Sunday with a certain friend, looking for girls. Any luck yet? Seriously though, Terry is trying hard at curling and at school and hopes to come back for Grade 12 next year.

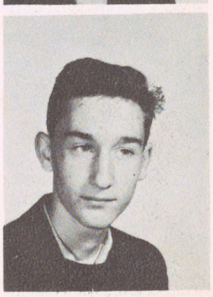

FRED BINNE

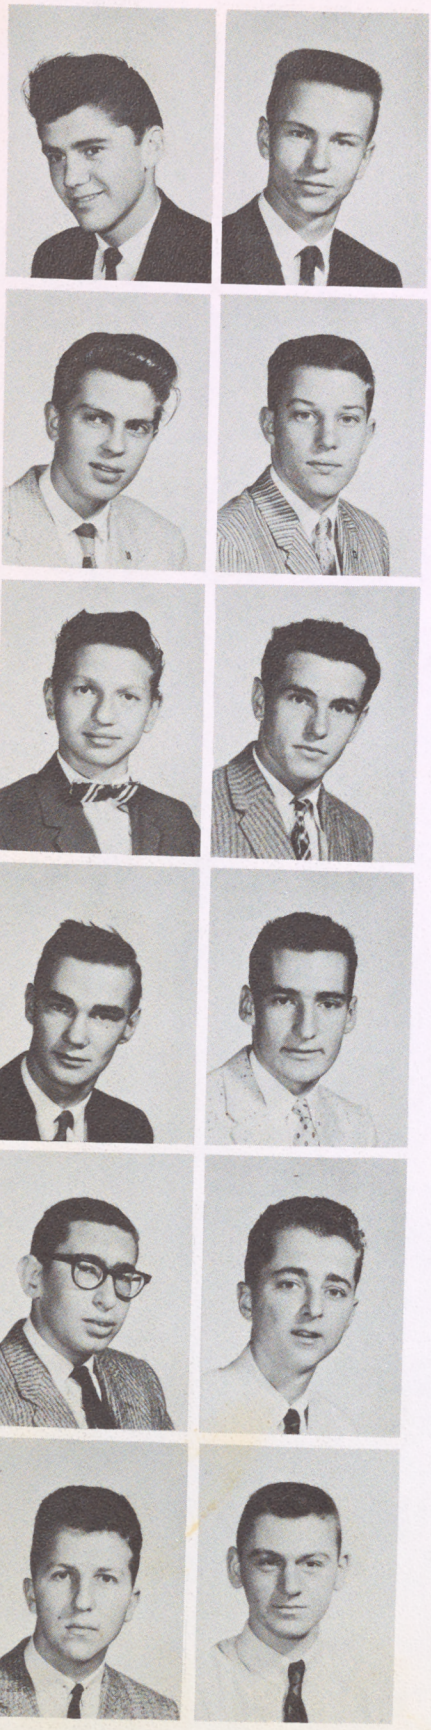

Fred is a quiet guy in the room but in the halls he is always talking to all the boys about his dad's new car. He is a very studious boy and plans to come back to W.K.C.I. next year. Good luck in the future, Fred!

CHARLES BIRKS

Chuck is the star basketball and volleyball player of our room. He is the one who is always letting off with the laugh. In French classes he and Ron G. spend their time laughing at their own jokes. The men of Room 10 wish you luck. Chuck.

KEN BROWN

Ken is another one of the car buyers. If he is not talking to George or Jim about the car he is going to buy (?), he has his arms around a couple of beautiful gals. Ken tries hard in school and especially proves it in guidance, with Room 8 across the hall.

DUNCAN CHRISTIE

"Dunc" is the sports-minded boy of our fair room. His so-called "talents" include football, volleyball, basketball, and curling. He is also an ardent admirer of the opposite sex. Duncan is another mathematician—at least he claims he is in geometry.

JIM CHRISTIE

Jim is the mathematician of Room 10. In Maths period all we can hear is his voice trying to tell Mr. I. how to do the question, while he is also trying to tell the guys around him about the car he is going to buy.

RAY COLLYER

Ray is our handsome president, an import from the little town of Oakville, Ontario. He is like the rest of the room, namely, he is always chasing the girls. Ray is a studious boy, but is uncertain about his plans for next year. Good luck in whatever you do!

BILL DAVIDUK

Bill is one of the smaller members of Room 10. He is a studious boy and in school is seldom heard from, but from what we hear, he isn't so quiet out of school (what's the reason, Bill). We are sure he'll succeed in future endeavours.

MURRAY ECCLES

Murray is the hot rod specialist in our room. In a car he is pretty fast but when walking the halls he takes his time passing by Room 5, if there is a certain M.P. standing around. Seriously, Murray is a real asset to our room.

BARRY EVASKAVICH

Barry is another one of the more quiet and reserved boys of Room 10. He does his share in sports and still manages to get good marks in his subjects. His extra-curricular activities include the Camera Club of which he is treasurer. Good luck in the future, Barry.

GEORGE FRASER

George is another one of the sports-minded fellows. In fact, every P. T. period he can be seen talking, arguing, or ..... about rules and games with Mr. S. Another favourite subject which George just loves is French. (Isn't that so, George?)

NORMAN GOLDBERG

Here is "stromin' Norman," the boy with the smile. He joined our room late but was lucky enough (?) to get here in time for October tests. Every day he and Dennis can be seen fighting or trying to get one or the other into trouble.

MARTIN GREENWOOD

Martin is the boy who supplies the bus ride between school and Minto Armories. He claims to be another Rifleman, but all we have seen of his marksmanship is his chalk fights. Martin, whose extra-curricular activities include sea-cadets, can be found chumming with Dennis and Norman.

RON GREGORY

Now this is the REAL man of Room 10. There's not much that can be said about Ron which he hasn't already told you. He is quite a hit with the girls and with our room. Ron proved to be a big help in volleyball and basketball.

VERN KAISLER

Vern is quite the character in our room. He is quite in the classroom but just listen to him in the halls! Vern is a participant in inter-room sports. His future plans include another year at W.K.C.I. Our wishes for the best of luck go with him.

GARY KARPYSHIN

Gary is Room 10's Red Cross Red. He is also just one of the many women killers of this fair room. Besides always arguing about his theorems with Mr. J., he is usually seen driving a flock of beautiful girls around in his car.

DENNIS McFARLANE

Dennis is the fiery redhead who can be found at the bottom of all mischief. He is always looking for excitement and we hear he is learning with the boys in the local culture club. Good luck, Dennis, from all of us in Room 10.

GEORGE THOMPSON

George is a quiet member of the room. He proved his worth by driving the girls of the inter-suburban volleyball tea to and from games. He is well-liked by all in our room and intends to go into the field of Agriculture.

KEN RACKLIN

Kenny, well-groomed and quiet in class, has a pleasing personality. He is interested in the drama group and would like more time to devote to school activities. He is friendly and has a smile for all. Among his social activities Ken is active in Slotins A.Z.A.

CARL RABE

Carl is easily identified by the pencil behind his right ear. He is a studious boy; maybe he should be taking chemistry, for he is always hanging around Room 11. What's the reason Carl? Carl is active in many sports, including skiing. We know Carl will succeed in whatever he choses to do.

BERNIE SENENSKY

This guy is a modern Jazz fanatic, and enjoys discussing jazz with anyone who will listen. He plays piano and is constantly writing arrangements for his new jazz combos. Bernie may be short in stature, but his presence is felt by all in the room.

WILL SHLANKA

Willie spends most of his time combing his slick, black, greasy hair. He enjoys his Maths with Mr. Isaaks if for no other reason than to bother him. He is the handsomest boy in the school. (This has been a paid political announcement.)

GEORGE SIMMONS

George is our tall, blond, handsome hero who can always be seen walking the halls with Murray. His extra-curricular activities include curling. George plans to return to W.K.C.I. next year for grade 12. Good luck from Room 10.

ARNOLD SLOTNIKOV

"Arny" is very well-liked by all in our room. He is vice-president and without him we all would be lost. Every time the teacher is out of the room Arnold's voice can be heard above the others, yelling "Shut up!"

JERRY SNUKAL

Jerry is another of the good-natured boys of Room 10. He is interested in all sports and helped us a great deal in volleyball and basketball. For this we say "Thanks, Jerry," and good luck in whatever you do next year.

SANDY SPENCE

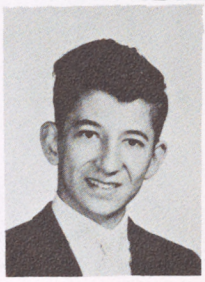

This fine fellow, an admirer of the opposite sex is our yearbook rep. He is a follower of R.G. and R.B. and together, this trio rocks the room with laughter. Sandy's sports range from volleyball and basketball to girls. Good luck, Sandy.

DENNIS TKATCH

He is the life of the room. Without Dennis there would be no Room 10. His talents lie in soccer, the Rifle Club and his A.M.A. He is well-liked by all and has our best wishes for next year.

Camera Shy

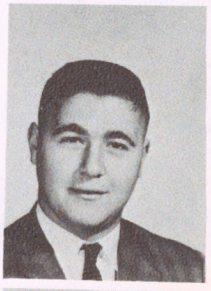

ALEX WHIBLEY

Al is well-liked by all in our room especially since he is so quiet and studies hard(?) Al has big plans for next year (he plans to return for Grade 12). We "men" wish you the best of luck, Al.

WALTER WROBLOWSKY

Walter is the "Popeye" of our room. Every period he tells us of the "splashes" he had at sea cadets. Walter, who is also a Majestic, is a quiet boy when the teacher is in the room. He plans to return for Grade 12 next year. Good luck, Walter!

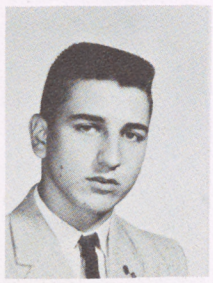

BRUCE YARROW

Bruce's motto is "I live to eat." Anyone can see this is true if one comes into a room during a spare period; then his desk looks like a cafeteria. On the serious side, Bruce is a swell guy to have around.

ED ZUBRISKIE

"Good things come in small packages" refers to our Ed. This little powerhouse is usually picking fights with all the big guys in the room, to protect the little guys (mainly himself). Seriously, Ed is quite a character to have around, and made up half of our write-up team.

Room 7 - Grade XI - Matriculation

KEN AVERY

Ken is a man of his word and firmly believes in his opinions which always manage to disagree with the popular trend. His arguments range from politics to parties, but geometry curtails all debate. Ken handles his academic work well and participates in most inter-room sports.

NORMAN BAILY

Who says he's quiet? Norm can usually be found joking with R. S. or revising his Latin book. The air corps needs men like you, Norm — so stay in. Kidding aside, Norm is a fine all-round athlete and does fairly well scholastically. His future has yet to be made known.

BARBARA BIETTE

Among other offices Barbara holds the position of Junior Councillor for W.K.C.I. and treasurer of the Student Council. However the sparkle in her eyes and the improvement in her essays can only be attributed to a white Envoy. If the current trend in her marks continues she'll have no difficulty entering medicine.

MARTIN BLANK

A looney lover of classical rhythm. Martin often expresses his desire to become a conductor of a one-man symphony. He delves into the realm of stamp collecting but his witty tongue is none the stickier for it. A Ph.D. degree appeals to Martin and we know his success is forthcoming.

HOWARD BLOOM

After an absence of four months, because of an operation, Howard arrived at W.K.C.I. following the Xmas exams. His general interests lie with golf practice, reading (Mickey Mouse), and arguing. A firm believer in democracy, Howard is attempting to revise Canada's foreign policy so as to include Russia as one of the Commonwealth countries.

MARILYN BOBBY

Marilyn had the gruesome job of co-editing all the yearbook write-ups and in her position as Red Cross representative kept all our books in good order. Marilyn's chemistry book was the envy of the room and is a good omen toward her future as a dietician. Marilyn was another member of the Camera Club.

SHELLY BULSTEIN

Our little immigrant from St. John's has proven a good student and an avid participant in most athletics. Shelly lives for history class and we have come to appreciate her answers in physics. She hopes to become a stewardess and we can understand why future jet travel will be a pleasure.

BARRY CHODICKER

Barry is a friend to all teachers mainly because he stays out of their hair. Teaming up with J. M., he usually succeeds in hiding somebody's briefcase for most of the term. Barry can usually be found arranging his car insurance to benefit one, Barry Chodicker, exclusively.

GARY DIAMOND

Gary is another infamous member of the "Anti-fraternity Fellowship" and usually can be found combing the bristles on his curling broom. Gary's pet peeve is physics and he can never be accused of not "fully" understanding it. Gary is destined to become a Chartered Accountant and we're sure he'll add up.

SHERRON DICKIE

Sherron took an extra long week-end off for a trip to Saskatchewan near the beginning of the term. She was one of the braver souls who elected to take Latin again this year and was forever consulting M. B. on the exploits of Camelius. She also belonged to the I. S. C. F. Club.

ALLAN DONNER

Geometry was a rather clear-cut and dried subject until Allan intervened. Room 7's entertainment is given a giant boost when Allan endeavours to read a French translation for Miss D. He does quite well scholastically and tries to keep out of accidents long enough to contribute to inter-room sports.

JAMES FAIRCLOUGH

Jim has succeeded in most academic subjects and is appreciated in our room for his witty remarks and quiet manner. Jim is an active member of the scouts. He can be seen quite often in the library, nose deep in maths, his pet subject.

CARLA FREEDMAN

Carla gained much fame for her singing telegraph service during the elections but she also put her voice to constructive use and won the B'nai B'rith's international girls story telling contest. Her story telling ability is undoubtedly of great help in her position as editor of the Sol Ortus.

FRANK GOLDBERG

Frank put forth an able effort to become a member of the "Jokers Hall of Fame," and his reputed wit kept Room 7 in stitches throughout the day. Frank made an effort at sports and school work but he excelled in his diabolical scheme which was devised to drive teachers insane.

WARREN HALLIDAY

His French translations are . . . pretty good but his way with the girls can never be matched. Warren was the only guy that had enough nerve to wear a "chapeau" to school. He is a steady worker, and his athletic abilities carry us through volleyball, basketball and other inter-room victories.

LARRY HERSTEIN

"Curly-top" can be found making reservations for "his" seat in the library or just trying to get into the library. Larry conspires with Marshall to produce the weird compounds in the chemistry lab which have been gradually raising Mr. H's life insurance premiums. Larry hopes to become an engineer.

RICHARD JOHNSON

Rick reigns as the president of the low-belt wearers in Room 7. He excels in keeping all his notes at least one month behind schedule. He can usually be found at the window waiting for the "gend-armes" to bestow a ticket on his car for parking on Salter.

DAN LEAVENS

We can usually find Daniel in the midst of volumes of paper work, basketball, and soccer. Nevertheless Room 7 wouldn't be same without Dan's favourite comments at crucial moments. As Room 7's sports captain, he has led us to innumerable victories. He ranks somewhere in the top 33 of our room.

ROBERT LINDSEY

Robbie is one of the more quiet souls of Room 7, doing his school work with good results. Robbie is one of those who murmurs the answers which are usually right. He always seems to be in on the good jokes which must account for his frequently displayed smile.

CAROL LITWIN

When Carol returned from Brandon she wasted no time getting the U. N. club under way. Her quiet composure in Maths may be attributed to her plans to take an Honors course in that subject. Carol usually holds down the top average in the school without any trouble.

MARSHALL MARGOLIS

Marshall keeps his finger on the jazz pulse with a small group recording for M. T. R. (Marshall's Tape Recorder) so naturally he represents the U. S. at the U. N. Marshall is the guy who steers the "Anti Fraternity Fellowship" into its fits and pitfalls (physics) but still finds time to guide the girls around the dance floor.

JERRY MEYERS

Entrusted with the "Keeping of the Door," Jerry proved his sense of responsibility and took over for Mr. H., to pull us through the first exams. His interests include disapproving geometry theorems, volleyball and football. Jerry's golf card shows an envied low average but he has trouble breaking a 75 average, scholastically.

SONIA PAPOVE

Our room's sport's participation has taken great strides under Sonia's administration and it is to her credit that we ever got a pin-soccer team together. Her position in history is a fairly safe and neutral one which many others envy. Sonia also takes care of the funds for the I.S.C.F. Club.

LOUISE RATHBONE

Despite her many commitments such as the I.S.C.F. Club and the newspaper, Louise has displayed a valiant effort in the form of these great girls' write-ups. She can usually be found doing homework, talking to the boys, or producing fantastic history essays. Her current philosophy on life is that "everyone goes through a phase."

BARBARA RISBY

Barbara, another of the musicians in our room takes piano lessons and voice training. She is active in her young people's group as their vice-president. One of our more ambitious girls, Barbara spends Thursday, Friday and Saturday at work. There is something about her quiet concentration which baffles Mr. C.

RAE RITCHIE

Murmur low and you'll drown her voice but her communication system, which has surpassed the primitive art of speaking, relies on the printed word. Her judo lessons are designed to supply the basic techniques for her future career as a policewoman. Forever Feminine "Displacement? Oh yes, that's how you measure lard."

PAT SCHEBAIN

As the first link in Rae's communication system, Pat has learned the value of the printed word. Hailing from Sisler, Pat has had no trouble holding down one of the top three scholastic positions in our room. Her extra-curricular activities included Inter-Suburban basketball, inter-room sports and bowling.

ROBERT SCHWAB

Bob is one of the more conservative members of the wolf-pack, but his ability in most sports ranks high. He is sometimes accused of being quiet but the rest of the pack has convinced Miss D. otherwise. Bob hopes to join the R.C.M.P. and is sure to get his man (or woman).

PAT SOLOMON

Pat is artistically inclined and continued to take it out on the Camera Club and the piano. What her sense of humour does to those French periods and the lab equipment is unequalled in W.K.C.I. Once again Pat was a member of the school basketball team and the I.S.C.F. Club.

BOB SOLYLO

We are fortunate to have in our midst a future Olympic Athlete, but until that goal is reached Bob excels in basketball and volleyball. His success with the girls indicates how nice a guy he is and his hard work in Geometry is appreciated when everyone else is in a fog.

SANDRA SPELLER

Sandra does a remarkable job of teasing the French from Miss D., and making history notes of Canada runs against the grain of this patriotic American. Following family tradition Sandra plans to enter the University of Minnesota for her formal education. Sandra is an active member of the Dance Club and Bowling League.

WAYNE STACY

Wayne is keenly interested in electronics and is an ardent member of the ham radio and chess clubs. Sometimes Wayne ventured to bring inventions to class and even tapped our room several times. He will probably cause some of the biggest bomb scares of the century.

ROBERT STILL

Bob is one of the few individuals who can honestly confess that his homework somehow got unfinished. Robert's extra-curricular activities include volleyball and curling and the Chess and U.N. clubs. Teamed up with W.S. his constructive criticism of Lorna Doone can frequently be heard drifting to the front.

Room 4 - Grade XI - High School Leaving

DON ADDIS

Don is very quiet in school. He played in inter-room soccer and flag-football, and also enjoys hunting. He likes shops, and hopes to become a mechanic. The "men" of Room 4 know you will succeed in your chosen work, Don!

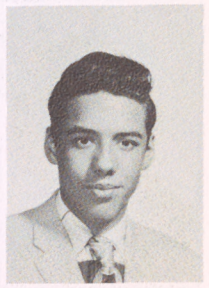

KEITH ANDERSON

Keith is a firm believer in the motto "Silence is Golden." He participated in all inter-room sports and activities. Keith works hard in school, and just loves his shops periods with Mr. Kedziora. His friendly manner is appreciated by all who know him.

HANS BLOOS

Hans has taken part in all inter-room sports, and especially enjoys hunting. He is one of the boys who keeps up with his work in school. After finishing his high school education, Hans plans to become an electrician. We of Room 4 wish you the best of luck.

KEN COOK

"Hopalong" was away at the beginning of the year with a broken ankle. When he returned he could be seen hopping along through the halls every morning. It was something to watch as Ken tried to play volleyball and basketball in P.T.

DAVE CORMACK

Dave, who was imported from Room 8 at the beginning of the year, was one of the boys who surprised us by shooting up his marks in the December exams. In P.T. he usually lets the other fellows do their exercising while he is content to stand by and watch.

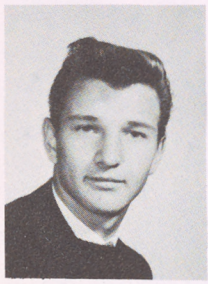

MURRAY COX

Quiet? Haven't you heard the saying "Still water runs deep?" Room 4's Don Juan is a real man with the girls. Bet you boys often wondered what this mysterious boy was doing with his spare time. Besides being at ease with girls, he is also good at sports.

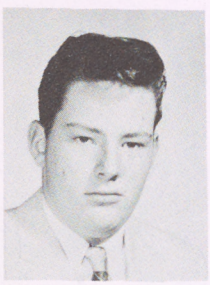

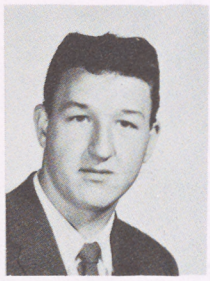

Camera Shy

GEORGE DAVIS

George constantly keeps Rm. 4 in stitches with his literary gems. Among other things, he is Room 4's financier (finds it handy when he's low on . . . ? hey, George?). He is fond of football — who knows, we may see him in the 1964 Bomber lineup.

CLIVE DERHAM

Clive was Room 4's popular Social Rep who enjoyed planning his own room's many? social functions. He seldom came to school without his maths homework done, but when he neglected to do it, was one of the fortunate ones who was always caught.

EUGENE DERKACH

One of Room 4's sportsmen, Eugene took part in all inter-room sports, and was one of those who wanted football in this school. A minor accident deprived him of the use of his writing hand for a few days this term. Eugene, you didn't plan this accident, did you?

DARRYL HERMISTON

Darryl is another member of the "Silence is Golden" club. His homework, well, it is usually done. He likes some sports, and takes an active part in both basketball and volleyball. He is well-liked for his quiet manner. Our best wishes go with you, Darryl.

LARRY JOY

One of the stronger men of our room Larry enjoyed retreating to his little corner of the auditorium during P.T. classes to do a few exercises, until Mr. S. finished his discussion with the other boys. He also put his strength to good use in inter-room sports, and tried hard in his schoolwork.

GARRY KERR

One of the big boys in Room 4, Garry played goal for the soccer team (the opposing team couldn't find an opening to score a goal). When Garry was playing most of the boys stayed clear of him. He also supplied the room with many of his jokes.

CRAIG KINNEBUROUGH

Craig loves sports — especially hockey and golf. He is sometimes seen golfing in 10 degree above weather, if there is no snow on the ground. Craig proves that he likes typing by obtaining high marks. We know that he will succeed at whatever he does.

WALLACE MALAWSKY

"Mouse" as he is more commonly known, takes an active part in most inter-room sports. He is quiet when the teacher is in the room, but as soon as the teacher leaves, leave it to Mouse to make it look as if a tornado hit the room. He wants to become an accountant.

NEIL McARTHUR

Neil is another of our many sports-minded fellows. He arrives at school at eight-thirty in the morning, but stands in the hall until one minute to nine (what's the attraction, Neil?). His ambition is to become a transmission line worker.

DAVE McFARLANE

May we present one of the top ticket salesmen for 1960-61. After a short stint in the R.C.N., Dave decided to return to 'K.C.I. and was shipped to Room 4. He is interested in sports, and is looking forward to track and field. We are lucky to have him in our room.

JOHN MELNYK

Standing 6'2" John is the giant of our room. His height came in handy at Christmas, for he was a clown in the Santa Clause parade. His favorite saying is "It only cost sixty dollars." After John completes his schooling he plans to join the R.C.M.P.

DOUG MILLER

Doug, the other half of the Miller duet, finds school much easier here than he did in Saskatoon. He does not participate in any sports, but this helps him get good marks in his subjects. Doug does, however, have a pool table at home, and in this game he excels.

DAVE MILLER

Dave came to us from Saskatoon, Saskatchewan, and, as yet, not too much is known of his outside activities. We do know, however, that he makes up one-half of the Miller duet, and that he plans to finish grade 12, and then take up accounting.

BILL PANASUK

Bill is one of the fortunate ones who holds down a part-time job. In school he constantly interrupts the class with his stale jokes, and is usually seen in the halls with a certain S.K. Room 4 can thank Bill for these brilliant literary gems.

EDGAR RENTZ

Edgar, who claims he is a star basketball player, is noted for his fantastic catching. He doesn't do too badly in shops, either. In maths class he likes to listen to the boys keep Mr. T. busy talking about Scotland, so that the period is wasted.

GEORGE SCHWARTZ

George, one of the mechanics of Room 4, can be seen in shops putting Mr. K.'s car together. (Now you know why he gets high marks in shops.) Among extra-curricular activities, he enjoys hunting, fishing, and skiing. Although rather quiet, George starts to roll when he is spoken to.

RON SCOTT

Ron is seldom heard from in class, but this doesn't mean that he is quiet out of school. Usually seen talking with Doug M., he enjoys participating in inter-room sports. His favorite sports out of school are hunting and fishing.

LEO SHOOMSKI

Leo participated in sports not only in school but also out of school. Besides this, he is a member of the Sea Cadets. This, however, does not prevent him from doing well in his school-work. The "men" of Room 4 wish you luck in the future, Leo.

KEN THOMPSON

This boy is really sports-minded. To prove it, he is Room 4's sports rep., captain of the suburban volleyball team, a member of the inter-suburban basketball team, and participates in all inter-room sports. He also bowls and takes an active part in track and field. Ken also has a ready smile and a kind word for everyone.

JIM TOKARZ

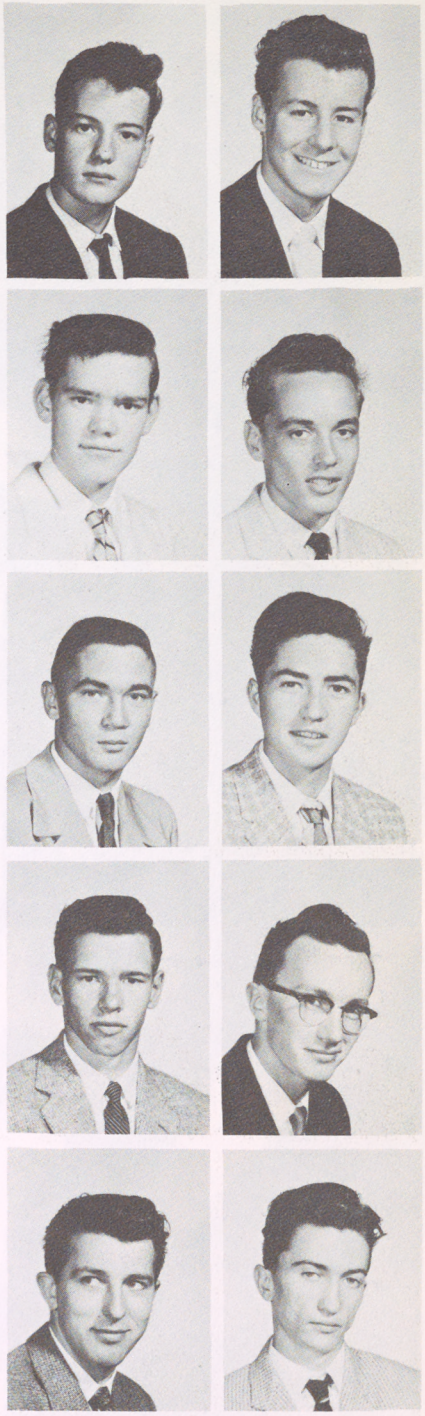

Jim is one of the more industrious souls of Room 4. Besides getting good marks, he participates in most inter-room sports, football and soccer being his best. He is quiet when the teacher is in the room, but not so when the teacher is absent.

DON WRIGHT

Don can be seen doing his homework before classes begin every morning and noon. Because he drives his little foreign car to school, he is usually the first one waiting for the doors to open. Don is not heard from too often, but his presence may be felt.

LAWRENCE ZOLTENKO

Zolly reigns as Room 4's president. Although he is constantly threatening a certain yearbook official, he is not always so vicious. Zolly is attracted by anything which has to do with sports, and is a great guy to have around.

Room 20 - Grade X - High School Leaving

ALFRED DIAKOW

Alfred was Room 20's little big man. What he doesn't have in height he makes up in personality. He likes soccer and was one of the stars of our room which won the school soccer championship.

JOHN DRABIK

John is an average student who studies a varied amount (very little). John would very much like to own a souped up Ferrari sports car. One of John's pastimes was to keep his hair in place.

JIM EDMONDS

Jim, our reliable sports enthusiast, is a friend of one and all. He spent his time in school carrying Mr. S.'s blackboard map up and down the halls. He can usually be found making eyes at the girls.

Camera Shy

RODGER KARMASON

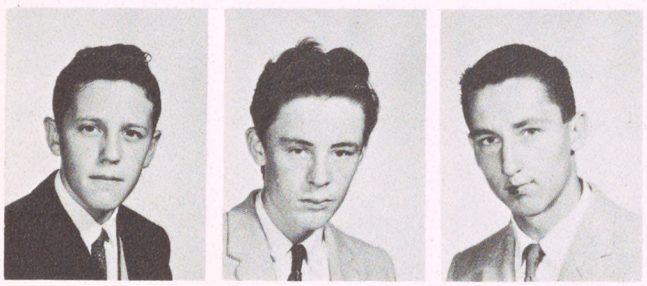

Rodger is our dashing room president who loves to chase the girls in his shiny green car which half the time won't start. Rodger tries very hard, at times, to keep the room in order.

DAVID KOROLYK

David is not a scholar but seems to do his work and pass his exams. You will most likely find him driving around with Henry who owns a new Pontiac. He is well liked by all.

NED LEEDER

Ned seems to have trouble meeting the final bell for classes and usually finds himself in Room 8. He does not excel in sports, but likes to play football. He is also a Sea Cadet.

RON MERRITT

Ron was our classroom vice-president and tried to appear hard at work. He managed to keep his marks among the highest in our room and took part in all sports activities in the school.

GARRY NIXDORF

Garry is the proud owner of the most borrowed pair of runners in the school. He is a cheerful lad who can dream up the weirdest excuses for not having his homework done.

DENNIS PARSONS

Dennis worked very hard in school and in return received good marks. He was always ready to help a fellow classmate, in need of help with a well-timed answer. He was also our secretary-treasurer.

DOUG ELRICK

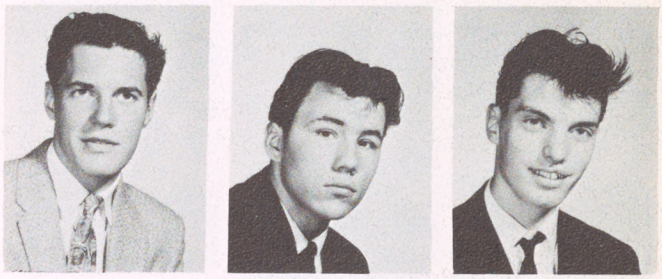

Doug, one of the quieter boys of the room, receives good marks in all subjects. His favourite sport is hockey. We often wonder what Doug does away from school. Best of luck, Doug!

BRIAN FULSHER

Brian's favourite pastime is driving around with Rodger. He could often be found in detention, although he tried to assure you he shouldn't be there. Eating his lunch in Mr. I.'s math class usually proved disastrous.

GARY HANSEY

Gary is one of the quieter boys in the room although we often wonder if that is not the best way to be. He is an average student who does his work very satisfactorily.

GORDON LITWIN

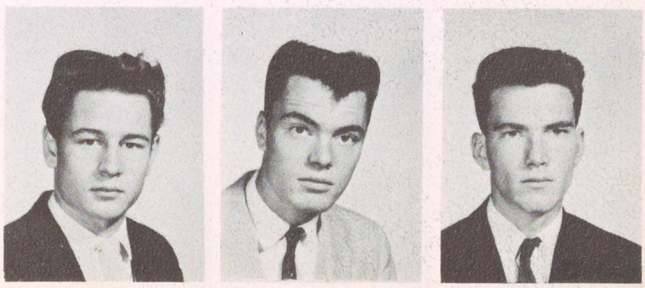

Although he spent a great deal of his time keeping his marks up, he was always ready for a joke. He plays many sports, some of which are golf, baseball, hockey, and basketball. Good luck, Gordon.

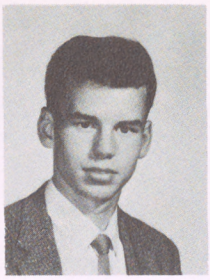

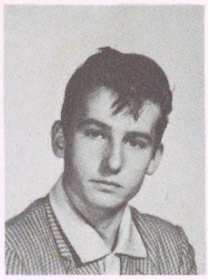

BRIAN McFARLANE

Brian liked to play jokes on his neighboring roommates. He did his school work well with the result that he received good marks. Brian, whose favorite sport is golf, played in inter-room sports.

RUSS MECKLING

Russ was room 20's sports representative. He plays all sports exceptionally well and trains his voice all day long by singing in class and in the hall. He pleases his teachers by doing all his homework.

RON SIVAK

Ron was our star speller who spent most of his time driving his shiny red Buick around. He specialized in practical jokes and his favourite saying was, "But Sir, we've got so much homework already."

NICK STEWART

Nick is a good student and recorded good marks in his exams. He is very athletic and participated in Room 20's inter-room games. He was well-liked and has many classroom friends.

RICHARD TAYLOR

Richard worked hard in class and did his homework well. He had one downfall in school and that was in spelling; it frustrated him greatly. Richard refereed and coached basketball at Edmund Partridge.

DAVID PEARSON

David's pride and joy is his car which he soon intends to sell(???). He likes to ask questions, especially to find out why he is wrong, but usually ends up in an argument with the teacher.

BILL REYNOLDS

Bill was one of room 20's clowns who put everyone in stitches — even the teachers. His extra curricular activities centered around the bowling and Dancing Clubs. He played volleyball and soccer and participated in inter-room activities.

MARTIN SEEPISH

Martin has good curricular abilities but--!?? Martin was our avid Red Cross member who attended each meeting, mostly because meetings were held in Room 20. He is sports-minded but likes basketball best of all.

ROY WALKER

Roy is another of our quieter boys who has a hard time doing his homework. His pet sport is golf; he is said to be one of the longest drivers in West Kildonan.

HENRY ZUBK

Henry was one of Room 20's outstanding sportsmen. His greatest task was getting his homework done. He seemed to have the knack of doing the right thing at the wrong time, but was still liked by all.

Room 15 - Grade X - Matriculation

BARRY ADELMAN

Barry is slightly addicted to sports. He plays basketball, golf, football, volleyball, and he also participated in all inter-room sports. He was in the Chess Club and is a member of A.Z.A. and Y.M.H.A.

JONATHAN ARNETT

Better known as "Jonty" is a member of the Ham Radio Club. He is very interested in radio experimenting. He always seems to have his homework done and is quiet in "most" classes.

NEIL BAKER

Is a very serious student. In school he was a member of the U. N. Club, and outside school he was a member of Y.M.H.A. He played volleyball and football in the past year.

ELLIOT BALBERT

Is a "girl-chaser" of some renown. He is assistant Sports Editor of this yearbook. He was also a member of the United Nations Club and was very active in inter-room sports.

JERRY BASS

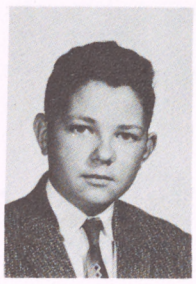

Our room's vice-president, is usually seen arriving at school at 9:01. He was always seen catching up on late assignments in library period Monday morning. He is a member of A. Z. A. and U. S. Y.

KEITH BATES

Has read many "Join the Navy" posters and it is finally beginning to grow on him. He was a member of the U.N. and Dance Clubs and was the Statistician for Bowling.

BOB COLLISON

Has one great mortal enemy, work. He was always seen catching up on Math homework five minutes before the period started, or sleeping in Science class.

JIM DYSON

Is quite a hit with girls. He participated in basketball, volleyball, football and was on the room soccer team. He is a member of a West Kildonan canteen and can always be seen combing his long black locks.

SIDNEY FLACKMAN

Has his better sides, six of them to be exact. His hobby is collecting useless facts. He was a member of the Camera Club and is a member of Y.M.H.A.

CALVIN GUTKIN

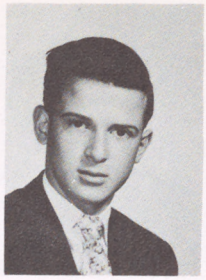

Our capable room president is a very active student. He is a member of Debating and U.N. Clubs. Athletics, bowling, basketball, baseball and football are his accomplishments. He would like to get his Ph. D. in medicine.

PETER JOHNSON

Our mad scientist, wants to become a bacteriologist. His hobbies are microbiology and tropical fishes. Of course he is in the School Science Club. He likes roller-skating and skiing.

BRIAN KUZYK

Is one of the more boisterous students of our room. At lunch hour he is usually the first to leave for home. He played Bantam Soccer, was on some of our room teams, and goes to Young People's.

JACK BINKLEY

Is a very busy student. He was Business Manager of Collegiate Capers. He was a member of the Ham Radio, U. N., Drama, and Dance Clubs. He also curled. He sometimes finds a little time for schoolwork.

GENE CHARNEY

FRANK FLEISHER

The student who was voted the one most likely to drive Mr. T. insane??? has one ambition: to pass Latin. He participated in curling and hockey and was also in the school choir.

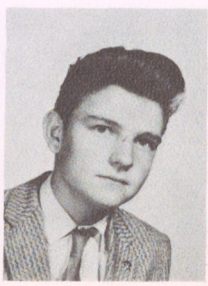

HERSHEY GOLDIN

Is a handsome, charming, intelligent, young gentleman; just ask him, he will tell you. Truthfully, he is a member of the Debating, Science, U. N. and Dancing Clubs. He curled and bowled and was in room sport activities.

ROBERT GRAF

Was captain of his bowling team. He is an active member of the American Library of Science. His ambition is to become a scientist, and works towards his goal by getting very good marks.

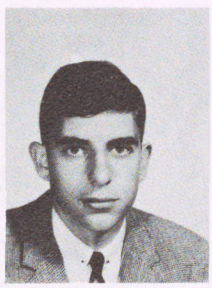

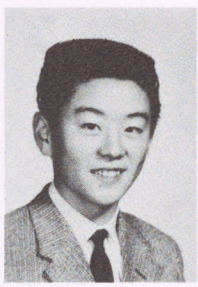

EDWARD LIPSETT
Our able Red Cross representative, who spends more time looking for the meetings than he does at them, is a very active student. He is associated with the Ham Radio, Science, Dancing and Curling Clubs.

HOWARD MALCHY
Wants to live a plain life. All he wants to be is a millionaire. He is interested in hockey, rugby, and basketball. He is a member of A. Z. A. and Y. M. H. A.

GORDON MARGOLESE
Is assured of passing this year; his Mother is a school trustee. He honors the U. N., Debating, Chess and Science Clubs with his presence. He was curler and played on our Soccer Team.

ALLAN SAMPSON
Participated in a number of school activities in the past year. He was a member of the U.N. and Chess Clubs and was on the yearbook and newspaper staffs. His hobby is putting teachers on the spot.

MARVIN SHANE
Is an accomplished violinist. He has played in a number of orchestras. He participated in basketball, football, hockey, and baseball. He enjoys reading and is a member of the school choir.

DON SINCLAIR
Our curly-haired sea cadet, is a very athletic student. He was in most inter-room sports, besides playing curling, soccer and football. Don has been a good student and always had his homework done.

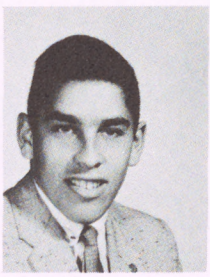

CHARLES LAZER
Is the assistant business manager of "Sol Ortus." He is athletically minded for — he is in golf, curling, hockey, basketball and all inter-room sports. His hobby is scale model railroading.

MILTON LECKER
A nut without a shell, was an avid member of the Chess Club. He has a voice which was greatly appreciated in the choir?????? An athlete of some natural ability, he participated in basketball, volleyball, and rugby.

MARTIN LEVIN
Is always taking bets on all sporting events. He is a sports addict and plays basketball, golf, bowling, football, etc. He is a member of the Eskimos (A.Z.A.) and of the Y.M.H.A. and enjoys listening to sick poetry.

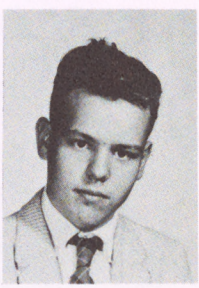

GORDON McLEOD
Is the strong and silent type. He is one of the many of our room, who participated in curling. He is another member of the "Reader's Club."

BRIAN ROSENBY
Is one of the few quiet members of our room. He likes basketball and was an active member of A.Z.A. In curling he was with W.K.C.I. and Maple Leaf.

TEDDY SAITO
Our vote for all-round student, participated in most of our room's sports teams, was Sports Rep. and participated in curling. These activities did not hinder him, for he had one of the highest averages in the room.

MAX SUCHAROV
Is often being bothered by F. F. He is a member of U.S.Y. and took time off to attend the convention in Omaha. He is a member of the Y.M.H.A. and curled and also bowled.

LEWIS UDOW
Loves L.O.F. (lots of food). His favourite pastime is reading. He was Ass't. Business Manager of Collegiate Capers and was very helpful to the Business Manager???

LEN UDOW
Our curly-haired Casanova, has been in many activities in the past year. He was a member of the Chess Club and was in many room sports. He is also a member of A.Z.A. and Y.M.H.A.

EARL WINESTOCK

Has a fear complex about Australian Aborigines. Earl and Mr. H. get along together well . . . like a cat and a mouse. Earl belongs to the A.Z.A. and Y.M.H.A.

Room 14 - Grade X - Commercial

JOANNE COONEY

Joanne is our "quiet" girl who is seated at the back of the room. She lives for her "cooking classes" Wednesday mornings. We hope she "chooses home economics" as her career when she is finished at WKCI.

LINDA CHRISTIENSEN

Linda is one of our more quieter girls. She is always busy studying or working on her own. She's warm, friendly, and easy to get along with. We know that if she tries hard, she will reach her destination, meaning her Grade XI.

GENEVIEVE DEARMAN

Genevieve, our quietest student, rarely speaks of her private life, but you can be sure she knows her "Morris" code thoroughly. Gene is one of our prize students in typing and receives good marks in her other subjects too.

JOAN EDMONSTON

Joan is the other half of the Edmonston duet. She is as active in and out of school as is Judy. Since two brains are better than one, how can this duet fail?

JUDY EDMONSTON

Judy's activities include inter-room sports and the choir. Outside, she is a member of Young Peoples and her church choir. Her marks are quite good and she is on her way to a successful career.

HELENE FORMANIUK

Helene is another one of our hard workers. She achieves good marks by studying hard and asking troublesome questions. Her warm smile and friendship is welcome by all. We know she'll succeed in her chosen career.

Camera Shy

JANICE De JAEGER

Janice is one of our yearbook reps, and is responsible for these "gems." In class, "shorthand" is her task, but we think she'll make it. Jan is headed for a successful career as an usherette, at the Met Theatre.

ANGIE DERKACH

With Angie, personality, looks, and companionship go together. She was room 14's candidate for Freshie Queen. She is an admirer of the opposite sex, and her date book proves it. Keep up the good work, Angie.

BETTY DURWARD

Betty, our vice-president, is quite a gal when it comes to sports. Is this the reason you dropped shorthand? The best of luck in your future, Betty whatever it may be.

JUDITH HONER

Judy, our Red Cross Rep. is one of the quieter members of our class. She obtains very good marks, especially in Record Keeping. She achieves her marks by hard studying and thorough preparation for the next day's lessons.

JOAN JACKSON

Joan is one of our room athletes, as proven by her participation in room sports. She tries hard in her studying and as a result of this gets good marks. All in all, Joan proves to be an asset to Room 14.

ARLYNE JACOBSON

Arlyne, our newspaper rep., adds her share of laughter, especially when around Judy and Louise. She obtains good marks and studies hard to achieve them. Arlyne is a member of the Art Club and enjoys it immensely.

ANNY LAURITSEN

Anny is another of our bright girls, and proves this by achieving good marks. Even though she is a quiet girl, she is friendly to all, and her classmates enjoy her companionship.

DONNA LIPCHEN

Donna is one of our more talkative girls. Whenever there is laughing and chatter, you know she is behind it all. Even though she is a light-hearted person, she still maintains a good average.

GAIL MANNING

Gail is one of the late comers to W.K.C.I. In school she is quiet, but we don't know what she does after school. Gail likes record keeping??? We wonder why her book is always in a jumble. What's the reason, Gail???

ROSEMARIE FUNK

Rosemarie is one girl you should all meet. She is a wonderful person and is easy to get along with. Even though she achieves good marks, she still thinks she can do better. Keep trying, Rosemarie.

ETHEL GOLDINER

Ethel was our other "late arrival" from Beausejour. Whenever there is laughter you can be sure Ethel is in the middle of it. She achieves good marks by "being very attentive in class"!?!

NANCY HARVEY

Nancy is our blonde, and blue-eyed miss who spends most of her time at the General and sometimes the Children's hospital. Most of all she likes 2A in the General. All kidding aside Nancy achieves fairly good marks and "studies" hard to get them.

JUDITH KAPLAN

Judith is one of our blonde bombshells. She has the unique quality of getting along with both classmates and teachers. She has good advice about etiquette, and practises what she preaches. Judy tries hard to achieve good marks, and we know she will succeed.

PATRICIA KOCH

Laughter does not stop flowing from this girl. She laughs at anything and anyone. Miss M. just "loves to hear her laugh." Pat is a member of the choir and is also our representative for yearbook.

SYLVIA KOHUT

Sylvia Kohut was a student of W.K.C.I. but transferred to Sisler High in late October. She was active in sports and had a high average. She was a good server in volleyball games.

MYRTLE McEWEN

"Myrt" is a very active girl in all sports and she is also our sports rep. She has a habit of coming in late in the morning and can be heard saying "Mrs. M., I was at volleyball practice."

SALLY McLEAN

Sally gives her work the utmost attention and achieves some fancy marks. She is always eager to help whenever she can, and because of this she is sure to win many friends. Best of luck from Room 14, Sally.

JOYCE MAZUREC

Joyce is another one of our talkative girls. She and Donna are constantly chattering. A warm smile awaits you when Joyce is around. Her marks are very good and her ambition as a secretary might yet come true.

SANDRA MASLOWCHUK

Sandra is one of our cutest and daintiest chicks. Her actions and manners are highly rated in our minds. She shares our problems with sympathy and understanding. She is one of the girls who dropped shorthand, in order to achieve better marks.

KAREN ROY

Karen is one of our singing canaries. She has competed in many festivals, and we encourage her to continue with her singing career. In school, she maintains average marks. Her future lies in the business world.

SYLVIA ROYKO

Sylvia, who is Room 14's president, reigns our room with a stern hand. Besides this, she is very active in sports, and obtains good marks. Sylvia is liked by all. We wish her all the luck in the future.

Camera Shy

INGE ZABEL

Inge is one of our fair redheads with freckles to match. Without freckles, Inge's face would be like a starless night. She is hardly heard during school but she does whisper once in a while. The best of luck to you Inge!

SHIRLEY ZUBRISKI

Shirley knows her work and her marks show it. Because she keeps it to herself we don't know too much about her outside activities. All we can say Shirley, is good luck to you in the future.

LOUISE SARAHAN

Louise can be seen "dancing down the aisle" toward her desk every morning. Where do you get all the energy? Seriously though, Louise has very good marks, especially in shorthand which she likes most of all.

ILANA SARBIT

Ilana is one of our cute and rather quiet girls. Although she does well in her studies, she still thinks she can improve. She keeps us in the dark with regards to her outside activities, but we wish her the best of luck.

CAROLE WARKENTIN

Carole is another of our good-looking girls. She appeared in the Santa Claus Parade as a Japanese girl on an oriental float. Personality and companionship run in her line and her friendship is always welcome.

Room 9 - Grade X - High School Leaving

TED BECKER

Ted seems to be one of the more settled members of our class. Besides bowling, Ted is an active member of his church's Young Peoples. Ted dreams of becoming a Diesel Technician.

TERRY BOYD

Terry is a quiet boy that wears a smile — beware of him, girls! He is active in all sports. He takes a great interest in curling and hopes to win in the bonspiel.

MELVIN CERCHO

"Mouse," as Melvin is more commonly called by his fellow classmates, is a quiet and mischievous type. Melvin can always be found trying to get his shops homework done.

Camera Shy

ALLEN DREVLO

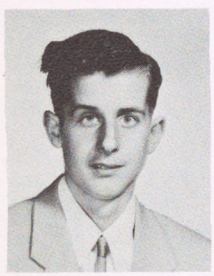

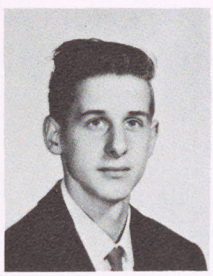

"Soupe" is the favourite target for the ruler of a certain teacher. Allen thinks the Essex is a beautiful car and still wonders why they went out of style. He does a good job representing our room for the newspaper.

BARRY FREEDMAN

Barry is the camera bug in our fair room and is usually found clicking the shudder on some surprised victim. Barry is well-liked and this goes to prove that good things do come in "small" packages.

LUCAS GOLEBESKI

"Golepski" as he is known by a certain teacher is a great asset to our class. Lucas works hard at his one aim in life; to pass a shops exam. We all hope he succeeds.

BOB JEFFRIE

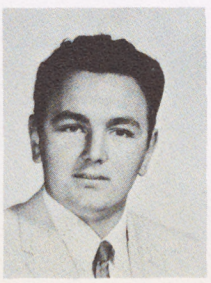

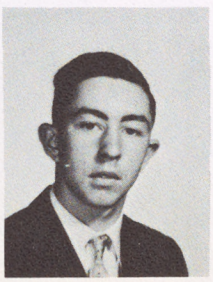

Bob is far from being the quietest member of our denison of the wise. His main interests lie in Rifle Club, volleyball, and bothering the teachers. Bob, also is very interested in the automotive field.

ANDY LANE

"Ander Bernander" is a very well liked member of the clan of Room 9. Andy is full of jokes and besides playing drums he participates in hockey, basketball, soccer, and flag football. Andy recently started to curl and is making fast progress in this game.

DAVID LAWES

Dave is the type everyone likes to have around. Snap your fingers and out pours the jokes. Dave likes curling, volleyball, football, etc. Aside from being the worst speller in the room, Dave is a good guy.

RON CHARNEY

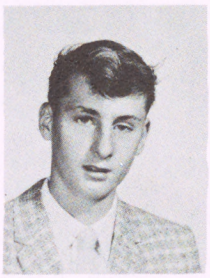

Ron is Room 9's doorman. Besides answering the door he is usually seen doing his homework. This is one of many signs that Ron will succeed in the career he choses. Room 9 wishes him good luck.

BARRY CRAGGS

Barry is the avid sportsman of our room. He was the captain of our flag football team and he participated in soccer and basketball. Barry is our Sports Rep. and does a really good job.

RAY DESCHARNAISE

Ray is our social rep. and is well-liked by all, especially the fairer sex. He is always found in the centre of things. Ray is a real hard worker when there is work to be done.

Camera Shy

GREG HERBACHUCK

Greg can be found near his brother and if you happened to be new to the room you'd be sure you were seeing double. Greg always gets his homework done and we're sure he'll succeed in life.

JIM HERBACHUCK

Jim is very quiet. His homework is always done??? Usually right??? This goes to show two heads are better than one. The chief ambition of our "favourite" teacher is to separate these boys.

JEFFRIE JAMESON

Jeff is our very popular, everlovin' president. Jeff's head has many a ruler and pointer mark embedded in it. Kidding aside, Jeff does a good job representing our room and we wish him future luck in all his endeavours.

CLIFF LOGENBURG

"Harry" has the wonderful ability to be able to turn a fire engine red when he gets excited. Joking with Ken and watching all the girls are his favourite pastimes. Harry also enjoys basketball and volleyball.

KEN MAXOM

"Max" is the centre of activity in our room. Besides sleeping, Max enjoys telling "someone" how he would be tortured if students were ever made equal to teachers?? Ken's secret ambition is to run a torture chamber for teachers.

BOB McKAY

Bob is a strong Castro fan and supporter (because of the beard). His main interest lies in the ranks of the Navy. Bob has often said he favours a seasick life to his school life.

PAT MOORE

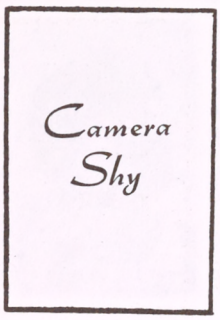

Pat is the quiet type who likes to keep his thoughts to himself. Pat plays the piano and he loves to go fishing (he tells the best fish stories in the class). Pat is well liked by all.

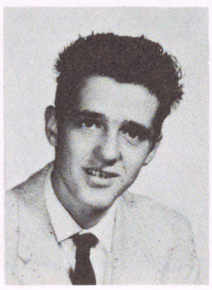

WILLY PLESHNUIK

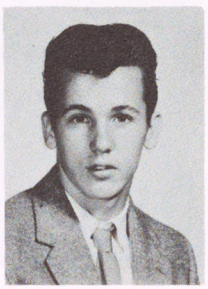

Willy, who is very quiet in all the periods, seems to enjoy maths periods best. Willy also enjoys cars (Hudson's) and his T.V. Will claims to get Channel 12 with the screw on the back of his set.

BILL PHILIPS

Bill comes to life as soon as the teacher leaves the room. Bill can be found talking to Barry or to a certain girl who seems to like our door.

DAVE STATTIN

Dave is one of a few devoted scholars of our "humble" room. Dave gets all his assignments done and as a result gets pretty fair marks. Dave is one of the loyal supporters of our room in sports.

WILLY UNO

Willy can always be found by simply locating Pat. He is usually quiet but comes up with some humorous explanations. His main claim to fame is his ability to speak about oil???

JOHN SHIELDS

John is usually in trouble with all the teachers. He sits at the back of the room and laughs and with a certain Melvin C. After school John literally takes off; but kidding aside John is a good-hearted fellow.

ERIC SMITH

Eric is one of the many sparks that helps to keep our room in merry mirth. He enjoys sports (tiddly-winks, checkers) but plays hockey better. Eric is appreciated by all especially Lorraine!

NORMAN SMITH

Norm is a pretty quiet fellow who is nice to have around. Norm likes volleyball, basketball, floorball and almost every sport. He spends his spare time practising his guitar.

Room 8 - Combined Course

GERALD ANDREWS

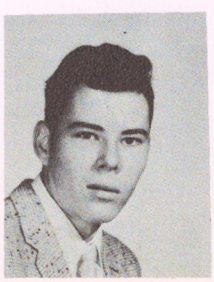

"Joe", the tall dark member of our room, hails from West St. Paul. He was on the curling team, he belongs to army cadets, and loves sports. Sometimes Joe found time to glance at his school work.

LINDA BAKER

Linda participated in inter-suburban basketball and volleyball and was the sports rep. for our room. She likes to bowl and usually gets a high score. Her marks are high and we hope they'll stay that way.

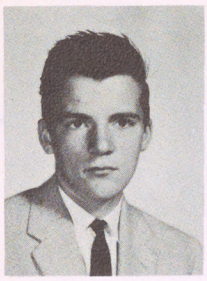

CATHERINE CADMAN

Cathy is the petite Miss of our room. Cathy could be seen hurrying to the washroom between periods with her great pal C. M. and between these dangerous adventures spent her time thinking about her many boyfriends.

FRED DUNA

Fred, the reliable president of Room 8, is our sleeping beauty, who studied all night and slept all day. He was on the Inter-Suburban Soccer team and was also a member of the Rifle Club.

EDWINA FERRIER

Edwina was our most capable Secretary-Treasurer, and got to take care of all the money, (lucky girl!). She plays the organ but claims her most heartfelt occupation is — Boys!!

PAT FOY

Pat was the Newspaper Rep. of the room and was also Room 8's top notch ticket seller. We can all thank Pat for her time-wasted tactics and comments that kept us in stitches (and trouble) all year.

RAY LEWIS

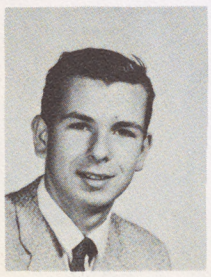

Ray found his record-keeping hard to pass but anything to do with drama came very easily to him. Ray's main interests are complimenting the girls of the room, sports, and drama.

ANDREA McDONALD

This pert young gal is always ready, willing, and able to give a helping hand to anyone. Andrea was a member of the referees, she loves sports and was also a member of the drama club.

ROSE MARYCH

"Dimples" was a member of the school cheer leaders, and was the room's Social Rep. This happy-go-lucky kid always has a twinkle in her eye and a smile for everyone. Rose excels in all sports.

ROBERT CARTER

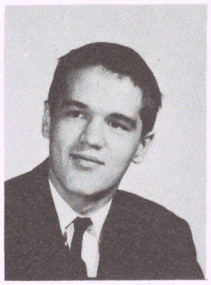

Bob was continuously looking forward to his favorite subject "record keeping" with his favorite teacher "Miss Esser." He was one of the two sports reps. of our room and is interested in every sport.

CYNTHIA CHULY

This sweet kid is Room 8's knock-out. Cyn was frequently seen with a comb and mirror in hand and could always be depended upon to disrupt the room with her constant whispering and giggling.

ELEANOR CORLISS

Eleanor was Room 8's practical joker. She was active in all inter-room sports, loves chewing gum, and of course is interested in boys. Her favorite pastimes are swimming, dancing, and water skiing.

KAREN FUTTY

She's a quiet person, and we wouldn't know she was in the room if she didn't stay away sometimes. Karen hopes to capture a certain Don, and become the chief cook and bottle washer.

JOAN HERBUS

Joan was Room 8's Einstein. Less than 98 just wouldn't do. Joan was one of the room's yearbook reps. and always could be depended upon to help you out with the homework you didn't do.

PHILLIS HIMELFARB

Phillis usually comes to school with the latest fashions and a pleasing smile. Most of her time in school was spent giggling and talking to Ricki but of course she thought about school work too.

KEN MENZIE

Hup! Two! Three! Four! Nope, wrong guess! Not "occupation G.I. blues, but occupation, H.M.C.S. Seasick blues". Ken belongs to the Sea Cadets. Besides being 'at sea' most of the time, Ken enjoys bothering girls.

CHRISTINE MOROZ

When she was small her thoughts were of toys, toys, toys, now she thinks only of boys, boys, boys. Her favourite pastime during English period is looking out the open door of Room 7.

MORTON NAIMAN

"Mort" was Room 8's favourite guy. His interests lie in sports and music. Most of his time was devoted to his studies though and usually he popped up with good marks.

BETTY ANN OTTENBREIT
She's a "picture snatcher" in her spare time, but plans to be a nurse when she leaves school. If you ask her nicely, she might combine her talents and take a snapshot of your appendix.

GLORIA POLLOCK
Gloria is an import from Room 8. She's been having difficulties with some of her subjects, especially "shorthand." She gets pretty disgusted when she hears her final mark. Keep trying, Gloria.

RICKI STERN
This gal is really on the beam, coming to school every day with a new hair-do and the latest clothes styles. Ricki belongs to the U.S.Y. and her interests centre around dancing and boys.

CECILY WERNER
"Lee," as she prefers to be called, was one of the room's more mischievous members. Lee's main ambition is to keep the male population of the school guessing but we all know there's a special guy.

GLADYS VAN DE KEERE
This cute kid was our capable Vice-president. Gladys' interests lie in sports, dancing, good marks and of course Fridays. She was a very active member of our class and took part in all inter-room sports.

BETSY VAN ELLENBERG
Contrary to popular belief, Betsy doesn't have a hot temper to match her auburn hair. Betsy was our Red Cross Rep., enjoys music and sports, and was usually giggling during Mr. Watson's "les leçons de français."

ARLYNE WALSH
Arlyne was active in all inter-room sports. She was a member of the Dance Club, and excels in singing and drama. Arlyne's main interests are boys and they just couldn't do without her.

Room 5 - Grade X - Matriculation

BONNIE ADAMS
Bonnie's ambition is to reach five feet, but the boys tell her otherwise. Bonnie is in the Dancing Club, and participates in sports. Bonnie's laugh is famous, as is her temper during class meetings.

RUTH ALBERTS
Ruth is the student with the "Bette Davis" smile and the toothpaste teeth. Besides being pretty, Ruth has a wonderful personality. She doesn't do badly in her school work either.

PAM BAKER
Pam is the W.K.C.I. Freshie Queen. Her "different" hairdos are famous in our school. She belongs to the dancing club and is on Room 5's volleyball team. Pam collects rings and 6 foot fellows?

MARLENE DAROWAY

Marlene belongs to the camera, dancing and ham radio clubs, and is a valued member of each of them. In spite of her many extra-curricular activities, her marks are among the highest in the room.

ALIX FILKOW

Alix came over from Jefferson this year, and has become a valuable asset to the school. She belongs to the drama and the dancing clubs. Alix is an excellent student and achieves high marks.

SHARON FINKLE

Sharon is the girl who collects 99% in geometry. She also accumulates "cousins." Sharon is a hard worker and earns good marks. Her hobbies include drama and dancing.

ELAINE GROSH

Elaine is the geometry genius of Room 5. When not amazing everyone with her skill, she can be found running around the halls with a "dummy" in her hand. Elaine, you see, is the assistant production manager of Sol Ortus.

DONNA HANSON

Donna is one of the best members of the sports teams at W.K.C.I. She is on the inter-room and inter-suburban volleyball teams. Donna is a hard worker and earns good marks. She is friendly and is well-liked, especially by the "fellers."

MARSHA HARRIS

Marsha is the tiny, fun-loving type. Her reward for hard work is good marks. Marsha's wardrobe never fails to amaze us (we're green with envy!) Marsha belongs to the Dance Club and B.B.G.

MAUREEN BLYTH

Maureen is one of the top players on the inter-suburban team. Besides her active participation in sports, Maureen belongs to the "high marks" club. She is a wonderful girl to know.

CHERYL COHEN

Cheryl spends the day smiling away. Her mysterious smiles cause the class to wonder if she's figuring out algebra or deciding what to wear on Saturday night. Cheryl gets good marks, and succeeds in everything she attempts.

SHARON COHEN

Sharon is one of the pretty members of the W.K.C.I. student body. She's a good worker and receives high marks. Sharon is a terrific girl, and is popular with everyone including Marv S. Good luck, Sharon.

HEATHER FISHER

Heather belongs to the ham radio, camera, bowling, and dancing clubs. She is a good worker, and gets high marks. Heather is a warm, friendly person and is very popular.

GERRY GILLMAN

Gerry is the girl with the eternal sense of humour. She is always keeping the class in stitches, when not laughing at her own jokes. Seriously, Gerry is a conscientious student and a wonderful person. Best of everything, Gerry.

ROCHELLE GINSBURG

Rochelle is a bright, friendly member of our class. She is good in school, and manages to be equally competent in everything she tries. Rochelle belongs to the camera club, and is a true shutter-ling.

FERNE HOLDEN

Ferne is Room 5's Red Cross Rep. She is active in all sports, and is a valuable asset to the teams. Ferne is a good student, and a terrific girl.

MARLENE KOWALUK

Marlene is a quiet girl who amuses everyone with her subtle sense of humour. She achieves good marks by working hard. Marlene is warm and friendly to all, and is popular with everyone.

BONNIE KESTON

Bonnie is a member of the Camera Club, the dancing group, drama, and the ham radio club. She is a hard worker, and for her efforts receives high standings. Bonnie is a happy, friendly girl, and a popular member of the student body.

JO-ANNE LATREMOUILLE

"Libby" is the strawberry-blonde bundle of wit of Room 5. Her activities include dancing, photography, volleyball and basketball, and Bill. Jo-Anne is a good student and a terrific kid.

LILLIAN LUTACK

Lillian is a recent import to our school, and is a very welcome one at that. She is active in sports, and also is a great side-line cheerer. Lillian does well in school and is liked by everybody.

DONNA MAHYLE

Donna joined the Ham Radio Club to learn something (so she says), but the fellows tell us differently. Donna also belongs to the camera and dancing clubs. She is liked by all at W.K.C.I.

MARILYN PEARCE

Marilyn is the Freshie Princess of W.K.C.I. this year. She is the secretary-treasurer of the Dancing Club, and is active in sports. Her hobby is collecting boys and white cars. She's a terrific kid.

JOAN PRESCOTT

Joan is a member of the room volleyball team and is a top player. She is a good student, as shown by her high marks. Joan has a terrific sense of humour and is popular with everyone.

SUSAN PROUTEN

Susan is the sports rep. of Room 5. She is on both the room and inter-suburban volleyball teams. We know her popularity and wonderful personality will help her to succeed in anything she chooses.

RONNA SILVERBURG

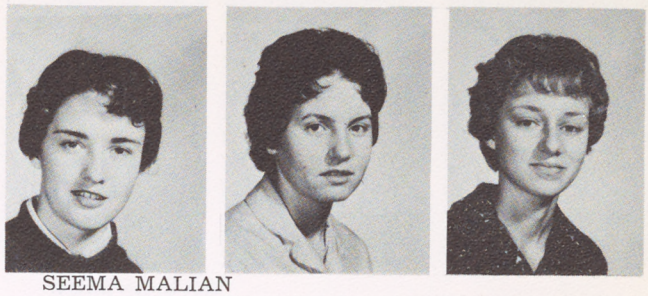

Ronnie is the charming witty sophistiquette of Room 5. Her activities outside of school hours include drama, dancing, yearbook, Mr. H., and bowling. Despite Ronnie's "frivolity" during classes, "Socrates," as she is known, maintains a high average.

BEVERLY SISSKIND

Bev is the assistant editor of the Sol Ortus. Bev always has a grin on her face, and has a good word for everyone. Her dream is to become a psychiatrist and so between periods she analyzes the teachers.

DALE SMUTYLO

Dale's attacks of hysteria occur frequently during every Latin class. She belongs to the camera and dancing clubs, and is attempting the overthrow of the constitution so that she can become president of the radio group.

SEEMA MALIAN

Seema is on the yearbook staff, and belongs to the dancing, debating, and drama clubs. Seema prides herself on having her work done up-to-the-minute "before" the minute, and for this she receives high marks.

DANA MARNER

Dana is Miss M's pride and joy. She is a terrific bowler, is good in school, and receives high marks. The contents of Dana's purse never cease to amaze her classmates. Her winsome smile cannot be resisted.

TRUDY MILLER

Trudy is one of the pretty girls of Room 5. We predict that Trudy will go far in whatever field she chooses. Her popularity and ability to make friends will help her on the road to success.

HEATHER PARKER

Heather, the author of these epics is in ham radio, drama, dancing, and debating clubs. She can always be seen at school parties with her faithful companion, her camera. Her interests also include music, fellers, and fun.

CONNIE POLSKY

Connie is an avid sports fan, and is on the room volleyball team. She is one of the real popular fun-loving kids at the Collegiate, and her friendliness and warmth earn her many friends.

JACQUELINE ROSENSTOCK

Jackie is Room 5's secretary-treasurer. Besides her job as balance-budgeter, Jackie belongs to the Dancing Club and is on the yearbook staff. She attains excellent marks and is famous for her sense of humour

BARBARA WINCURE

"Bugs" is the black-haired blue-eyed sprite of dynamite. Barb's marks are high, and so is her popularity rating. Her hobbies are piano, Fords and Ronnie. Good luck in the future, Barb.

FRANCES ZITSOW

Frances is one of the genii from Jefferson. Her extra-curricular activities include the Drama Club, U.N. Club, debating group and B.B.C. Despite Frances' frustrating questions, she gets high marks. She is liked by everyone.

SANDRA ZUCKERMAN

Sandra's great passion is the theatre. Sandra is in the W.K.C.I. Drama Club, is a member of the Inter-High Drama School, and has participated in many local productions. Sandy is a great kid to have around.

Room 3 - Grade X - Matriculation

LINDA BARKER

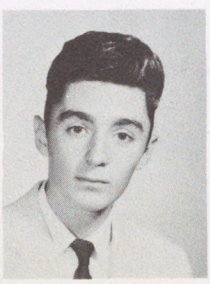

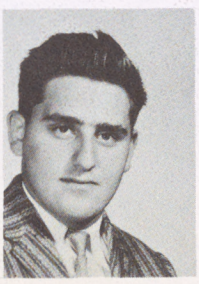

Linda, a petite brunette, is known for getting detention from a certain Mr. B. She takes it in stride but others don't see it so. She is a little girl with a broad smile for everyone.

BRIAN BARNES

Brian is a member of our class who believes in the motto "Silence Is Golden." He surprises us greatly with the questions he throws at us when he takes over French class. He is quiet and liked by all.

MARSHALL BERGER

Marshall is our mathematician who will probably end up as a musician. His hobbies range from football to woodcraft. Marshall's ambition is to attend U. and with his efforts we're sure he will do it.

GORDON ANAKA

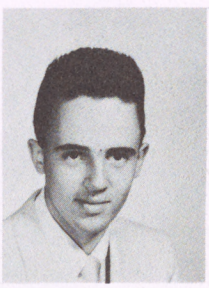

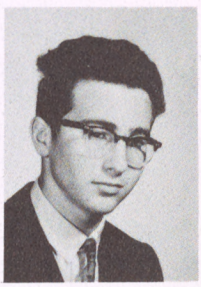

Don is our 6'2" green-eyed basketball fiend. Gordon is quiet and well-liked by all who know him. He is active sportswise and also participates in Inter-room games. He intends to attend U.

FRED ARNOLD

Fred is an avid member of Room 3's scientific trio in Mr. H.'s class. He is a "very" agreeable person; he can be heard saying "true" after any statement. He plans to take mechanical engineering at the university.

GARY BACHMAN

Gary is an active member of our class — active because he is never still. Gary is liked by all who know him, especially the "OPPOSITE SEX." He hopes to attend U. also.

NORMAN BUTTON

Norm is one boy in our room of many who does not know his books from a certain girl's. Seriously, Norman is a pal to all and a good sport. We know he will succeed at his pace.

JIM CHAGNON

Jim is the wild saxophone player you heard at our Freshie Dance. His interests vary from the sax to sports. Jim wants to attend U. and take a Science course and also wants to continue playing his sax.

GARRY CHOCHINOV

Our witty genius quote . . . . . Hopes to become a teach . . . . . unquote. He'll find this hard to accomplish since his interests vary from cars, soft music, and girls to the Red Cross and United Nations.

DAVE GREEN
Dave is our tall, dark, and handsome Romeo. He is famous for his flashing smile to the girl whose homework he has borrowed. Seriously, Dave is a swell guy and will succeed in life's long tour.

JERRY HAMOVICH
Jerry enjoys making up Maths questions to stump Mr. J. Jerry's hobbies are golf, curling and hockey. He foresees himself as a dentist, and heaven help his victims. Seriously, Jerry is a swell person.

WILLIAM HARRISON
Bill is a young man with a big future. He is going to be a teacher to prove that teachers can be nice. Bill is our class comedian and our room would not be the same without him.

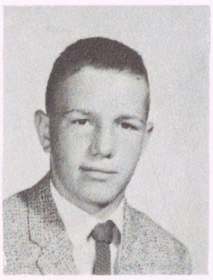

Camera Shy

RAY HUYCKE
Ray is a muscle bound athlete of Room 3. He is our president and a fine one at that. Ray's marks are average. He is another candidate for university and another football player-to-be.

DALE KANE
Dale is a quiet and attentive class member whose main ambition is to finish high school. This will give him a chance to grow that one more required inch to qualify for the R.C.M.P.

WARNER KREMPIN
Warner is our tall blond basketball player who hopes to attend U, and to become a football player. Warner's marks are average. He is quiet in every class except geography; then all six feet of him are heard.

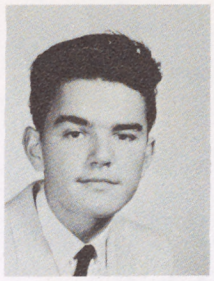

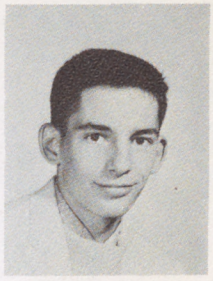

GLEN McCUSKEE
Glen is a victim of Mr. S. He seems to have a yen for teachers to pick on him. Also a Mr. H. gives him a lot of trouble, but, we stand by Glen and he usually comes through ahead.

HILDA MENZEMER
Hilda is our star-to-be. She has a throat like a songbird, is president of our choir and secretary of our room. Even though she is quite busy, she still holds good marks.

PHYLISS POPOWICH
Phyliss is a member of Room 3's hen party and always has her homework done. Phyliss has no fear of insects as she hopes to become a technician in a lab. equipped with handsome male counterparts.

BURT HARVEY
Burt is the tall young man with the brush cut, who may be seen filling Room 3's doorway at noon and four. Burt is interested in swimming and skiing. He has intentions of becoming a principal.

GREG HILDERMAN
Greg is a bit of humanity who takes pleasure in getting Mr. H.'s goat. He is known for his head of "long" blonde hair. His main ambition is to get out of grade 10. We're sure he will this year.

SAMUEL HOFFER
Sam's favorite subject is geography. He is a junior astronomist and also likes to play rugby. Sam hopes to obtain a degree in Law. We wish him the best of luck.

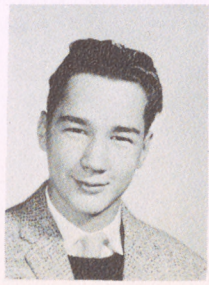

KEN LEE
Ken is a swell guy who holds 99.99% of our school's freckles. Ken is a friend to all as we can prove. His ambition is to make a million dollars in a hurry, and we hope he will.

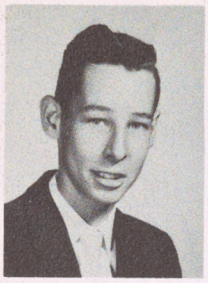

MARGARET MacPHERSON
Margaret is our little blonde whose interests are in records and in the opposite sex. It seems Marg isn't afraid of bloodshed as she hopes to become a nurse, without doubt in a men's ward.

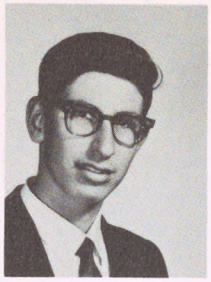

JOSEPH MARYCH
Joe is our only athlete who can jump over a chair, onto a desk and off again without stumbling. Joe is broadminded as his interests vary from girls to girls. He plans to join the Air Force.

Camera Shy

STAN SCOBLE

Stan is our talented genius who totes a leather briefcase around, containing what???? Could it be his lunch? In spite of all, Stan is a swell guy. Our room would not be the same without him.

GAYE SMORDIN

Gaye is another of Room 3's hen party. She is a talented piano player and gets along with practically everyone. Her interests are in music and boys. She plans to go to U. and become a physio-therapist.

MICHAEL TOWE

Mike is the sporting type, as his interests lie in fishing, hunting, and golf. Mike plans to follow his father's footsteps and become a dentist. This gives Room 3 another professional man.

HILARY WIGNALL

Hilary is the leader of our six hen party. Hilary enjoys teaching but she seems to be up in the clouds as of yet because she'd rather be an airline hostess. She'll qualify.

Thanks . . .

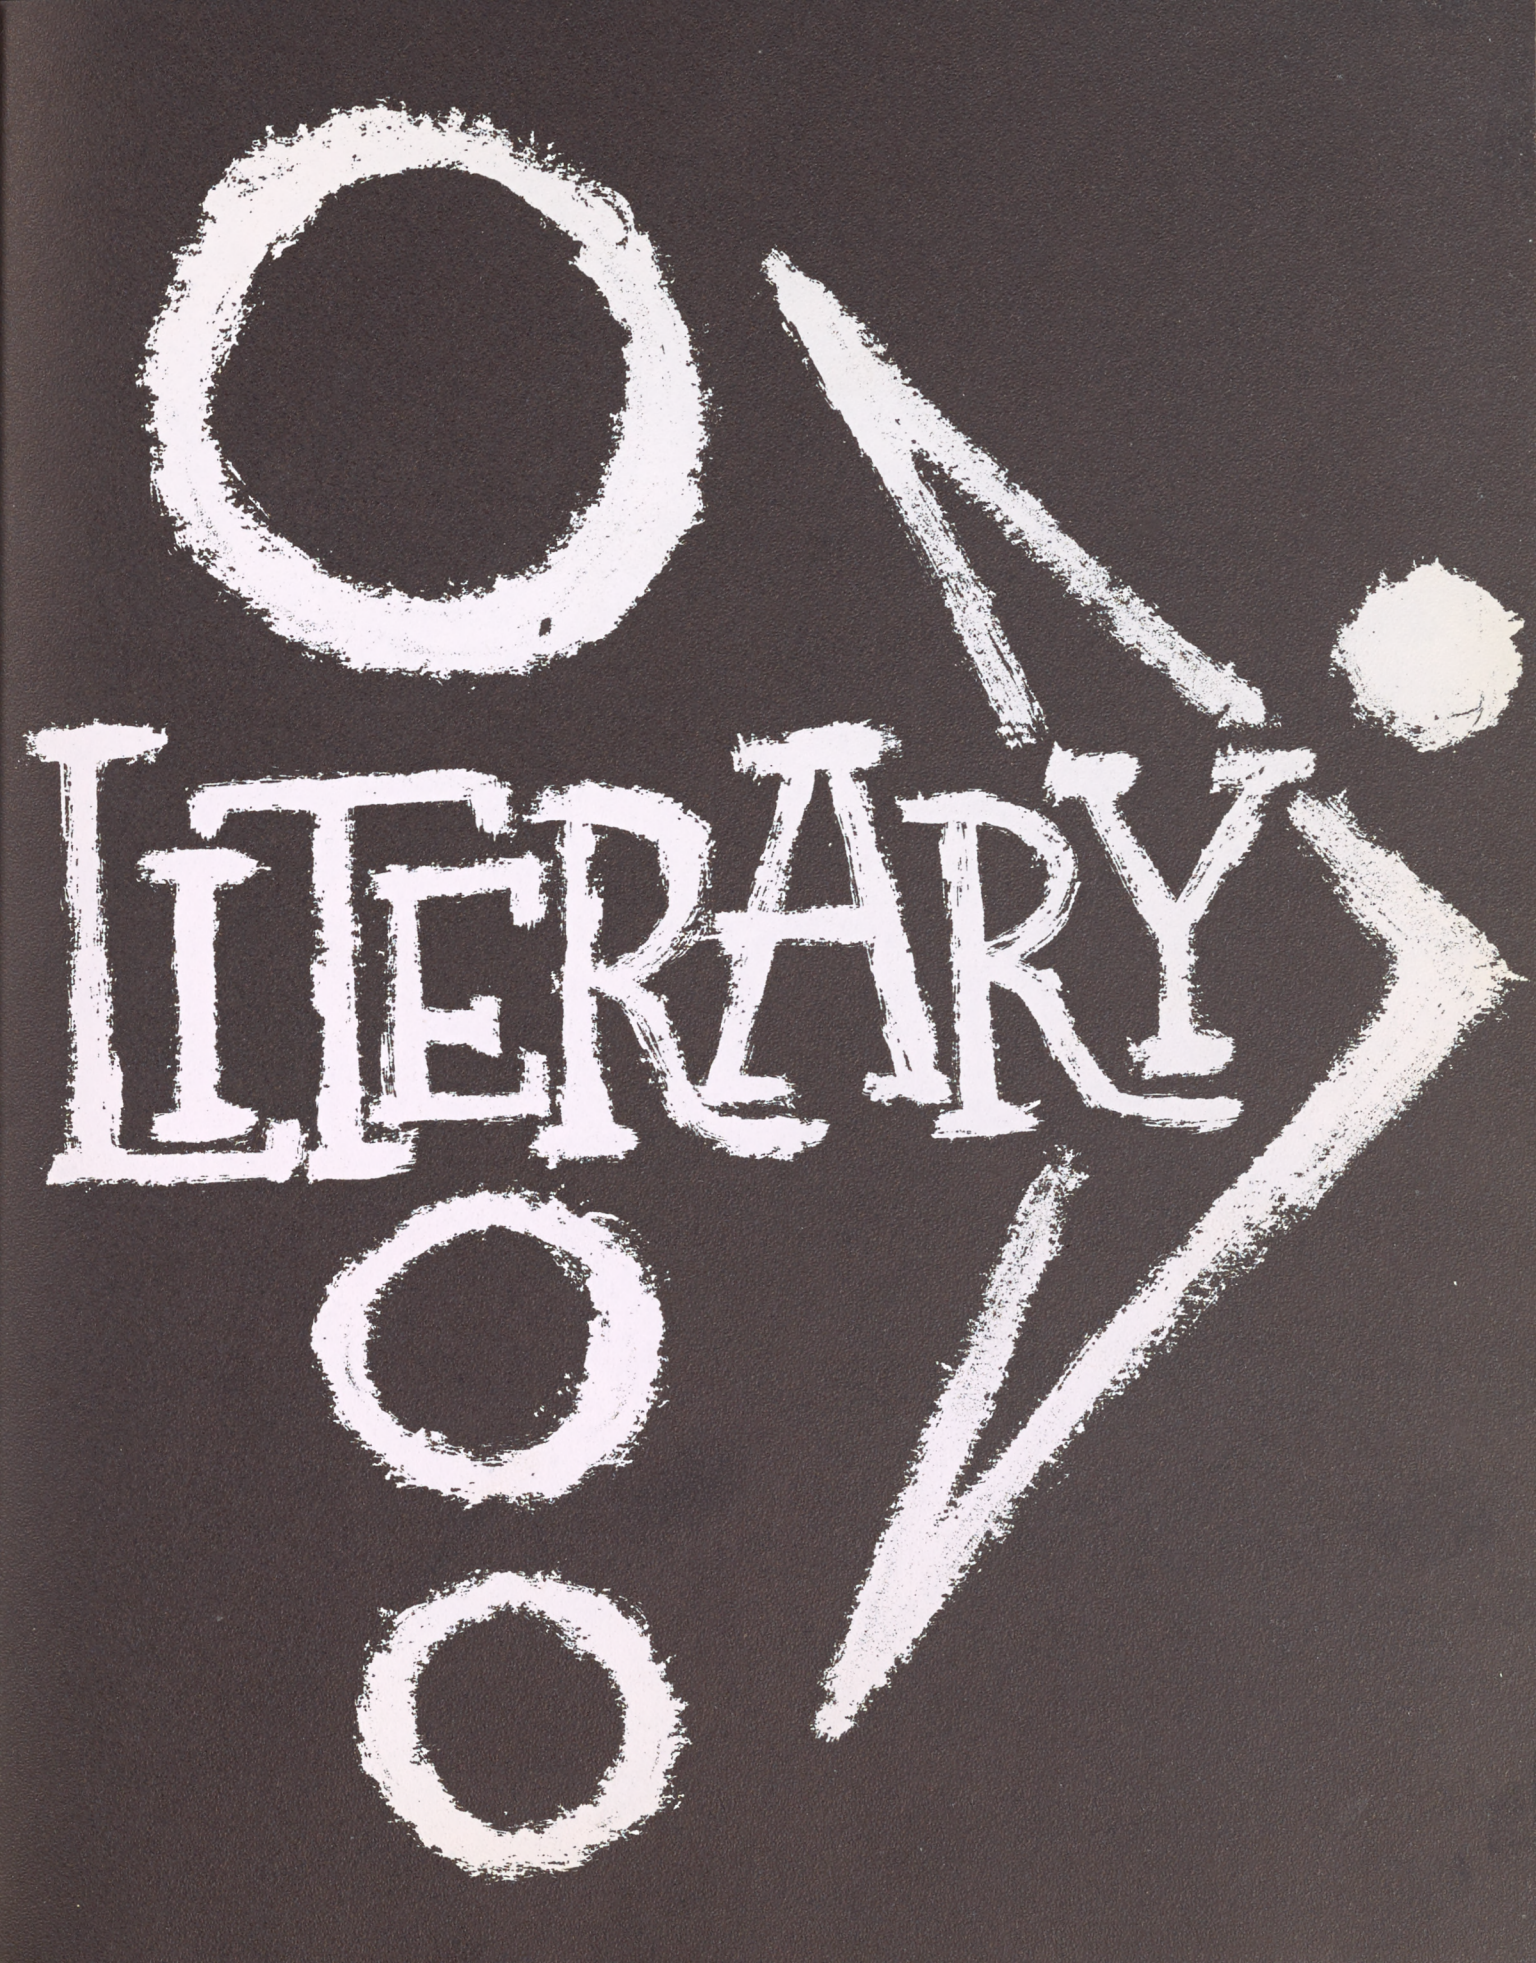

MR. WATSON

Special thanks goes out to Mr. Watson for all the help and guidance he has given us throughout the year. Without his calm, simple solutions and inspiring words, this year book would not have been possible.

MISS McCRUM

Throughout the years, Miss McCrum has offered her guidance and assistance in Literature and English Composition. The students of W.K.C.I. express their gratitude for all her help in the past.

Thanks for judging the Literary Contest, Miss McCrum!

The Four Freedoms

In future, at least for security, we look forward to the maintenance and continuity of four freedoms which we have enjoyed for centuries. What are these freedoms? The first is freedom of speech and expression. Without a doubt, people everywhere should have the right to form their own ideas, arrive at their own conclusions, and voice their own opinions without hindrance or restraint, control or repression. Although the elimination of this right is a despotic restriction, nevertheless many countries restrict the press from publishing opinions without government interference or censorship, and disallow assemblies and the freedom to discuss public affairs. Indeed, we in Canada should realize how fortunate we are in that our adoption of this freedom exempts us from an imprisonment, by government intervention, of the communication of our thoughts and our feelings.

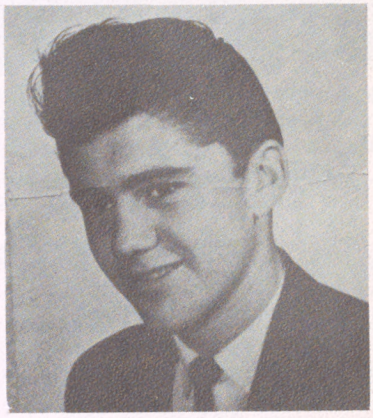

The second is freedom of religion—the freedom of every person to worship God in his own way. All men must be able to belong to whatever religion they choose without the fear of severe punishment which formerly prevailed. Because religion, the belief in a divine power, is so touchy a subject, Canada has adopted not only freedom of religion, but also the principle of separation of Church and State, so that no religion has any special influence on the government. Thus, in Canada, we enjoy and appreciate this privilege.

The third is freedom from want. In spite of man's immense technical resources, two - thirds of the world's population are seriously undernourished. Surely these people have every right of immunity to the threat of destitution and poverty. This freedom, taken for granted by the majority of the Canadian population who are relieved of the fear of want by the various social securities, is a significant essential in bringing security and stability to our world. We must strive to make freedom from want an effective worldwide reality.

The fourth is freedom from fear which has not yet been achieved fully. Although all Canadian citizens have the protection of a police force and the security provided by the punishment of criminals, they have not complete freedom from fear. The international arms race feeds fear and suspicion. It is generally believed that complete disarmament on an international scale preventing the possibility of aggression by any nation would reduce this fear. Thus, the problem of freedom from fear remains to be solved.

The four freedoms, freedom of speech, freedom of religion, freedom from want, and freedom from fear are not only privileges of democracies, but also essentials which men everywhere should be willing to fight and goals towards which they should constantly strive. In order to ensure security and stability for the future, the four freedoms must be maintained and strengthened.

Summer's End

The air is crisp with the promise of a long, cold hard winter. The sky seems to be pushing downward, making it hard to breathe and difficult to move quickly. The summer had gone rapidly, leaving only a few happy memories to help add a little warmth to the long winter nights. The trees along Broadway Avenue have already given up their leaves to the prairie winds that strip the earth bare every fall.

A few short weeks ago, the green grass, the many colored flowers, and the blue sky of mid-summer have made this one of the most beautiful sites in the city of Winnipeg. Looking west to Memorial Boulevard, the Manitoba Legislative Buildings stood like a castle in the midst of the green expanse stretching out in all four directions around them.

Crowning this architectural masterpiece, the statue of a boy, cast in gold, stood holding a shaft of wheat, the symbol of the prairies. The well kept lawns around the buildings were evidence of the prairie people's love of the beauties of nature.

Now as the fall winds push back the summer's glory, the stone of the Legislative Buildings blend with the dull grey of the western sky. Traffic moves slowly, the people of a growing city are heading home after another day's work. Some run to catch crowded buses that push their way along the busy streets, while others turn towards the parking lots only to find their cars cold and slow starting.

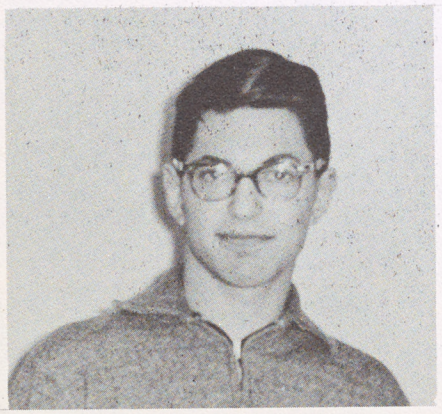

Within a week or so the snow will come, bringing with it traffic tie-ups and an atmosphere filled with the sound of automobile horns and the angry voices of motorists.

Some people will walk home. These are the people who find that fall with all its discomforts, has a rare kind of beauty; the vivid colours of fallen leaves, the yellowing grass, the sounds of migrating birds going south for the winter months, in large flocks or in pairs.

With the arrival of the frost, the official end of summer, and holidays, is declared. For some it is a relief to be back at work, away from the noisy beaches, back to the city with all its imaginary peace and quiet. At this time of the year some look forward to two or three days in a cold, damp marsh, with only a shot-gun for companionship. Perhaps it brings the promise of winter fun, skiing, skating, tobogganing, or maybe just an old-fashioned snow ball fight. To the youngsters of this great nation, it means a new school year, with new teachers and friends.

But regardless of the winter's promise, one tends to look back at the summer months with sorrow; sorrow in seeing the end of sunshine, of days at the beach, of picnics with friends and relatives. One realizes that for the next six months his time will be spent not with the beautiful maidens of summer but with the bitter old man of winter.

Silence

Silence is the music of the gods. It is in an atmosphere of silence that man's thoughts turn inward to contemplation of his own existence. When one's eyes are closed, silence is equivalent to solitude. No longer is one plagued by the shriek of automobile tires, by the thud of an army of feet, by the muffled thunder of airplanes and the clatter of typewriters, by the sounds of restless motion and the trivia of the impermanent humdrum world; one tends, instead, to dwell on Beauty, on Goodness, on Truth, on the purpose of life. Thus, the solitude of silence divorces from the mind those petty doubts and ceaseless cares of everyday life, and floods it with the conception of the beauty, the grandeur, and the tragedy which makes human life so sacred. And then, one may look to the silent stars above, and muse that one is just a speck of dust dwelling briefly on a watery, germ-infested rock, coursing at breakneck speed through endless space and through aeonic time.

It is only in the lonely world of silence that one perceives the existence of God. It has been said by many great essayists and philosophers, among them Plato and Montaigne, that philosophy is a preparation for death. In the dialogue Crito, Socrates speaks of death as the freeing of the soul from the body, and argues that the purpose of philosophy is to deny the pleasures of the body in order to further the search for Truth and Goodness. Death is the final and the most permanent silence. Thus does silence free the soul from the body.

Shakespeare recognized the intimate connection between silence and inner contemplation. In Macbeth the protagonist is plagued with the knowledge of his evil deed by night, and Lady Macbeth keeps light by her always to dispel the gloom and the solitude of night.

The world of silence bestows upon man the realization of his utter insignificance. When he dwells on thoughts inspired by silence, he becomes a better man: more humble, kinder, more forgiving, more hesitant. Hesitancy is the beginning of philosophy, and charity its end.

The hermit flees the restlessness of the sea of sounds in the city, and seeks, instead, the soothing silence of a Shangri-La. When he returns from his idyllic paradise, he is more deeply conscious of that curious blend of arrogance and humility which is the greatness of man.

FRANCES ZITSOW

My Future

"Mirror, mirror on the wall,
What will the future hold for all;
And especially me?"

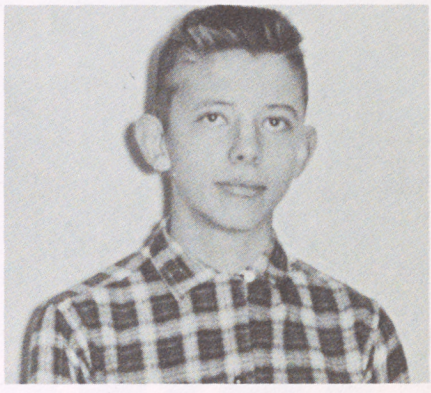

Often, when I am in a pensive mood, I think about my future and what it holds in store for me. I try to visualize the days ahead but find it extremely difficult, as I do not even know what my name will be, let alone my way of life. Ten years from now what will I be, where will I be, and who will I be? My name may be Miss Zitsow, but again, it may be Mrs. Jones. I may be a teacher, a housewife, a stenographer, or a social worker. My abode may be in Winnipeg, or Vancouver, Washington, or Paris. One cannot see into the future.

Unfortunately, modern man has not the gift of prophecy. Complications, whether they be personal matters, international affairs, happy occasions or tragedies, may arise in the future which will alter one's manner of living, plans and ideals. During times of war, poverty and recession, how can one achieve his ambitions? Unexpectedly, one falls in love, gets married and has children. This, also, may diminish one's future objectives. I cannot see into the vast world of tomorrow but I can dream.

My dream for the future is ambitious but it will not be easy to achieve. Ten years from now I would like to have an office of my own with a shingle on the door reading "F. Zitsow, M.D." Yes, I want to be a doctor, a general practitioner, preventing, curing and treating diseases. I have no desire to become famous, but I would like to be a doctor, devoting my time and knowledge restoring health and happiness to the more unfortunate people. My medical instruments will be my means of giving something to those who have lacked many of the opportunities which I have had. I would like to be known not only as F. Zitsow, M.D. but also as a friend to humanity.

The future is not ours, but if I am of sound mind and able body, I will do my utmost to make this wonderful dream come true.

Speedy Transportation

In an American newspaper, circa 1900, there was an article which said, "Though the automobile has not been widely put to use so far, the time will come when almost everyone will have a car. The idea of soft, rubber tires moving swiftly and noiselessly over our streets is almost too good to be true." The article is half right. The day has come when almost everyone has a car. Cars also move swiftly, perhaps far too swiftly. A few months ago, on the salt-flats of Utah, a man travelled in a car which was powered by a jet motor, and reached the incredible speed of five hundred miles per hour. The man was killed when the car, which seemed to have a mind of its own, turned a half-somersault, and landed jarringly upside-down. This illustrates the utter tragedy, and the stupid uselessness of travelling so fast. Why travel five hundred miles per hour on salt-flats when you can kill yourself just as easily by travelling only ninety miles per hour on an ordinary highway? Still, manufacturers advertise cars that have "new engines for maximum power", "new, streamlined design for more speed with less gas", and "new, go-GO fuels". This excess of speed and power in cars is ridiculous, yet people buy them.

Of course, speed is often advantageous, but why put all the power in cars? Jets are far safer at high speeds, and more useful for long distances. For short distances, why hurry anyway? The top speed for a jet is well over a thousand miles per hour, which is a far cry from the slow little putterings of the awkward bi-planes. Yet, "Mach 2" is still not fast enough for some people. These speed-greedy persons look forward to the day when huge inter-continental rockets will be used for baggage transportation and swift passenger service across continents and oceans. Leave rockets for inter-planetary and inter-stellar travel. Only the enormous distances in space warrant rockets. It is just too far to walk.

Eighteen

Yesterday it was but a dream
Today it is reality:
Tomorrow it will live only in her memory.
She dreams of
A love that must remain untold,
A secret to be buried with the years.

This eighteen's world is
Shimmering, opalescent and almost tangible.
But will she ever find
This hidden, elusive beauty
As she sees it now,
Orchid-like, yet wild.

So many dreams this eighteen dreams,
Tossed by
The fury of emotions: misery,
Bewilderment, disbelief and anger.
Still let her dreams go on,
For this brief year!

With Me He Stands

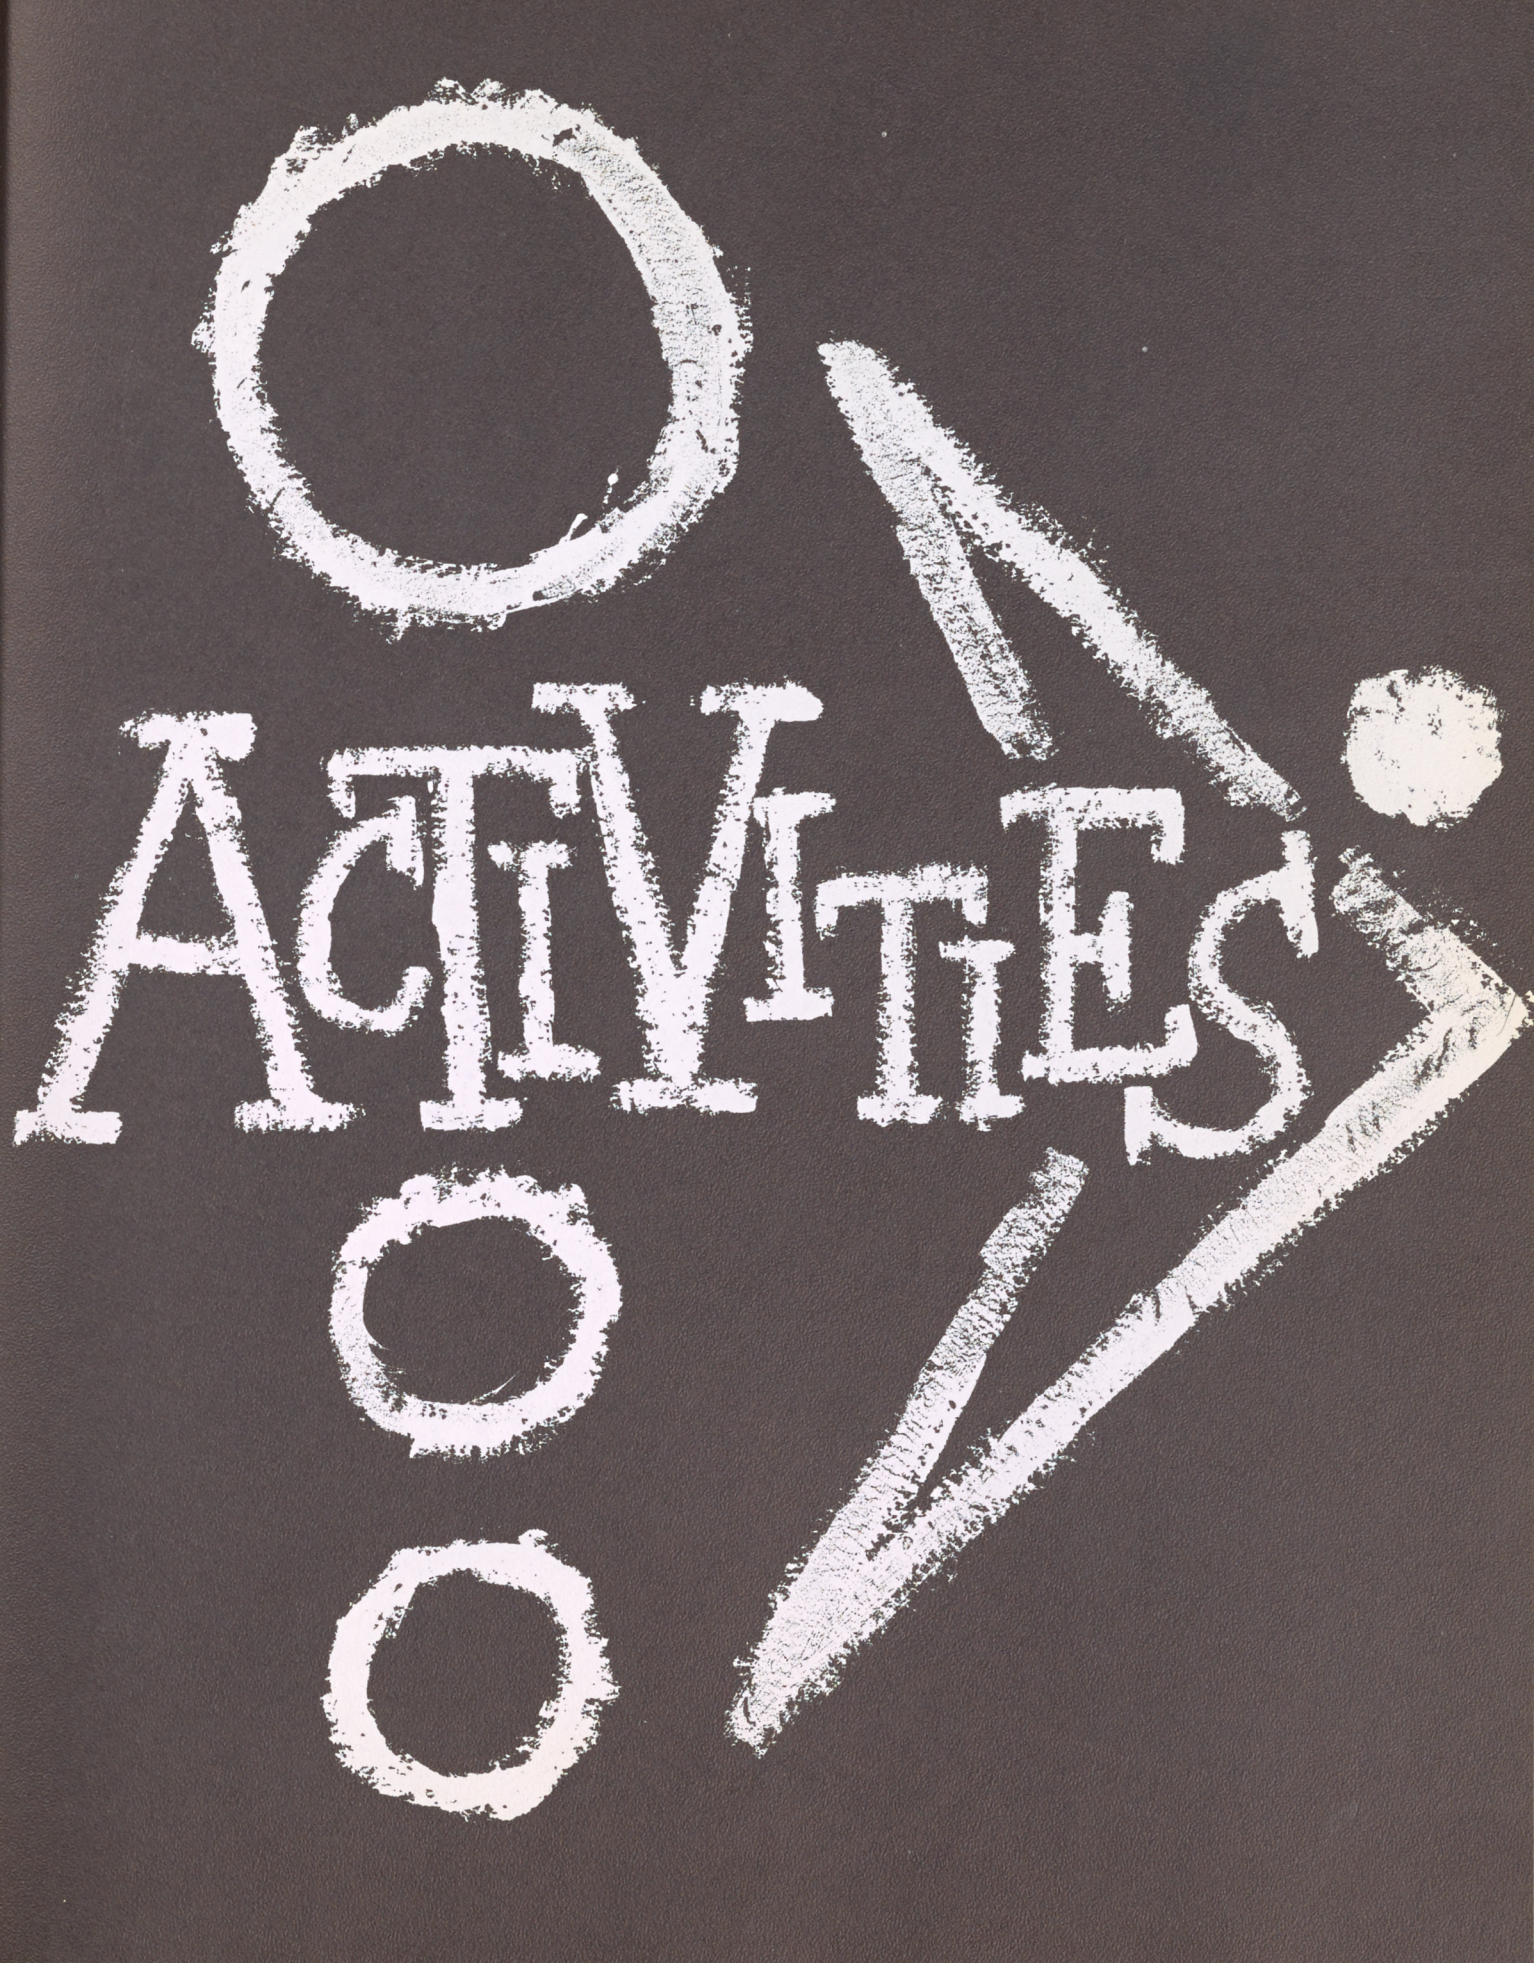

Me thought I saw a lovely bird
Quite the loveliest bird was he.
But when I looked again, I found
He hid his breast from me.

Me thought I saw a glorious flower,
The most glorious flower, she
But when I reached to pluck her down
Withered she would be.

Me thought I saw a joyful child
The most joyful child was he.
But when I looked, the tears would flow
And he turned his head from me.

Me thought my life was at an-end
I looked and looked for God to see.
When I thought he too had gone
He beckoned there, to me.

CHESS CLUB

The chess club this year was attended by a small number of players. Under the leadership of president Arthur Olin and vice-president Gary Rubin, the present Manitoba Chess Champion, the club placed third in the first annual High School Chess Tournament and defeated teams from Gordon Bell and St. John's Tech.

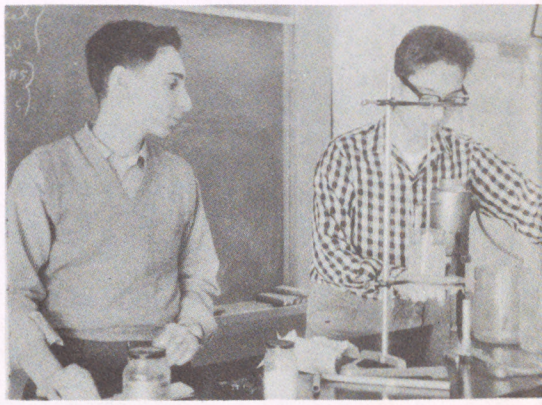

DEBATING CLUB

This year the Debating Club proved to be an extremely interesting and informative club at W.K.C.I. President David Ostrow and Secretary Carol Litwin were assisted by staff adviser Mr. Giesbrecht. Numerous varied topics were introduced to the club in the form of discussions or debates. In February Calvin Gutkin and Carol Litwin participated in a debate against a team from Gordon Bell High School.

CAMERA CLUB

Also in its second year at W.K.C.I., the Camera Club has provided an interesting curriculum for its members. Under the guidance of staff advisers, Mr. Watson and Mr. Taylor, the members received instruction in printing, developing, and enlarging photos, as well as in specialized fields of photography. This year, plans for the establishment of a darkroom were put into effect.

SCIENCE CLUB

The Science Club this year served as a forum where would-be scientists planned, discussed, and performed their experiments. A few experiments worked—most didn't—but the pungent odour of that little purple cloud of iodine vapour will long be remembered. One of our members, Peter Johnson, won top honours in the Manitoba Science Fair with his experiment on the freezing of living tissue.

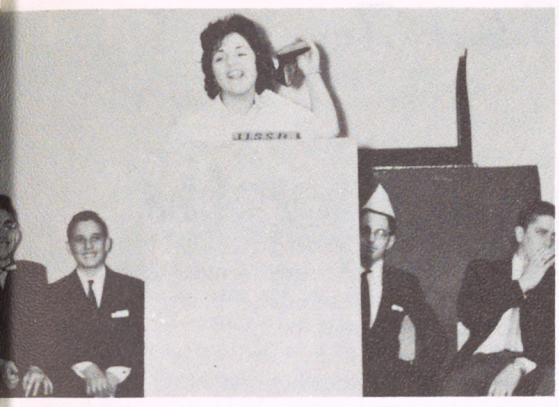

HAM RADIO CLUB

The Ham Radio Club, which is in its second year of existence at W.K.C.I., continues to increase in popularity. Percy Lerner is President of the club and Mr. Taylor is the staff adviser. During the course of the year, the members have learned and practised code and theory instruction and the regulations of ham radio. The club hopes to institute a radio station at W.K.C.I.

I.S.C.F. CLUB

A club which was received with enthusiasm was the Inter School Christian Fellowship Club. This club, a part of a large movement, was open to members of all denominations. The aim of the club was to know Christ, and to make Christ known to others. Bill Fritz, the club president, was aided by staff adviser, Mr. Isaacs.

UNITED NATIONS CLUB

Every Monday at noon, the various controversial issues which face the U.N. are discussed in the newly-formed United Nations Club. This year's stimulating advisers are Mr. Jewitt and Mr. Partridge. In March, a mock General Assembly was presented to the student body. In April, David Ostrow and Beverly Sisskind represented W.K.C.I. at the Rotary International sponsored M.U.N.A.

RIFLE CLUB

The thirty-six members of the increasingly popular Rifle Club fired each week at McGregor Armories under the able direction of Mr. Battershill. The aim of the club was to promote interest and knowledge among high school students in rifle skills. Late in the year, the members competed for the Dominion Marksman gold, silver, and bronze awards.

BRIDGE CLUB

Another welcome addition to the roster of clubs was the Bridge Club. Every Friday at noon, under the direction of Mr. Holdaway, the club members learned all the fundamentals and skills of bridge. Tournaments were sponsored among the members to stimulate competition. The executive of the club included Allen Sampson as President and Gordon Margolese as Secretary-Treasurer.

DANCE CLUB

After months of anticipation, the Dance Club made its return appearance at 'K.C.I. Fifty-five eager members, including Brian Litman as President, turned out to learn the intricate steps of the cha-cha, tango, waltz, swing and madison. Under the direction of the Penguin Dance Studio, dance steps were taught at the school on Mondays and were perfected at the studio on Wednesdays.

School Tea

The Annual West Kildonan Collegiate Tea and Open House was held on Wednesday, November 16, 1960 from 2:00 to 4:30 and from 7:00 to 9:00. As in former years, an inter-room ticket competition was held and tremendous effort was put forth by the entire student body.

Candy made by Home Economics' girls was sold to the students on Wednesday morning. At the tea, many of the boys willingly served as ushers. During the afternoon and evening, the teachers remained in their home rooms, this enabling the parents to acquaint themselves with them.

A Home Cooking table was set up outside the auditorium, and a large sum of money was collected from the sale of preserves and home baking which was generously donated. Tall candle-sticks and large colorful flowers decorated the tea table set up inside the auditorium. The girls of the Collegiate, dressed in their smart school uniforms, capably served the guests seated around the auditorium. A white elephant sale was organized and very competently run by the student council.

The proceeds of the tea were used mainly to purchase sports equipment for the new W.K.C.I. gymnasium. With the combined efforts of parents, teachers, students, and the Home and School Association, the tea proved to be extremely successful.

Dances

On October 7, 1960, W.K.C.I. started its social year with a Freshie Dance sponsored by the Collegiate Capers. The dance, the first of this kind in our school, was highlighted when Mr. Jewitt crowned Pam Baker, queen and Marilyn Pearce both from room 5. The second dance was the Hallowe'en Hop on October 28. Ray Mickey and the Downbeats entertained making this a highly enjoyable evening for all. After the drudging toil of examinations, our annual Christmas Dance was held. Gifts were given to each room teacher by the room presidents. This dance marked a perfect beginning to the well-earned vacations. A bouquet and hearty thanks go to our Social Council for the planning and festive decorating of the gym for these dances.

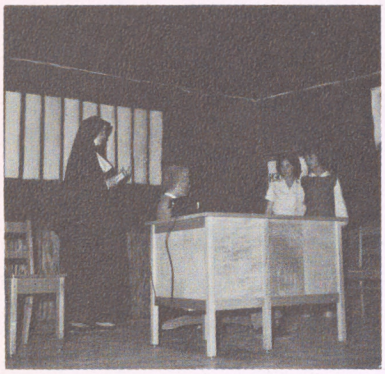

Many enjoyable soc hops were held at noon hours by our Red Cross Club. The proceeds were donated to the Red Cross Fund Raising Project.

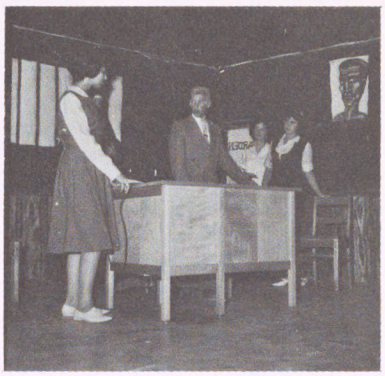

Due to the misbehavior of certain students, our stern, but just principal cancelled all dances from January to April. This disciplinary action, although seemingly harsh, served well its purpose of reconciling the good behaviour of the students and setting an example of the consequences for future years.

Drama

Variety

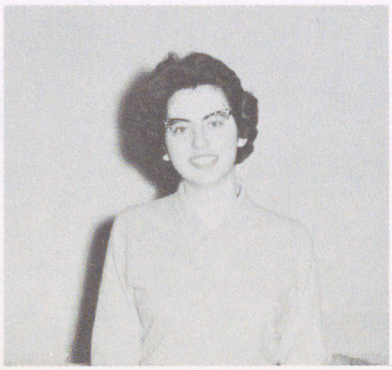

The Annual W.K.C.I. Variety-Nite was presented on Thursday, April 27 for parents and on Friday, April 28, for the students. Bev Berkal and her committee gave willingly their time and talents thus enabling the show to be a success — both financially and entertainment-wise. Carla Freedman acted as M.C. Among those who took part in the Concert were Sharon Guslits, Barry Perles, Sylvia Royko, Arlene Walsh, the cheerleaders, the Dance Club and the boys of Room 15. The highlight of the evening was a skit composed of tunes from "H.M.S. Pinafore".

The sixth annual W.K.C.I. Oratorical Contest was held at the Home and School Meeting on Tuesday, April 20th. The contestants were judged and constructive criticism was offered. First prize was awarded to Charles Birks who spoke on "Death". Carol Litwin placed second with her views on the "Eichmann Trial". Sally McLean ranked third with the topic "Can a Teenager Be a Christian in the 20th Century?"

Some of the important highlights of every high school are its dances and this year 'K.C.I. was out to top them all. The Social Council, under the supervision of the Student Council had Ron Gregory as President, Pam Baker as Vice, and Rae Richie as treasurer. A few examples of the Council's hard work include the Hallowe'en Hop, the Christmas Dance, and the Freshie Dance — an innovation at the Collegiate that proved enjoyable and well worth attending.

President's Message

Sports activities had a surprising occurrence when both the girls' and boys' teams captured first place in their respective divisions. Although both teams were defeated in the semi-finals their play induced school spirit. The soccer team also did a commendable job as it reached the semi-finals. The basketball teams exhibited fine form and the girls' team managed to reach the semi-finals.

The inter-room events of volleyball, basketball, and soccer provided both spectators and competitors with many an exciting moment.

The Bowling League came into being after an absence of several years and many students had an ardent zeal for this activity.

As the eligibility rule did not apply to students interested in track, we had an excellent turnout at our track meet and many of the participants displayed their fine form.

A big hand has to go to the students who spent countless hours of organizing their own games and who did a grand job in keeping all sports activities running orderly and smoothly. The referees should also be commended on their fine work in keeping all games under control. They also displayed fine sportsmanship and leadership.

Everyone who symbolized West Kildonan Collegiate in inter-suburban competition this year, in winning or in losing, possessed that thing called sportsmanship which has been closely associated with West Kildonan and its "Weskays."

Volleyball

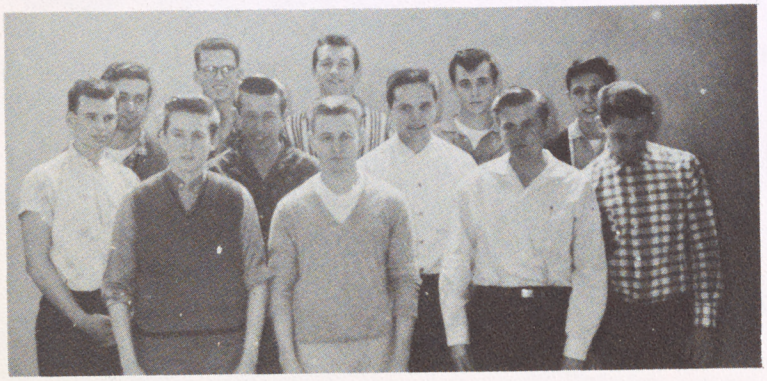

Room 7 and 11 defeated room 10 to decide the school's volleyball champs. In regular competition they tied twice and in the school finals. The third and deciding game had to be played after four so as to have enough time. Finally, room 11 and 7 came from behind, winning in overtime.

Basketball

Because the girls' inter-room basketball is being played much later this year, the winners cannot be recorded. In the opposite picture we are toasting the conveners who organized and made inter-room sports in our school possible.

Soccer

In inter-room soccer this year the schedule was run quite successfully by convener Bob Woods. A total of 11 teams competed in a double knockout series. In the main event room 20 defeated room 15 for the title. In the consolation event, room 25 defeated room 21 for that championship.

Volleyball

There was as usual this year a good competition in volleyball. The girls from room 26, however, took top honours with their win over the second place team of rooms 3 and 7 combined. Congratulations, girls!

Basketball

Room 22 finished undefeated in the round-robin final and defeated room 7 in the play-off games. Congratulations to both teams for a job well done!

Pin Soccer

In the inter-room pin soccer this year there was lots of action and keen competition. The girls went all out to win. After a gruelling battle room 14 won over room ?? in the finals.

This year as always our inter-suburban girls did excellently. After playing such teams as Nelson Mac, Brooklands and Silver Heights, they defeated St. James taking first place in their league. Each of the girls received a sweater which added to the joy of this success.

After this victory, the girls went out to the University Field House where after a painstaking three game series they lost the semi-finals in the inter-suburban league to Transcona High.

A bouquet goes to Miss McKelvey for all she has done and also to captain Gail McIntyre and co-captain Valdine Oakes.

Volleyball

As in past years W.K.C.I. produced an excellent volleyball team in inter-suburban competition. Playing against teams from St. James, Brooklands, Silver Heights and West Wood the team succeeded an impressive 8 won, no lost record. Playing each team twice they demonstrated their excellent spiking, serving and unity.

All the semi-final and final games were played in one day at the University Field House. In the semi-finals the boys met the team from Norwood in a 3 game series. The series went the full three games with our boys ending up with the bottom half of the barrel.

During the regular season, the team practised off-school-hours in both our gym and at Edmund Partridge. Elected to the top posts were Captain Ken Thompson and Co-captain Warren Halliday. Duncan Christie had the dubious honour of being the manager of the team.

This year, our inter-suburban girls put on a better show than our men. The girls scored four wins, three losses, and one tie, making the semi-finals. They lost out, however, to Vincent Massey girls after a hard fight.

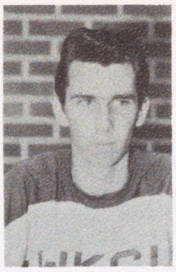

Myrna Schultz and Myrtle McEwen were among the high scorers in the girls' Eastern Division and made the all-star team as well.

A lot of credit goes to Miss McKelvey for giving her time and effort toward making our girls a recognized team.

Once again, due to the eligibility rule, W.K.C.I. failed to get very far in inter-suburban competition. Playing against such powerhouses as teams from Nelson Mac and Glenlawn, W.K. was defeated game after game. The boys got partial revenge when Glenlawn was defeated at Jefferson Junior High School. The team never looked better off before. Practising Monday and Wednesday nights and also every Saturday morning, they produced no outstanding results.

Every grade was represented on the team although the grade 10 boys saw spotted action. One bright light on the team was Russell Anthony who was chosen to play in the all-star game against the city division. Russell was also the team captain and one of the leading scorers on the team. Gerry Meyers was the manager, and Mr. Shultz did an excellent job in coaching the team.

Inter-Suburban Boys' Soccer

DEN BRYK

The boys' inter-suburban soccer team made quite a successful showing this year in their division. Playing against teams from Glenlawn, Transcona, and St. James the team achieved a 4-2 won lost record. During the regular season the team was defeated once by St. James and once by Transcona. However, having won all their other games they reached the semi-finals and were faced against the St. James team. Taking defeat in fine grace, they returned knowing they had represented our school satisfactorily.

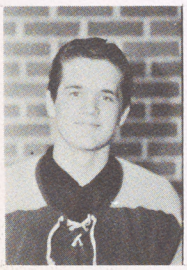

Coached by Mr. Shultz and managed by Dennis Tkach, the team practises regularly at Victory School grounds to produce the well-oiled team which represented our school. Commendable notice is due to Tage Kvist and Bob Woods who were elected as Captain and Co-captain respectively. Another achievement which the soccer team boasted was the leading goal-getter in inter-suburban competition. Lawrence Zoltenko potted five goals during the regular season, an achievement which not many players can brag of. Transcona captured the inter-suburban soccer title and will remain at that school again for the coming season. To the team, who fought like champions, congratulations are due all around and to Mr. Shultz and Dennis Tkach congratulations for a team well supervised.

Cheerleaders

Back Row: Ruth Alberts, Rae Ritchie, Linda Robertson, capt., Hester Marquart, Donna Hanson.
Front Row: Audrey Pickley, Heather Fraser, Rose Marych, Pam Baker, Doreen Mirecki.
Missing: Susan Beckingham, Dana Marner.

Referee Clinic

Back Row: Danny Leavens, Sandy Spence, Jerry Snukal, Marty Erlichman, Russ Anthony, Keith Bates, Chuck Birks, Milton Lecker.
Middle Row: Gary Chochinov, Gordon Margolese, John Bitchok, Don Bryk, Fred Strewchuk, Dennis Tkatch, Morry Appelle, Nelson Rudelier.

This year, as in past, the students were responsible for refereeing inter- room sports. Charles Birks, the referee chairman, along with twenty-seven other students refereed basketball, volleyball and soccer. To qualify for school referee, each student had to write tests. Lessons were given during lunch hour. There was also a six day clinic. They performed their tasks exceedingly well and set an example for fair play in competit Having done so well this year, the clinic will function as successfully next year.

Bowling

Back Row: Keith Bates, Fred Strewchuk, Bob Westmacott.
Front Row: Linda Skakum, Linda Baker, Jim Werner, Rochelle Bolstein.
Missing: Joan Prescott.

This year twenty-four games were played during the regular competition and Keith Bates captured the title for the highest average, Fred Strewchuck placed second in both places. Rod Westmacott's team had the highest team score. In girls' competition Linda Skakum had the highest average with 145 and Linda Baker played the highest game with 256. This year trophies will be presented to the team with the highest score and individual trophies to the players with the highest scores and aver ages. The Kennedy Trophy was presented this year by Mrs. Kennedy for the top team aggregrate score.

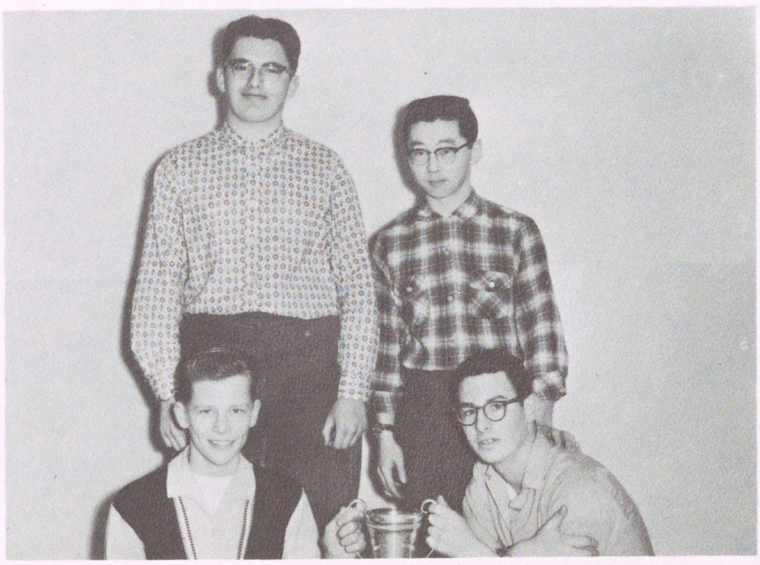

West Kildonan School Board Trophy

Front Row: John Engbers, Bob Woods.

The School Board Trophy, which is awarded to the winning team in the A division was captured this year by Bob Woods and Company. With lead Gordon McLeod, second Frank Fleisher, third John Engbers and skip Bob Woods the team achieved an impressive 7-2 won lost record during the regular season. Shooting good rocks throughout the season they continued their consistent way of playing and were rewarded hand somely with the West Kildonan School Board Trophy.

Alderson Trophy

Front Row: Reid Wallberg, Charles Lazer.

In the second division, the team winning the event is awarded the Alderson Trophy. The team with skip Alex Segall, third Yosho Saito, second Charles Lazer, and lead Reid Wallberg had a three won six lost record. Although their play during the regular season was inconsistent, they achieved their peak ability in the finals and captured the Alderson Trophy.

Stuart Trophy

Front Row: Ed Chodirker, Bob Allan.

In the third division, or consolation event, the trophy awarded is the Stuart Trophy. This year the trophy was won by Eddie Chodirker. With lead Don Sinclair, second Terry Boyd and third Bob Allan the team won five of the nine games played in regular curling competition. Losing their first game, they were placed in the consolation event and they defeated every opponent which faced them.

Rolston-Dewar Trophy

Front Row: Maureen Blyth, Diane Schapansky.

This season, the girls really enjoyed curling, and showed it by attending regularly every Tuesday The fight for first place was mainly among three teams. Gail McIntyre and Pat Lieir and their rinks tied for second place with three wins, two losses, and one tie. Sue Beckingham's rink came out on top, however, with four wins. Congratulations, kids! Thanks goes to Miss Dewar for arranging the trophies and to Jackie Zilz, the ice convener.

Keeping Young With Young Canada!

Fresh new approaches to old problems—enthusiasm, energy, and an eager desire to reach out for new ideas and challenges—these are the vital and important qualities of youth that we can use and appreciate. We, at EATON'S, are proud of our 1960-1961 Junior Executives and Junior Councillors.

Chosen on a basis of academic standing, personality and general participation in school activities, they help us keep young and in touch with current trends, fashions and needs of Young Canada. In return, EATON'S gives them practical training in modern retail business methods and merchandising—as well as actual selling experience.

High School Graduates

These recent high school graduates enjoy the opportunity to develop and improve their business skills at Great-West Life. They know that the training received at Company-sponsored workshops and instruction courses will help them to move ahead rapidly in their jobs.

Yes, there are many advantages in working at Great-West where you will find a position to suit your special interests and skills — secretary, clerk-typist, IBM operator, or office clerk.

YOU, too, should consider a career with Great-West Life, in one of Winnipeg's most modern office buildings. Discuss your future with us soon.
